EDITORIAL.

Sir Thomas Lipon's Shamrock III is proving to be a much better boat than Shamrock I, but his hopes will most likely again fail of realization as the new cup defender, Reliance, is also a fast sailor and is proving much smarter than the vessel that beat the Shamrock. Sir Thomas seems doomed to return again without the much coveted cup.

Myrtle Point Enterprise: The well known rich mining property owned by the Salmou Mountain mining Co., has been bonded by Orvil Dodge and others, and it will soon be controlled by a company now forming whose aim will be to work it by the best known process. For about 16 years this mine has been worked at intervals, and it is estimated that toward $300,000 in free gold has been taken out, notwithstanding it has been worked at a great disadvantage.

A Sad Incident.

The little five year old daughter of Mr. Warner, was accidentally killed near Sumpter Ore., Wednesday evening. The family were enroute from the Palouse country to the Rogue River Valley, and were camped about 5 miles below here when the fatal accident occurred. Some bedding was being lifted from the front of the wagon when a pistol fell out, and striking the tongue, was exploded, the bullet passing through the little girl's body. She was playing with her small brother just in front of the wagon, and immediately after being shot begged her father to throw the revolver away so that no one else might be killed with it. Mr. Warner is an Oddfellow and Knight of Pythias, and the funeral was conducted under the auspices of the two orders. Coast Mail.

Pope Leo XIII is Dead.

WASHINGTON, July 20.—The United States Charge D'Affaires has received a dispatch from Cardinal Gibbons, at Rome, saying, "The Pope died at 4:10 p. m. July 20."

The following dispatch was sent to Cardinal Rampollo at Rome by President Roosevelt's order at 1:15 this afternoon:

"The President desires me to express the profound sense of loss the Christian world sustains in the death of His Holiness. By his lofty character, great learning and comprehensive charity, he adorned his exalted station, and made his reign one of the most illustrious, as it has been one of the longest, in the history of the Catholic church."

Signed, HAY.

Kaiser William's Versatility.

The Emperor of Germany's vitality, virility and varied accomplishments and abilities make him an object of admiration, even on the part of those who could find much fault with some of his performances. According to the New York Press, he can write a song, set it to music and sing it. He can paint a picture, frame it and criticize the critics who praise or condemn it. He can write a drama, stage it, act it and give a critique upon it. He is the best horseman in Europe, and one of the most expert yachtsmen. He talks fluently in five modern languages. He plays chess and poker and at the latter can hold not only his own, but some of the other fellow's. He understands engineering and is an expert in electricity. He is a theologian and has composed a prayer. He can command a ship or a regiment, a fleet or an army. He can discuss horsebreeding, or cattle-raising. He is an ideal cook. He makes speeches that startle the world. He is a litterateur. He drinks beer and champagne with equal facility and gusto. He is a friend of rich and poor. He thrums the guitar and plays the organ. He is a multi-millionaire. He crushed Bismarck, then when the Chancellor was old and helpless, nursed and petted him.

Perhaps Americans are inclined to like the Emperor partly because in all this he measures up to the ideal of American enterprise, activity and versatility, and is very much of a match for our very active and many-sided President.—Telegram.

Teachers' Institute.

The Teachers' Institute for the year 1903 will be held in Bandon, August 17 to 20. W. H. Bunch, Co. Superintendent.

Postal Frauds.

Although freight rates during the past twenty years have decreased to individuals at least forty per cent, the government pays for carrying the mails fully as much as it did twenty years ago. In addition to this, the government has made an allowance of $5,000 a year for the wheelage and care of each of 622 railway postoffice cars in actual use and 154 other cars held in reserve, and yet the figures of the Pullman Company and the Jackson Co., show that these postoffice railway cars cost only between $4,500 and $5,000 each. In other words, the government is paying more than the full cost of a postoffice car for a year's use of it in addition to what it is paying for the transportation of the mail carried in it.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

A Powerful Curl.

