EDITORIAL.

While Senator Hanna is championing a measure to pension all ex-slaves it might be in order for him to push one through that will free the financial slaves from their present thrall.

Several states, among which number is the great state of New York, have bills pending which purpose imposing a special tax upon bachelors and spinsters after they reach a certain age. Since to men only have been accorded the right to propose marriage, this may have the effect of changing custom and sending old maids out to "pop the question."

The Country's Greatest Corporation.

The Capital of the United States Steel Corporation, $1,400,000,000, is greater than any other single industry, unless it be that of merged railroads, but it controls, through ownership of stock and "community of interest" arrangements, many other important industries, among them the Bethlehem Steel Company, the Cambria Steel Company, the American Bicycle Company, and the American Can Company, with an aggregate capitalization of about $100,000,000 more. It also controls various allied industries with capital amounting to perhaps $200,000,000 more. The value of its annual product is now about $400,000,000; its pay-roll is about $150,000,000, and its first year's profits were over $111,000,000. In several industrial lines, such as wire, tin plates, and structural steel for bridges, it has practically no competition. It owns 80 per cent of the iron ore mines of the Lake Superior region, most of the coke fields, 1000 miles of railroad, various lines of steamships, and it turns out about 70 per cent of all the steel produced in the country. It is estimated that this gigantic corporation receives Government aid through the tariff law, of from $70,000,000 to $80,000,000 a year. Just how much of its stock is "water" is not easily ascertainable, but it is certain that the profits, through the high duties on steel, tin plate, wire, tubular goods, etc., are out of proportion to the capital really invested, and that the American people are paying too much for the production of this "infant industry," this Prince of corporations, which is also a colossal taxpayer. It is true that the wages of the many thousands of workmen employed by this corporation are to be considered, and that some duty on competing imports is therefore necessary or advisable, but the fact undoubtedly is that while good wages are paid, the bulk of the excessive profits go into the pockets of the few men who comprise the trusts.—Portland Telegram.

Oregonian: A complaint was filed in the United States Circuit Court yesterday in the case of R. A. Grabam against the Beaver Hill Coal Company, which operates mines in Coos county. The suit was originally begun in the State Circuit Court for Coos county, but it was transferred to the Federal tribunal on motion of the defendant, who alleged that it was a corporation, organized under the laws of California, and that the plaintiff was a subject of the King of Great Britain. The suit is for the recovery of $17,464.36 for the rental of 45 dwellings and store buildings in section 17, township 27 south, range 2 west, of the Willamette Meridian, between the years 1897 and 1902. The plaintiff alleges that he owns the property, and that the buildings were occupied without his consent.

A Mother's Recommendation.

I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for a number of years and have no hesitancy in saying that it is the best remedy for coughs, colds and croup I have ever used in my family. I have not words to express my confidence in this remedy.—Mrs. J. A. Moore, North Star, Mich. For sale by C. Y. Lowe.

The Elk Creek Hatchery.

From the Medford Success.
J. W. Berriam, superintendent of the Rogue River Fish hatchery, was in Medford Thursday and Friday of this week. Mr. Berriam reports that matters are moving along quite satisfactorily at the hatchery and that the output of young fish for the year will be about up to the average. Of eggs in the hatching troughs and fish in the finding tanks, he has 4,135,000 chinook, 730,000 steelheads and silver-salmon, which are coming on finely, though the eggs are now hatching slowly owing to the coldness of the water. The eggs ordinarily hatch in the fall of the year in about 40 days, but now that the temperature of the water is barely above the freezing point, averaging about 35 degrees, it takes as high as 90 days for them to hatch. The first of January Supt. Berriam liberated 50,000 young salmon which were hatched from eggs taken last August. Most of the young salmon are from three to four inches long when turned out thus being strong enough to elude the many enemies, that make such havoc with very small fish, and to reach the sea in safety. To feed these during this period of growth Mr. Berriam puts up large quantities of canned salmon, having a plant for that purpose, furnished and fitted up by R. D. Home, the well known canning man of lower Rogue river.

Supt. Berriam will also hatch out a large number of trout eggs this spring. He now has 100 cut-throat trout in an artificial pond, which he is holding until the spawning season. He has only lost one fish since the trout were caught several weeks ago, and they are all healthy and vigorous, and give promise of yielding at least 75,000 eggs. Catching wild trout and holding them is a new venture in the hatchery work, and Mr. Berriam is highly gratified at the success of his work for it will enable a hatchery to have a much longer period for which to catch a supply of trout for hatching purposes.

