EDITORIAL

The Recorder will be issued one day earlier next week, in order to allow the force to enjoy Thanksgiving.

The Porte may flatter himself that he is ruler of the barbarous Turk, but with Russia and Austria banding in ultimatum, it begins to appear that the Sick Man has donned a straight jacket.

All is not roses with the President of Columbia, and now that Panama has seceded and gained her liberty through recognition of the United States, Columbian citizens are crying "Down with Marroquin." This country's recognition of Panama makes it an object of hatred to some of the Columbians.

San Domingo is having another rebellion, or revolution, it is hard to determine which. If the government is victorious, it will be a rebellion or insurrection; but if the rebels prevail, it will be a revolution. It is an off day when some of those countries lying in Central or South America, cannot pull off a rebellion.

Hundreds of people in New York were willing to sell their right ear for $5000, but were unable to produce one the right size and shape, and the man who wants to fit out at the expense of some other party, has had to give up the task. However, that so many persons were willing to part with an ear to obtain the stipulated sum, does not speak well for the social system under which we live.

China is worrying again. The British Lion has possessions on her West, and the Russian Bear on her North, and she has apprehension that one or the other may want to feast on her carcass. Just now she is most afraid of the Lion, and while the Bear is a danger, she seeks for her friend. Under the circumstances the best thing she can do to ease her mind, is to set the Bear and the Lion fighting each other, there is nothing like keeping idle folks busy to save trouble.

The question now is, will there be a special session of the Legislature? It seems that under the emergency which has arisen, there should be one. It costs money to convene the legislature, $15,000 being the estimate, but it will cost many times that much to pay the interest that will necessarily entail upon state counties, cities and school districts, because of the delay of the necessary funds to carry on the purposes for which they were created. It may be some, but critical to convene the law makers, but it is not a good thing to do to let the state and minor divisions get into chaotic conditions. The interest in the latter case will over balance the cost of convening the law makers.

Only Makes A Bad Matter Worse.

Perhaps you have never thought of it, but the fact must be apparent to every one that constipation is caused by a lack of water in the system, and the use of drastic cathartics like the old fashioned pills, only makes a bad matter worse. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are much more mild and gentle in their effect, and when the proper dose is taken their action is so natural that one can hardly realize it is the effect of a medicine. Try a 25 cent bottle of them. For sale by C. Y. Lowe, Druggist.

Sunday Welcome: Senator Hanna is an acrobat of transcendent agility. Surely it is not base flattery to say this of a man who can unparagonably denounce the democratic party for bringing on the hard times in 1893, and then in the same speech praise without stint Grover Cleveland, who was then at the head of that party.

The Commoner: Schwab and his companions made $20,000,000 on their investment of $10,000,000 in the ship building trust, and on top of that they wanted Uncle Sam to give them a subsidy. Uncle Sam has earned the reputation of being an easy mark among the financial "graffers."

Made Young Again: "One of Dr. King's New Life Pills each night for two weeks has put me in my teens again," writes D. H. Turner of Dempseytown, Pa. They're the best in the world for Liver, Stomach and Bowels. Purely vegetable. Never drugs. Only 25 cents at C. Y. Lowe's Drug Store.

Rockefeller and the Steel Trust.

A brief dispatch in yesterday's Journal made the announcement that the Rockefeller interests were now dominant in the steel trust instead of J. Pierpont Morgan. It would not be at all surprising should this prove to be true. It is an open secret that for a number of years the Rockefeller interests in Standard Oil and otherwise have made so much money that it was next to impossible to find investment for it. The investments sought were not necessarily those which were likely to produce immediate dividends, but which might be counted on in the future to be safe, and perhaps profitable. They could afford to wait, as, for instance, they had waited in the Masaba iron mines.

