Xmas presents of all kinds at Denholm's. Jesse Taylor of Parkersburg, was doing business in town Tuesday. Special—24 Large Stamps Photos 25 cents, at Wrenshall's gallery Bandon. David Perkins returned home Saturday evening from a business visit to Portland. Poultry kept on hand at the City Meat Market and fowls dressed on short notice. Sanderson Bros. will give away a $50 sewing machine January 1, 1903. Call on them and learn particulars. Magoon says his stock of candies nuts, fruit, etc won't remain. He has to keep a supply coming each week. In provisions and groceries G. H. Magoon always carries a select stock. Fresh supplies arriving on each vessel. There are no special Holiday goods at N. Lorenz's store, but you can find goods there which will make choice gifts for Christmas occasions. The ladies having the Church Bazaar in charge, Friday December 5th, have concluded to keep the fair open all day, so please make a note of this. The 5th number of the Gardiner Gazette, a neat little paper published at Gardiner, by O. L. Williams, made its appearance on our table this week. Misses Anna and Lena Logan went to Bear creek last Sunday to attend school there. J. C. Logan commenced a term of school at that place Monday morning. A plot of the town of North Bend was filed in the clerk's office at Coquille last week. It covers the same territory formerly covered in the plot of Yarow. Dr. Prentiss, the Marshfield Dentist is here, ready to do all kinds of work in the dental line, and desires those needing his services to call at once and have their work done or make dates. The Kanlass Show Company exhibited here last Saturday evening to a large audience. As singers this company is hard to excel, while the performance of Kanlass on the violin is grand. Bertha VonJergreen and her sister Mrs. P. McCleary and children were in town Sunday night on their way to Portland. Miss VonJergreen was married to a Mr. Stewart of Curry county, at Coquille, Monday. W. R. Cope and daughter Ellen of Dairyville, were in town Sunday night. Mr. Cope brought his daughter this far on her way to San Francisco. She went to Marshfield Monday to take passage on a steamer from there. B. F. Lawrence, formerly editor and proprietor of the Coquille Bulletin, but lately telegraphic editor of the Oregonian, has been on the sick list and his physician has advised him to go immediately to Arizona for the benefit of his health. A glass of two of water taken half an hour before breakfast will usually keep the bowels regular. Harsh cathartics should be avoided. When a purgative is needed, take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They are mild and gentle in their action. For sale by C. Y. Lowe. John McVay and wife who have been ranching on the Coquille near Riverton have sold out their interests there and taken passage on the Mandalay for Crescent City. They intend to return to Smith River. Mr. McVay has done well during the year but failing health has induced him to return to Northern California. To improve the appetite and strengthen the digestion, try a few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Mr. J. H. Seitz of Detroit, Mich., says, "They restored my appetite when impaired, relieved me of bloated feeling and caused a pleasant and satisfactory movement of the bowels." There are people in this community who need just such a medicine. For sale by C. Y. Lowe. Every box warranted. Thanksgiving day has come and gone and likewise its fare. The day was generally observed here, and among other things was a feast prepared at the Tupper House where many repaired to partake dinner. The Bandon Woolen Mills company took the advantage the opportunity afforded to give their employees a Thanksgiving dinner to which a number of guests besides their employees were present and enjoyed the fare, which was bountiful indeed. Proprietor Bedillion had been equal to the occasion and there was nothing lacking.