Many a rough looking man carries in his pocket, safe from all eyes but his own, some memento or relic which is to him as a shield and buckler against the powers of evil.

A story is told of a big burly miner who steadily refused to join his comrades in their drinking bouts or in any of their revels in which evil was done. He was not surly and morose, but he steadfastly declined all invitations to take part in his companions' carousals. He was jeered at and subjected to all sorts of annoyances, but yield he would not. One night when the revelry ran high and many of the men were half drunk they declared that "Big Joe," as he was called, simply "had to drink with them."

"I will not boys," he said firmly. "They declared that if he did not they would force liquor down his throat, and then run him out of the camp."

"You ain't no better than the rest of us!" said one man. "Well, why can't you join us and be friendly and sociable like, when we're trying to have a good time? Ain't signed the pledge, have you?" with a sneer.

"No, I have not signed any pledge, boys. Well, boys, I'll tell you," he said. "It is something I don't like to talk about, but I'll tell you; but perhaps you'll not expect nor want me to drink with you when I've told you the truth."

He thrust his hand down into an inside pocket in his gray flannel shirt and drew forth something wrapped in an old silk handkerchief. Inside the handkerchief was a wrapping of tissue paper, and in the paper was a little shining curl of yellow hair. Big Joe held the curl up between his thumb and finger, and said:

"Boys, I've got a little motherless girl nearly two thousand miles from here, and that curl came from her head. I used to drink a lot—enough to ruin my wife's happiness, and when she was dying I promised her that I'd never drink another drop, and that for our little girl's sake I'd be a better man; and when I left my little one with her grandmother I promised them both what I'd promised my wife, and my little girl cut this curl from her head and gave it to me to 'remember her by,' and she said, 'Maybe it will help you to keep your promise, papa.' It has helped me. I've worn it next my heart night and day, and I'll never, never drink a drop, nor do anything that she would be sorry to have me do while it is there. Now do you want me to drink with you, boys?"

The man who threatened to have whiskey poured down Big Joe's throat was the first to say, "no," and from that time forward he was never asked to break his promise. His little girl's curl of shining yellow hair was his shield and buckler, and with God's help, it was to him a sure defense.—National Advocate.

Very Remarkable Cure of Diarrhoea.

"About six years ago for the first time in my life I had a sudden and severe attack of diarrhoea," says Mrs. Alice Miller, of Morgan, Texas. "I got temporary relief, but it came back again and again, and for six long years I have suffered more misery and agony than I can tell. It was worse than death. My husband spent hundreds of dollars for physicians' prescriptions and treatment without avail. Finally we moved to Bosque county, our present home, and one day I happened to see an advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy with a testimonial of a man who had been cured by it. The case was so similar to my own that I concluded to try the remedy. The result was wonderful. I could hardly realize that I was well again, or believe it could be so after having suffered so long, but that one bottle of medicine, costing but a few cents, cured me." For sale by C. Y. Lowe.

THE DORADO
BLACK-DRAUGHT
THE ORIGINAL
LIVER MEDICINE

A yellow complexion, dizziness, biliousness and a coated tongue are common indications of liver and kidney diseases. Stomach and bowel troubles, severe as they are, give immediate warning by pain, but liver and kidney troubles, though less painful at the start, are much harder to cure. Theodor's Black-Draught never fails to benefit diseased liver and weakened kidneys. It stirs up the torpid liver to throw off the germs of fever and ague. It is a certain preventive of cholera and Bright's disease of the kidneys. With kidneys reinforced by Theodor's Black-Draught thousands of persons have dwelt immune in the midst of yellow fever. Many families live in perfect health and have no other doctor than Theodor's Black-Draught. It is always on hand for use in an emergency and saves many expensive calls of a doctor.
Mullins, S. C., March 19, 1901.
I have used Theodor's Black-Draught for three years and I have not had to go to a doctor since I have been taking it. It is the best medicine for me that is on the market for liver and kidney troubles and dyspepsia and other complaints.
