Elder Crumley will preach at Recorder Hall, Sunday, January 18, morning and evening at the usual hours. M. L. Martin, Expert Piano tuner Orders by postal will receive prompt attention. Permanent address Marshfield, Oregon. George Belloni moved from the Star Ranch, on Floras Creek, this week, to the Ben Figg place above Coquille City. The schooner Lizzie Prien put in an appearance in the Coquille again last Monday, having been absent two or three years. The Coast Mail's holiday number came to hand last Monday, and is a very creditable production, giving Marshfield and vicinity a good write up. The Roseburg Review came out in fine style Jan. 8, in a 24 page edition advertising Douglas County in particular and Southern Oregon in general. January, up to date, has given this part of Oregon some very nice weather. However, there is rather more frost included than is good for grass growing. J. H. Mason and wife, of Marshfield came over Monday on a visit to this place. Mr. Mason was soliciting salmon for the cold storage plant of Marshfield. Superintendent Logan has been extending the jetty wharf at Parker's landing, and is doing other preparatory work on the north jetty. J. A. Hambleck, Warren Bullard, J. A. Morrison and William Barrows started for San Francisco by way of Marshfield, last Monday and will visit California for awhile. During 1902 the County Clerk of Coos County issued 102 marriage licenses. The least number issued in any one month was two in February, while December closed up the year with twenty counts. Clinton Malehorn, the Dairyville teamster came up Tuesday after a load of freight and brought up ten head of sheep which George Belloni was having transported to the Figg place, near Coquille City. Will the party who took the wooden scoop wheelbarrow from the dock please return the same? He remarked to a teamster at the time, that he would bring it back at once. The owner has waited some weeks and is getting tired. He will send for it soon. The nicest and pleasantest medicine I have used for indigestion and constipation is Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets," says Melard F. Craig, of Middlegrove, N. Y. "They work like a charm and do not gripe or have any unpleasant effect." For sale by C. Y. Lowe. The Bandon Dramatic Club returned home Saturday evening from their visit to Coquille and Myrtle Point well pleased with the patronage and courtesy they had received at each place. Besides those mentioned last week, Mrs. Jo Holman formed one of the number, having gone with the Club to help with the music. Owing to the unusual demand upon his time Dr. Strange will be unable to get to Bandon until the 17th of January, when he will be here for the week commencing with that day. All his work is first class and is fully warranted, and his charges are reasonable. Remember the date January 19, to 23.

Deatist Strange is coming Jan., 19. Hay, grain and feed at N. Lorenz's Store. Call at the furniture store for upholstering goods. Allie Guerin, of Langlois, was a visitor to Bandon last Monday. C. T. Riley, of Myrtle Point, was among the visitors here last week. Dr. E. O. Smith, long a resident of Marshfield, has moved to Eugene. Pure strained Honey, and Self-raising buckwheat Flour at Sanderson Bros. W. E. Dungan and Miss Carrie Owen, of Marshfield were married Wednesday January 7. Fresh pies and cakes, baked each day, the labor of Mrs. Lewin, can be had at the City Meat Market. N. Lorenz has received a stock of E. P. Reed's Ladies' shoes, that which there are none better. Call and see. Peter Loggie, our old time townsmen came over Monday to renew old acquaintance and spend a day or two in Bandon. We have the New Home, White and Singer Sewing Machine, at the Furniture Store, on the most reasonable terms and prices. For a bad taste in the mouth take a few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Price 25 cents. Warranted to cure. For sale by C. Y. Lowe. Jack W. Hoover, of Langlois came up Monday to spend a couple of days and enliven town with his jovial countenance. How is baseball coming on Jack? Travel has been light for some time, but among those bringing up here this week were A. N. Gould, of Alloghany, and L. R. Robertson, of Marshfield. Peter Nelson and a number of the members of the A. O. U. W. of Bandon, about ten in all, attended the Coquille lodge last Monday night, at which time some twenty five new members were initiated. A good supper and an excellent time is reported. The only news that reached us from the oil prospect this week, was to the effect that when the drilling tools were discovered at the surface some 800 to 1200 feet below the scene of operations, they were marked and drawn back to prove property.