Hay, grain and feed at N. Lorenz's Store. Look out for the masquerade on Christmas Eve. Christmas goods to suit persons of all ages at Denholm's. Call at the furniture store for upholstering goods. If you want a No. 1 sewing machine give A McNair a call. Charles Rackleff and Z. Grant of Myrtle Point, were in town Sunday. R. H. Rosa returned home Saturday evening from a business trip to San Francisco. Walter F. Riley editor of the Port Orford Tribune was a visitor to Bandon last Sunday. Orson Langlois of Cape Blanco, was in town Sunday night on his way to Coquille City. A. C. Curtis and wife took passage on the steamer Mandalay for a few weeks' visit to San Francisco. B. Caldwell and J. H. Zumwalt of Port Orford passed up to Parkersburg last Sunday to attend school there. A Choice lot of goods in hats and clothing at Lorenz's. A fresh consignment of the last steamer. Now is the time to buy. J. W. Strange the Myrtle Point dentist, arrived here Friday from a professional visit to Curry county. He returned to Myrtle Point Sunday. John Nasburg and wife and son who have been residents of Bandon for three or four years, left Tuesday for Empire, where they will reside this winter. C. A. Gage of Coquille City was in town Sunday on his way to Dairyville, whither he went to help Ed Rackleff in his store until the holiday season is over. J. M. Foulks and wife and E. B. Price of Riverton, have been in town several days awaiting the sailing of the Mandalay to take passage for San Francisco. Mr. and Mrs. C. Ledgerwood are expecting the arrival soon of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James Robinson and Albert Ford and wife and four children from Pomeroy, Wash. Mrs. Ford is a sister to Mrs. Ledgerwood. The parties expect to be here by Christmas, and intend to settle in Coos. Will and Alfred Caughell, Willie Doyle and Johnny Curry of Wedderburn, were in town Sunday having come up to take 1300 pounds of salmon eggs to Wedderburn. These eggs came from Battle creek, Michigan. They were shipped in ice and will be used for the propagation of the salmon industry in Rogue river. The last issue of the Port Orford Tribune makes the announcement that Hon. W. Sutton has sold that publication to W. F. Riley of Gold Beach, who will hereafter fill the editorial chair at Port Orford. Mr. Sutton, after a period of over twenty years spent in the newspaper business in Curry county intends retiring from public business and settling down to farm life. The Recorder wishes the new management success. A McNair had quick results, the other day, from telephone service, and while the service is very convenient we will not insure like results. Just before going home for supper he telephoned to San Francisco to have some lumps which he had ordered from Chicago, forwarded by way of Coos bay, and on returning to his store after supper he found that the lumps had arrived during his absence. How is that for quick returns? The entertainment last Thursday evening, given by Mrs. Wooten, assisted by Miss Maddocks, Miss Mand Walker and Miss Wilson, for the benefit of the Bandon school library, was altogether successful both as to entertainment and finance. The selections were well chosen, and the rendition showed tact and conception of that which was fitting in the training. There was a large and appreciative audience, and the receipts amounted to above $100. The entertainment has elicited much favorable comment. Dr. J. W. Strange, Dentist, of Myrtle Point, will hereafter be in Bandon for the week commencing the first Monday of each month and his first visit for 1903 will be for the week commencing January 5th. Reserve your dental work for him, and thus secure the best of work, done by a sober reliable workman. The finest of gold work, including bridge work, as also all other first class work satisfactorily inserted and fully warranted. Prices as cheap as consistent with good work, but in all cases about one-half the amount charged by others for the same kind of work.

Call and see those new Wicker Rokers at the Furniture Store—also watch for the Xmas Goods. Bergeron & Barre, of the Bandon Meat Market will buy your Poultry. Bring it in on Fridays. Alfred and Ed Johnson of Coquille were in town Monday. Magoon has a big candy order sent in—preparing for the holidays. Joseph Russell of Parkersburg was among the visitors to town yesterday. The storm of yesterday and last night has cut off telephone communication generally. A. J. Marsh, W. T. Kerr and wife and Mrs. L. Knapp of Port Orford were in town Sunday. Christmas is coming! You can discern that it is drawing near by the display in the store windows. W. H. Roberts inspector of the life saving service for this district gave the station here a visit this week. Jeweler Rice will give you better bargains in silverware than the traveling agents do. Give him your patronage and save your money. The steamer Mandalay has been barboned here for a week and the schooner Ruby has been waiting longer. Bar is too rough for sailing. J. K. McLeod and Alex McLeod, of Coquille put in an appearance here last Tuesday having brought down their piledriver to repair the lower wharf. Mrs. George Belloni, of Floras creek gave Coquille City a call, the