Coos Bay Stage Held Up. ROSEBURG, Or., May 6.—The usual annual holdup of the Coos Bay stage occurred at 9 o'clock last night, near the top of Hoover Hill, the scene of several similar occurrences. The highwaymen succeeded in securing about $100 in cash and the driver's pistol.

The stage left Olalla, bound for this city, on time, in charge of driver Sawyers, with three passengers aboard, and when nearing the summit of Hoover Hill a man stepped out of the brush and ordered halt, which was not heard by the driver, as he is very deaf. One of the passengers called attention to the order, and the stage was brought to a stop. The highwayman then displayed his gun and ordered all to "climb out," which was done. He then called "Ho! pard" and a second man appeared and proceeded to make a thorough search of the victims. Both robbers wore handkerchiefs as masks.

H. H. Seveill, a traveling man from San Francisco, was the first victim, who dug up $140 in gold, $20 in silver and bill, and a watch and chain; McCarth, of New Richmond, Mich., was relieved of $6.50 silver and E. J. Lee, of Cylion, Mich., lost $4.50, a silver watch and chain. During the search the robbers kept up a hot fire of talk, remarking that it was a shame to take the money, etc., McCarth remarking that it was a shame to rob a poor working man, and asked for enough money to pay his hotel bill, and the robber gave him $1.50. Then Lee asked for his watch, which he said was a present from his mother. The robber returned it with $1.50, remarking he could pay his hotel bill also. Then Seveill cut in, saying, "I do believe you fellows would take me left out here without a cent. Can't you give me a dollar out of that little purse of mine?"

The robber opened the purse and handed Seveill what he thought was a dollar, but what was really a $20 piece out of Seveill's supply of gold, and all three purses. Then going to the driver, he took his gun, telling him that was a dangerous thing for a boy to play with. The mails were not molested. Both robbers then disappeared in the brush, and the stage came on to Roseburg.

Sheriff Parrott and a posse are in the vicinity of the hold up. This is the fifth time within eight years that a hold up has occurred within the vicinity of Hoover Hill, and it is thought that there is an organized band of robbers in that vicinity.

Too Great a Risk. In almost every neighborhood someone has died from an attack of cholera or cholera morbus, often before medicine could be procured or a physician summoned. A reliable remedy for these diseases should be kept at hand. The risk is too great for anyone to take. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has undoubtedly saved the lives of more people and relieved more pain and suffering than any other medicine in use. It can always be depended upon. For sale by C. V. Lowe.

Decorations Day Program. Bandon Post and all ex-soldiers are requested to meet at G. A. R. Hall, at 9:45 and march to First Street where column will form as follows:

Now Is the Time. The 4th of July is coming boys, and if you would present an up-to-date appearance, go to Benton Hoyt, and order one of those elegant suits of which he will show you samples. You cannot afford to present a forlorn appearance while "Old Glory" waves and everybody rejoices.

Railroad News. A Grants Pass dispatch gave out the following information: "A vicar recently received from San Francisco would seem to prove that the Santa Fe is behind the Oregon & Pacific Company in the building of a railroad line from Grants Pass to Crescent City. It seems the Southern Pacific and Santa Fe cannot get together in the matter of handling the extensive lumber traffic of the Humboldt county region of California, and by reason of this there is a fight on between the rival companies for this business. The Southern Pacific is rushing the extension of the California & Northwestern and hopes by the completion of this line to have the lumber traffic well in hand by the end of summer. In the meantime the Santa Fe is taking in hand the building of the line from here to Crescent City, with the extension of the road south to Eureka and Humboldt bay. The people here however, are not worrying about the railroad fights. All they want is the line, without regard to the builders."

The following item from the Crescent City Record adds assurance to the railroad prospects: "Joe Cosmey, of Grants Pass, who is with the Oregon & Pacific surveying party, running up Mill creek and out down the coast to Eureka, was in town last Sunday and reported an average of a mile being surveyed daily. The route is through the heart of the redwood belt of Del Norte and Humboldt counties, and no doubt surveys will be made up the principal streams to tap the timber. It will take the entire summer to reach Humboldt Bay."