—The prospect brightens and grows like neighborhood gossip. The sawmill question is beginning to loom up again and we understand that the gentleman who represents the company is to be here shortly and that Coos county is likely to receive three new mills in the near future; one here, one at Coquille, and one on Coos bay, all to be operated by the same company. Attention is called to the destruction of the windows in the east side of the Catholic church. Somebody's boys have been trying their air guns and somebody is liable for damages. This is the second time the glass in these windows have been broken out. It is a heavy tax upon the members, and it should cease. Somebody's boys need looking after, and if the parents do not take it in hand, the marshal should. H. A. Cox has bought out G. H. Magoon's grocery store and will be found at the old stand ready to serve the best to be had in his line of goods. He proposes carrying good stock of fresh provisions and groceries, and having cast his lot and invested his means in Bandon he solicits a share of the public patronage feeling confident that he can supply the wants of patrons so that mutual benefits will accrue. Coquille Bulletin: "Dick" Rose, a well-known young gentleman of this city, met with a very severe accident last Tuesday while at work at North Bend. Mr. Rose and a fellow workman were grubbing a stump and Dick reached under the stump to extract a stick when his partner struck him with the edge of a grub hoe, almost severing his little finger from his left hand. A physician was called from Marshfield, who attended to the injured member. At last accounts Mr. Rose was resting easy. His many friends hope for his speedy recovery. Croup. The peculiar cough which indicates croup, is usually well known to the mothers of croupy children. No time should be lost in the treatment of it, and for this purpose no medicine has received more universal approval than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Do not waste valuable time in experimenting with untried remedies, no matter how highly they may be recommended, but give this medicine as directed and all symptoms of croup will quickly disappear. For sale by C. Y. Lowe.

Mon. Thomas H. Tongue Died Suddenly at Washington. Word reached here Monday evening that Representative Tongue had died suddenly, but no particulars arrived until the Coast Mail appeared with the following on Tuesday evening: Washington, Jan. 12.—Representative Tongue, of Oregon, in the presence of his daughter Bertha and his secretary, Miss Ruane, died suddenly in his room at the hotel Irvington in this city at 12:50 Sunday afternoon. A few minutes before he passed away he lapsed into unconsciousness and died without a word and without any suffering. His son Thomas H. Jr., did not reside with his father but was notified thereof via a "probing and hastened to his father's bedside but did not reach there until after he had passed away. Physicians were summoned and the family physician, Dr. Dove, as well as the coroner agreed that death was due to acute indigestion which superinduced paralysis of the heart. Mr. Tongue had been in his usual health except occasional attacks of dyspepsia, to which he had been subjected of late years, and had not complained of feeling badly this winter. He considered that he was in better health than he had been for years past, in fact. There will be no funeral services held in Washington. The Tongue family and congressional party leave with the remains in a special sleeping car over the Pennsylvania railroad this evening at 7:45 P. M., going by Chicago to Omaha over the Chicago and Northwestern, thence by the U. P., O. R. & N. and Southern Pacific to Hillsboro. If connections be made the funeral train will reach its destination Saturday night, giving an opportunity for funeral services at the Tongue home Sunday. Still Improving. Messrs. A. W. Kime and J. B. Gross have inaugurated a large amount of improvement in the Rossa building on First and Wharf Streets, which they recently purchased. A first class floor has been put in the hall, and the work of re-flooring the lower story has been under way this week besides other changes made on the lower floor. Mr. Kime is having an extension built on the south end in which the stage will be located, and also admittance to the hall will be through this addition, while the dressing rooms will be located beneath the stage. On the front of the building and over the sidewalk is to be constructed a band stand with fire-escape connections with the street, and a door in the east side of the hall will also be provided with a fire escape. The