latter part of last week to visit her children who are attending school at that place. A. G. Aiken of Marshfield was in town Monday night having come over with his nephew, W. G. Aiken of San Francisco who travels for a San Francisco house. Marshal Blackerby had a sailor in limbo the other night for drunkenness and disorderly conduct and the town treasury got the benefit of $14.50 in fine and costs. Mrs Robert McKinzie of Port Orford accompanied by her two sons, John W. and Robert, arrived here Saturday for the purpose of sending the boys to Parkersburg where they will attend J. C. Logan's school. Frank Holman came up from the jetty yesterday morning looking like a hurricane had passed through his hair, and on being accosted as to the cause of his distressed appearance replied that his hat had gone to sea. The town board has concluded that more light would add to the convenience of traveling along the streets at night and in accordance with that conclusion have ordered a dozen street lamps which will be put in place as soon as they arrive from the city. This is a measure that will be appreciated by the public. Emil A. Erickson, Formerly of Bandon, Dead. The Coast Mail of November 27, brought intelligence of the death of Emil A. Erickson, who died the preceding day at North Bend, aged 43 years. It gives the particulars as follows: "Deceased was born in Dalton, Gotteberg, Sweden, May 4, 1859. He came to Coos Bay some time in the seventies, and has been in the employ of the different sawmill companies nearly ever since. He was married on November 14, 1891, to Miss Hattie Robertson, a daughter of Jas. Robertson, of Coos river. He was a member of the A. O. U. W. and the M. W. A. orders and had many friends who will regret his untimely taking off. The cause of his death was blood-poisoning, arising from the laceration of one of his fingers by a rusty nail. Besides a widow, he leaves three children; Robert aged 8, Alton 6 and Violet 5 years." Mr. Erickson made Bandon his home for several years, during part of which time he was a member of the Life saving crew in the station here. The funeral services took place at Marshfield, on Friday under the auspices of the A. O. U. W. and M. W. A. orders deceased having been a member of both orders. Killed By a Falling Tree. A fatal accident occurred Tuesday forenoon on the claim of Drew Doyle, which is situated on the divide between Bills creek and Two-mile. He and his brother Cash was slashing on the former's claim but were working some little distance apart. Drew cut down an alder, about ten inches in diameter, which fell across the roof of a tree that had been blown down, and the butt of the alder flew up and kicked back in such a manner as to strike him on a head crushing the skull and causing death an hour afterward. Cash, who was some little distance away saw the danger and shouted to him but to no effect as he either did not hear the call or had not sufficient time to get out of the way. Deceased was about 22 years of age and was a sober industrious young man. His remains were brought to Bandon Tuesday evening and prepared for burial. They were taken to Coquille yesterday and the funeral was arranged to take place today. Held up Roseburg-Myrtle Point Stage. From the Myrtle Point Enterprise Nov 28. The Roseburg-Myrtle Point stage was held up just on the other side of the Canas mountain, Tuesday at about 12:30 P. M. by an amateur robber. The stage had just started up the mountain when a lone man emerged from the woods and ordered the driver, Damon Sawyer, to stop. The driver failed to stop until ordered to halt two or three times when the emphatic language of the bandit brought him to time. The robber called for the express box and was informed that the stage carried no express. He then ordered the one passenger on the stage, a Mr. Perkins, to alight from the rig which request was promptly complied with. He took the passenger's watch and chain and ordered him to turn his pockets inside out. Mr. Perkins had $32.50 with him and in turning his pockets held a twenty and a five dollar gold piece between his fingers in such a manner as not to be detected by the robber. The remaining $7.50, however, fell out and was secured by the man as a total reward for his trouble. He then ordered the mail sacks thrown out and after looking at them shook his head and ordered them placed back in the stage without going through them. When he had completed his work instead of ordering the stage to move on, he turned his back to the passenger and driver and quickly disappeared into the woods. The robber was shabbily dressed and wore a slouch hat and striped shirt. He weighs about 135 pounds and is a young man, probably not over 21 years of age, and seemed very nervous. The lower part of his face was covered with a red handkerchief. The driver and passenger both say he is a novice at the business and at times was so nervous he could hardly hold the revolver. The driver says the man was greatly excited and he could have got the drop on him and put a finish to his game had he had a dog with him. Sheriff Parrot, of Douglas county, is on track of the robber and it is probably only a question of a few days until he will be captured.
