EDITORIAL

The only place where a good kicker is appreciated is upon the gridiron, yet the kicker's services are often a necessity, and when vigorously applied and successful, good results often follow. The kickers of Panama, and San Domingo, are among the successful ones, a new republic being the result in one instance, and a new administration in the other. Mark Hanna is a kicker of more than ordinary ability, but it remains to be seen whether he can out kick Roosevelt. It is apparent however that Wall Street wants a change, and if Hanna is not nominated, then Cleveland is his choice on the other hand, and it is little difference to Wall Street operators which one of the two is elected.

Hanna as Kicker.

The President's Friends are evidently determined to force Senator Hanna out of the tall grass. At the very bottom the cordiality of the two men cannot be expected to jump much farther than their mutual interests will carry it. Hanna was the Warwick of the last administration. He was the whole thing and just a little bit over. He could speak by the card because he was in the president's inner confidence and, as the largest single factor which contributed to his elevation, mightily influenced his public actions.

After Mr. McKinley's death there was an entirely new man to the fore. He was influenced by none of the traditions and associations which had surrounded, if they did not actually hamper, McKinley and he was under none of the obligations to individuals which McKinley did not fail to feel and acknowledge. The only obligation which Roosevelt could be said to feel was that which might contribute to achieving his ambition to succeed himself. To this degree Hanna has been a factor in his administration, though as the unintended residuary legate of Hanna's labors, the latter could not be expected to look upon Roosevelt's elevation with either enthusiasm or equanimity.

Indeed the death of Mr. McKinley probably changed the whole current of Senator Hanna's career. Had McKinley lived, in which case Roosevelt might have been safely shelved, Hanna might have found himself in the position of heir apparent, a position which undoubtedly he would have enjoyed. If he could now see his way clear he would be a presidential candidate. Everybody knows it and none better than the president himself. But he cannot yet see his way. The best he can do is send out feelers and trust to the chapter of accidents, not committing himself beyond recall in the meantime, so as to be ready to take advantage of whatever may turn up in his favor. The president's friends, on the other hand, are making every effort to commit Hanna to the president's fortunes. The game on both sides is, therefore, one of political dexterity not unmingled with cunning, and so far in the race the president not only has the pole but his course is unimpeded by the hurdles which litter the Ohio senator's track.—Oregon Journal.

Head About to Burst From Severe Bilious Attack.

"I had a severe bilious attack and felt like my head was about to burst when I got hold of a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. I took a dose of them after supper and the next day felt like a new man and have been feeling happy ever since," says Mr. J. W. Smith, of Jullif, Texas. For biliousness, stomach troubles and constipation these tablets have no equal. Price 25 cents. For sale by C. Y. Lowe.

Driven to Desperation.
Living in an out of the way place, remote from civilization, a family is often driven to desperation in case of accident, resulting in Burns, Cuts, Wounds, Ulcers, etc. Lay in a supply of Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It's the best on earth. 25c, at C. Y. Lowe's Drug Store.

As Good as Dead.

From Russia come the details of one of the queerest cases of mistaking life for death. Serious as the consequences of the error promised to be, the story is not without its humorous side. An elderly Jew, of drunken habits, living in Taganrag, fell ill, and to all appearances died. After he had been placed on specially prepared boards to be washed, in accordance with the customs of the Jewish religion, he suddenly moved and sat up to bury all the drunkards there will be few people left on the face of the earth." And having thus relieved his feelings he got up and began to dress himself.—N. T. Advocate.

Worst of All Experiences.

Can anything be worse than to feel that every minute will be your last? Such was the experience of Mrs. S. H. Newson, Decatur, Ala. "For three years," she writes, "I endured insufferable pain from indigestion, stomach and bowel trouble. Death seemed inevitable when doctors and all remedies failed. At length I was induced to try Electric Bitters and the result was miraculous. I improved at once and now I'm completely recovered. For Liver, Kidney, Stomach and Bowel troubles Electric Bitters is the only medicine. Only 50c. Its guaranteed by C. Y. Lowe, Druggist.

OUR HEROES.

Here's a hand to the boy who has courage
To do what he knows to be right.
When he falls in the way of temptation
He has a hard battle to fight.
Who strives against self and his comrades,
Will find a most powerful foe;
All honor to him if he conquers,
A cheer for the boy who says "No!"
There's many a battle fought daily
The world knows nothing about;
There's many a brave little soldier
Whose strength puts a legion to rout.
And he who fights his single-handed
Is more of a hero, I say,
Than he who leads soldiers to battle,
And conquers by arms in the fray.
Be steadfast, my boy, when you're tempted,
To do what you know to be right;
Stand firm by the colors of manhood,
And you will overcome in the fight.
"The Right," be your battle cry ever
In waging the warfare of life;
And God, who knows who are the heroes,
Will give you the strength for the strife.
—EMER E. REXFORD.

The Money That Slips Away.