These mines were ultimately turned into the steel trust at a tremendous profit, and it was through them that the Rockefellers secured their heavy interest in that great concern and their representation on its executive board. Perhaps, too, because of this interest added to the need of seeking new investments, their attention was attracted to the Colorado Fuel & Iron Co., a corporation operating in four states and territories, and employing over 20,000 men, the only big Western steel company which is not in the trust. This company is now controlled by a combination of the Rockefellers and Gould interests. Having now absolute control of this company, what more natural than that they should extend their holdings in the steel trust, particularly when that stock was tumbling to such a point that public confidence in it was destroyed and so many people were anxious to get rid of it at almost any price? This would be a logical outcome, a move in the direction of an absolute monopoly of the steel business, whose stupendous record in the past few years will soon again be duplicated. It is but a following out of the old Standard Oil idea which is the basis of the greatest fortune ever gathered together in the history of the country and which would mean a tremendous accession to that fortune in the present generation through the medium of steel. If the news is not literally true at this moment, it only anticipates what will surely happen in the immediate future. Then a change will come over American Steel, its prices will immediately stiffen, and whatever may be the effect otherwise, the whole vast enterprise will be conducted on a basis of the strictest business and to produce the highest possible results economically and materially in the wide ramifications of its present products.—Portland Journal.

The Companion as a Christmas Gift. The Youth's Companion is one of the few gifts that are always appropriate and yet within reach of the smallest purse. It brings to every member of the family something of interest, something of value—a story that cheers, an article that carries the reader into far-off countries or among men who govern, a sketch that amuses, a poem that puts a bit of truth in a new and convincing way, a page of pictures that holds the children spellbound. It is America's home paper—a paper received weekly in more than half a million households in the United States.

If you desire to make a Christmas present of The Youth's Companion, send the publishers the name and address of the person to whom you wish to give The Companion, with $1.75, the annual subscription price. They will send to the address named The Companion's Christmas Packet, all ready for Christmas morning, containing the Christmas number, The Companion Calendar for 1904, lithographed in twelve colors and gold, and subscription certificate for the fifty two issues of 1904.

The new subscriber for 1904 will receive all the issues of The Companion for the remaining weeks of 1903 free from the time of subscription, also The Companion Calendar for 1904, lithographed in twelve colors and gold.

Annual Announcement Number fully describing the principal features of The Companion's new volume for 1904 will be sent to any address free. The Youth's Companion, 144 Berkeley Street, Boston, Mass.

FROM SOUTH AFRICA.

New Way of Using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Mr. Arthur Chapman, writing from Durban, Natal, South Africa, says: "As a proof that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a cure suitable for old and young, I pen you the following: A neighbor of mine had a child just over two months old. It had a very bad cough, and the parents did not know what to give it. I suggested that if they would get a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and put some upon the dainty teat the baby was sucking, it would no doubt cure the child. This they did and brought about a quick relief and cured the baby." This remedy is for sale by C. Y. Lowe, Druggist.

Deafness Cannot be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed, you have a running sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by Catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. F. J. CROWLEY & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

FOR SALE—100 acres of land; 130 acres creek bottom, covered with stone and salmon trout; 7 acres plow land and 13 acres in pasture; house and outbuildings; 10 miles South of Bandon, on Four-mile creek; price $1,500. For particulars address P. S. Truman, 304 Shaver St., Portland, Or.

A Sure Thing.

It is said that nothing is sure except death and taxes, but that is not altogether true. Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption is a sure cure for all lung and throat troubles. Those who can testify to that. Mrs. C. B. VanMetre of Shepherdsburg, W. Va., says: "I had a severe case of Bronchitis, and for a year tried everything I heard of, but got no relief. One bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery then cured me absolutely." It is infallible for Croup, Whooping Cough, Grip, Pneumonia and Consumption. Try it. It is guaranteed by C. Y. Lowe, Druggist. Trial bottles free. Regular sizes 50c, $1.00.

The next W. C. T. U. meeting takes place Tuesday, at 2:30, P. M., at the M. E. Church.

