EDITORIAL

Tamany has again obtained control in New York City, but it is not likely that any great reforms will result.

The war spirit is rife again. The jathans of Panama is in rebellion against Columbia, and is fighting for release from that government.

Now comes the rumor that J. Pierpont Morgan has concluded to make England his home during the greater part of the year.

When the late Bryan ought to be called "Bacon's Ghost." He would not, at least, one would conclude as much from the way Republicans advocate keep pecking at him.

Made Young Again

"One of Dr. King's New Life Pills each night for two weeks has put me in my teens again," writes D. H. Turner of Dempseytown, Pa.

That Extra Session

The following comes to us through the Coast Mail: Salem, Nov. 9.—Governor Chamberlain is very loth to call a special session of the legislature, and will only do so upon the request of a large majority of the members.

A Sure Thing

It is said that nothing is sure except death and taxes, but that is not altogether true. Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption is a sure cure for all lung and throat troubles.

Judge Cleland Affirmed

There was once an Irish politician, and he opposed the party in power on the luminiferous theory that "a change would be better, even if it was for the worse."

extra session. This places the Oregon taxpayer between the two horns of a dilemma, for the lowest estimated cost of a few days session is $15,000, and the only alternative would be for the state to pay interest upon warrants to the amount of $1,000,000, which would mean an interest account for the state alone of about $30,000.

Only Make A Bad Matter Worse

Perhaps you have never thought of it, but the fact must be apparent to every one that constipation is caused by a lack of water in the system, and the use of drastic cathartics like the old fashioned pills, only makes a bad matter worse.

Punish The Big Thieves

The late Thomas Brackett Reed had a theory that if you didn't know what to do about a matter of burning public interest, then don't do it.

A Child's Song

That little children, in many instances, have been instruments in the hands of God, in leading their parents and other adults to Christ, is a truth often verified throughout Christendom.

Defiance Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube.

FROM SOUTH AFRICA

Mr. Arthur Chapman, writing from Durban, Natal, South Africa, says: "As a proof that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a cure suitable for old and young, I pen you the following: A neighbor of mine had a child just over two months old. It had a very bad cough, and the parents did not know what to give it. I suggested that if they would get a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and put some upon the dummy test the baby was sucking, it would no doubt cure the child. This they did and brought about a quick relief and cured the baby." This remedy is for sale by C. Y. Lowe, Druggist.

FOR SALE—100 acres of land; 150 acres creek bottom, covered with alder and salmon brush; 7 acres plow land and 12 acres in pasture, house and outbuildings; 10 miles South of Bandon, on Four-mile Creek; price $1,500. For particulars address P. S. Truman, 384 Shaner St., Portland, Or.

IS IT WORTH WHILE?

Is it worth while that we jostle a brother, bearing his load on the rough road of life? Is it worth while that we jostle each other in blindness of heart—that we war to the knife?

God pity us all in our pitiful strife! God pity us all as we jostle each other! God pardon us all for the triumphs we feel! When a fellow goes down "neath his load on the rough road of life."

Pierced to the heart. Words are kinder than steel, and mightier far for weal or for woe.

Were it not well in a brief little journey, on over the Isthmus, down into the tide, we give him a fish instead of a serpent, ere folding his hands to be and abide forever and aye in the dust at his side?

Look at the roses saluting each other! Look at the herds all at peace on the plain!

Man, and man only, makes war on his brother, and laughs in his heart at his peril and pain.

Is it worth while that we battle to humble some poor fellow-soldier down into the dust?

God pity us all! Time oftaken will turn to dust. All of us together, like leaves in a gust, humbled, indeed, down into the dust. —Joachim Miller.

W. C. T. U. COLUMN

The next W. C. T. U. meeting takes place Thursday, at 2:30, P. M., at the M. E. Church.

Pointed Arrows

How congested the daily papers are with the crimes originating in strong drink! And yet, though we attack and drive out plague and pestilence, we permit this monster to go right on doing its work of horror and death.

Let drink alone, young man. It has never helped anybody, and it has ruined and is ruining millions in mind and body and pocket. It turns kind men into cruel men, loving husbands into wife beaters, fond fathers into slayers of their children.

The liquor traffic is undeniably the greatest enemy to the advancement of Christ's kingdom, and is the supreme curse of the nation. It corrupts politics, and produces death and desolation wherever it exists. The only patriotic method of dealing with the traffic is to suppress it throughout the nation.

Mrs. Fred Unrath. President Country Club, Bandon, Oregon. "After my first baby was born I did not seem to regain my strength although the doctor gave me a tonic which he considered very superior, but instead of getting better I grew weaker every day. My husband insisted that I take Wine of Cardui for a week and see what it would do for me. I did take the medicine and was very grateful to find my strength and health slowly returning. In two weeks I was out of bed and in a month I was able to take up my usual duties. I am very enthusiastic in its praise."

Wine of Cardui reinforces the organs of generation for the ordeal of pregnancy and childbirth. It prevents miscarriages. No woman who takes Wine of Cardui need fear the coming of her child. If Mrs. Unrath had taken Wine of Cardui before her baby came she would not have been weakened as she was. Her rapid recovery should commend this great remedy to every expectant mother. Wine of Cardui regulates the menstrual flow.