The Great Destroyer.

The Saloon Must Go!
Why?
Because it's an enemy of God.
Because its foundation is human lust.
Because it cannot stand before the better instincts of manhood, when once they are aroused.
Because its presence is a bar to highest progress.
When a united Christian sentiment says, "Go," to the saloon, it will depart.
When men realize that they are their brothers' keepers.
When our religion becomes real enough to make us true humanitarians.
When the disciples get ready to obey all the commands of their Master.
By Whom?
The dormant knightliness of manhood when awakened will put the saloon to a swift death.
The voters who love their land more than they love their political party will be the saloon's executioners.
The prayers of the common mother heart are hastening the destruction of this arch enemy of all sons.
The power of the Highest will yet be displayed upon this chief instrument of Satan.—Forward.

Thus Saith The Lord.
Woe to him that buildeth a town with blood, and establisheth a city by iniquity!
Woe unto him that giveth his neighbor drink, that putteth his bottle to him, and maketh him drunken also (Hab. 2: 12, 15).
But they also have erred through wine, and through strong drink are out of the way.
And your covenant with death shall be dissolved, and your agreement with hell shall not stand: when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, then ye shall be trodden down by it (Isa. 28: 7, 18).
For among my men are found wicked men: they set a trap, they catch men.
Shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this? A wonderful and horrible thing is committed in the land.

The prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests bear rule by their means; and my people love to have it so; and what will ye do in the end thereof (Jer. 5: 26, 29, 30, 31).

If thou forbear to deliver them that are drawn unto death, and those that are ready to be slain;
If thou sayest, Behold, we know it not; doth not He that pondereth the heart consider it? And he that keepeth thy soul, doth not He know it? And shall not he render to every man according to his works? (Prov. 24: 11, 13).

Barnabaz Words by a Priest.

Some Roman Catholic priests are too friendly to the whiskey business. Many whose personal habits and attitudes are all right fail to use their influence against the abomination. But once in a while a Roman Catholic leader sounds a clarion note which reverberates over the land. This at tolerance from Father James J. Coffey of St. Louis contains a world of awful truth:
"Some reformers go out of their way to pay special compliments to the saloon as an American institution. They tell us the saloon is the poor man's club, his haven of rest after a day's laborious toil.
"Why not continue the enjoyment, and recommend the saloon as the poor man's bank? Why not call it the toiler's refuge in sickness? Why not style the saloon-keeper the workingman's good Samaritan in affliction, his supporter and friend in misfortune, and poverty? I have no patience with people who go out of their way to excuse the existence of the lawless and poverty-breeding saloon, and who are always seeking an opportunity to pat the saloon keeper on the back for his many noble acts of charity and benevolence.
"We know what the saloon is, if we want to tell the truth. It is the highway robber of the poor and the helpless; it is the wrecker and destroyer of thousands of happy comfortable homes; it is the debaucher of the young and innocent, through its wine rooms and other past breeding annexes; it is, in fine, the vicious and contaminating influence that produces most of our political rotteness.
"We have permitted this vile reptile to entwine itself about our municipal, state, and federal politics until it has crushed out all decency and honesty, and left us nothing but the shell of our boasted liberty."
We would to God that the cardinals and bishops and priests of the Roman Catholic Church would determine to make a united stand against the liquor power of this land! That leadership possesses immense power. It could send consternation into the camp of the rummies. It could bring hope to thousands of people now in abject slavery to strong drink, and organize a vast army of deliverance.
God multiply the bravo Father Coffeys by hundreds and by thou sand.—Epworth Herald.

MRS. L. S. ADAMS, of Galveston, Texas.

"Wine of Cardui is indeed a blessing to tired women. Having suffered for seven years with weakness and bearing-down pains, and having tried several doctors and different remedies with no success, your Wine of Cardui was the only thing which helped me, and eventually cured me. It seemed to build up the weak parts, strengthen the system and correct irregularities."

By "tired women" Mrs. Adams means nervous women who have disordered meninges, falling of the womb, ovarian troubles or any of these ailments that women have. You can cure yourself at home with this great woman's remedy, Wine of Cardui. It is a natural and safe cure, thousands of cases which doctors have failed to benefit. Why not begin to get well today? All druggists have it. For any stomach, liver or bowel disorder, Theodor's Black-Drainage should be used.

For further information, address, get your copy of "The Ladies' Health Guide," which contains full directions for the use of Wine of Cardui.