WHERE THE WHITE RIBBON HAS GONE.

BE INA MAZ GRANT. A bow of simple white ribbon, Adorning a woman's dress. What a symbol of aid and uplifting, And of love and of helpfulness!

A bow of simple white ribbon That is honored all over the land As the emblem of woman's great mission, And the badge of the temperance band.

Yes, a magical power it has proven, And beneficial uplift to all, In palace and bowel and prison, And in great legislative hall.

In court-room and general assembly It has proved for humanity's laws; It has headed the poor man's grievance And exposed the laborer's cause.

It has entered the almshouse and prison As an emblem of love and of light; It has aided the poor and the needy, And the victims of sin's fatal blight.

It has stooped to the outcast and drunkard, To the youth on his fast downward course; It has rescued the poor, fallen woman, And redeemed her by magical force.

It has given its food to the hungry, And flowers to the sick and the sad; It has awakened bright hopes for the hopeless, And bid them rejoice and be glad.

Yet, this army of White Ribbon bearers Has invaded our far-distant lands, And established its schools and its missions, And its Christian Temperance bands.

Its power has passed o'er the water; Its name is felt o'er the sea; It has led the earth with its blessings Of faith, hope and charity. La cester, Ky. —The Delawarean.

"Train Up A—Cat."

The lady who was visiting the family spoke approvingly of the cat. He was large and tawny and had exceptionally good manners, as well as a softly affectionate purr. She said that she supposed he had been taught a good many tricks. The hostess was just explaining that she liked him better without tricks when a crash like shivered china interrupted them. The four-year old son of the visiting lady, who had scrambled away from his mother and was using the closest tempo as a fission on the carpet, had thrown the teapot against the radiator, in a little mood of playfulness, and shiny shivers of it lay strewn upon the floor.

"O, I am so sorry," murmured the mortified mamma; "I really do not know what to do with Camero; he grows so headstrong. I shall have to begin to train him soon; but I dread the struggle. One hates to discipline a mere baby—and yet, he is four now, and really, I must do something!"

The cat stepped cautiously over the wreck on the carpet. He put out his nose, sniffed delicately, and then he put out a careful paw to examine a fragment. His mistress spoke, in a low and firm tone, gentle, but with the downward inflection of rebuke: "Sandrol!"

The cat drew back, looked up at her, and went quietly away to his cushion.

"How remarkable!" said the visiting lady. "How long have you had him?"

The hostess looked at the cat, then she glanced furtively at the now sulking child. "He is four months old," she said gravely.—Natalie Rice Clark.

Watches!

Are You Aware That in the course of a year the balance of your watch makes 157,800,000 revolutions?

Think of It.

In time the oil runs, and produces friction, which wears the delicate bearings, destroys their high finish, and perfect fit; thus ruining an accurate time piece. When you do this do not blame the jeweler because he cannot make it run as accurate as it did before. An ordinary watch is oiled daily. Your watch from which you expect correct time should be cleaned and oiled once a year. Do not neglect your watch, but have it repaired by Arthur Rice, the reliable jeweler, who guarantees all his work. Bandon, Ore.

Mrs. Fred Unrath.

"After my first baby was born I did not seem to regain my strength although the doctor gave me a tonic which he considered very superior, but instead of getting better I grew weaker every day. My husband insisted that I take Wine of Cardui for a week and see what it would do for me. I did take the medicine and was very grateful to find my strength and health slowly returning. In two weeks I was able to do my usual duties. I am very enthusiastic in its praise."

Wine of Cardui reinforces the organs of generation for the ordeal of pregnancy and childbirth. It prevents miscarriage. No woman who takes Wine of Cardui need fear the coming of her child. If Mrs. Unrath had taken Wine of Cardui before her baby came she would not have been weakened as she was. Her rapid recovery should commend this great remedy to every expectant mother. Wine of Cardui regulates the menstrual flow.