changes being made are especially to provide conveniences for theatrical performances and to accommodate dancers. Wood Sawing Invention. The Ashland Iron Works Co., has purchased of Edward E. Redfield of Glendale, all patent rights recently acquired by him as inventor on a pneumatic wood saw. The apparatus consists of an engine, which operates an air pump and compressed air is the source of the energy which runs the saw. It can be operated by one man and it is claimed that it will cut 50,000 feet of saw logs per day. The McCloud River Company already has one of the machines in use. The latter firm was so well pleased with the machine that they have given the Ashland Iron Works an order for eight more.—Valley Record. DIME SOCIAL. The M. E. Aid Society will give a dime social at the Parsonage Friday evening at 8 o'clock Jan. 16th. Refreshments will be served. Come one come all. Boys come and bring the girls. Result of Good Roads Convention. From the Coquille Bulletin. Pursuant to call of State Vice President S. B. Cathcart, a Good Roads County Convention, met at the court house in this city, Wednesday night, January 7, 1903, at 7:30 P. M. Mr. S. B. Cathcart was elected temporary chairman and Robert W. Airey, temporary secretary. The chairman stated that our present roads had already been sufficiently "cussed" the object of the meeting was to discuss ways and means for something better. County School Superintendent W. H. Bunch then delivered the opening address which showed that the speaker was thoroughly conversant with his subject and had made careful preparation of the same. His remarks were loudly applauded and apparently entirely approved by the meeting. The following resolutions were read and adopted: TO THE COOS COUNTY GOOD ROADS CONVENTION, COQUILLE, OREGON: GENTLEMEN—We, your committee on resolutions, beg leave to offer the following resolutions and recommendations for your consideration and adoption: FIRST: That we heartily endorse the plan for state and county Good Roads Associations as adopted by the Good Roads Convention recently held in the city of Portland, and hereby recommend that such plan be adopted for the organization of a county association in this county. SECOND: We endorse the recommendations made by said convention as to proposed amendments in our present road laws. THIRD: We recommend that further amendments to our present road laws should be urged in the following particulars. I. That our present road laws be so amended so that all roads to be hereafter opened and established shall conform to a practical maximum grade, and that all existing roads exceeding such grade shall be made to conform thereto as soon as practicable, excepting mountain roads that cannot be made to conform thereto. II. That all proposed roads shall be viewed at the same time as they are surveyed in order to ascertain whether the same will be feasible or practicable and can be made to conform to the established grade. III. That when such survey is made, two viewers shall be appointed to accompany the surveyor and if the survey shall show the proposed road to be feasible and practicable and can be made to conform to the established grade, the viewers and the surveyor so appointed shall appraise the damages and benefits to the property through which said proposed road is to run and report the same to said court at its next term, subject to the approval of said court; and that the present method of appointing viewers and appraisers be abolished. IV. That we tender a vote of thanks to Hon. S. B. Cathcart for the interest he has taken and energy and expense he has expended in the interest of good roads in this county. Respectfully submitted, R. C. DEMENT, F. P. NORTON, J. J. STANLEY, Com. Permanent organization was then effected by electing Judge Halocker, pres; R. W. Airey, sec; Geo. H. Wilson, F. P. Norton, D. E. Stitt, J. H. Schroeder, Wm. Abernethy, John L. Barker and C. S. Rodine, vice presidents, and O. C. Sanford, treas. The Chico Coming. Col. R. H. Rosa received a telegram from San Francisco, this week, stating that the steamer, Chico, would sail from that place direct to the Coquille on Saturday, and that he should notify shippers to that effect. The Chico was here once before, at which time, she sailed under the name Alice Blanchard. She is to return direct to San Francisco, but her future course is not known here, however, it is not likely that she has been put upon this run for one trip only as that would hardly pay under almost any conditions. There are interests on the Coquille which demand steamer transportation and it is not likely that this route will go begging for any length of time. Important News Notes.