"I got fifteen dollars a week, and I never have a single cent of it when Saturday comes," said a boy of nineteen to me one day not long ago.
"Perhaps you have somebody besides yourself to support?" I said.
"No, I do not," was the reply. "I pay four dollars a week for my room and board at home, and all the rest goes."
"How does it go?"
"Well it just seems to slip away from me, somehow or other. I just cannot save a cent of it. There's so much to tempt a fellow to spend money nowadays. I never expect to save a cent."

I looked at the young man as he stood before me. He wore a handsome tailor-made suit of clothes. His tie must have cost $1.50, and he had a pin on the tie for which he said, rather boastfully, that he had "put up 88." His link cuff buttons were showy and expensive. A full blown rose for which he paid 25 cents was in his button hole, and one of his pockets was bulging with expensive confectionery. I heard him say that he and "some of the other fellows" were going to have a box at the opera the next night, and that it would cost $3 dollars apiece. And yet he could hardly tell just why it was that he could not save anything.
Now, the men who have made themselves independent and who have money to spend for the good of others were not like this young fellow when they were boys. Had they been like him they would never have been independent. I suspect that this boy will verify his own prediction that he will never have a cent. He certainly will not until he acquires more wisdom than he seems to have at the present time. The wealthiest man I know once told me that from his earliest manhood he made it a fixed rule never to spend all that he earned.

Startling Evidence.

Fresh testimony in great quantity is constantly coming in, declaring Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds to be unequalled. A recent expression from T. J. McFarland, Bentonsville, Va., serves as example. He writes: "I had Bronchitis for three years and doctored all the time without being benefited. Then I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery, and a few bottles wholly cured me." Equally effective in curing all Lung and Throat troubles, Consumption, Pneumonia and grip. Guaranteed by C. Y. Lowe, Druggist. Trial bottles free, regular size 50c, and $1.00.

When he was nineteen he began teaching a country school at a salary of $8.00 a week, and he saved $3.00 of it. Later, when his salary had been increased to $10.00 a week, he saved $4.00 of it and when he was earning $15 a week he saved $7.00 of it, investing it carefully.
Of course he did not wear tailor made clothes, and did not buy a new tie every two or three weeks and pay a dollar or more for it. I doubt if he ever paid a dollar for a tie in all his life. And yet he is by no means niggardly, for he gives away thousands every year to the suffering and for the benefit of humanity in general. There were temptations for him to spend all his earnings, but he did not yield to them. I have heard him say that he never went in debt for anything. If he could not pay for it, he went without it. Some one has said: "Never treat money with levity; money is character."

It is certainly a great lack of character when a man will allow his earnings to "slip away from him some way or other." There is an unhappy future in store for the boy who spends all that he earns. The boy who begins doing this is sure to spend more than he earns before very long.
I have a knowledge of a young man earning a salary of $20 a week who had his wages attached for $34 for five fancy vests. His excuse was "A fellow had to dress well nowadays or be nobody." How much do you suppose these five unpaid for vests added to his character or to his standing in the community? And of what value is the opinion of those who judge you by the clothes you wear?
You may set it down as a fact that if you do not save anything in your young manhood you will be sure to have a poverty-stricken and dependent old age, and there are no sadder people in this world than the old who are wholly dependent on the charity of others for their support. If all that you earn is "slipping away" from you, you will be wise if you go straight to a savings bank as soon as you receive your salary, and there deposit a fixed proportion of your savings before it "slips away" from you. And having once deposited it, let nothing tempt you to draw it out any successful business man will tell you this is good advice.—Young People.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional remedy on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

LIVER TROUBLES

"I had Theford's Black-Draught a good medicine for it at Bandon. It cured me on after he had spent his money on the other side. I take it now.—MRS. J. A. GILLES, MARTIN, Parkersburg, W. Va.
If your liver does not act regularly go to your druggist and secure a package of Theford's Black-Draught and take a dose tonight. This great family medicine frees the constipated bowels, stirs up the torpid liver and causes a healthy secretion of bile.
Theford's Black-Draught will cleanse the bowels of impurities and strengthen the kidneys. A torpid liver invites colds, biliousness, chills and fever and all manner of sickness and contagion. Weak kidneys result in Bright's disease which claims as many victims as consumption. A 25-cent package of Theford's Black-Draught should always be kept in the house.
"I used Theford's Black-Draught for liver and kidney complaints and found nothing to equal it.—WILLIAM COFFMAN, Marshall, Ill.

Watches!
Are You Aware

That in the course of a year the balance of your watch makes 137,860,000 revolutions?
Think of It.
In time the oil runs, and produces friction, which wears the delicate bearings, destroys their high finish, and perfect fit; thus ruining an accurate time piece.
When you do this do not blame the jeweler because he cannot make it run as accurate as it did before.
An ordinary machine is oiled daily. Your watch from which you expect correct time should be cleaned and oiled once a year.
Do not neglect your watch, but have it repaired by Arthur Rier, the reliable jeweler, who guarantees all his work.

THE Fairbank Washer

is Manufactured by
J. W. FAIRBANK,
BANDON, OREGON.

To operate the Fairbank Washer is so simple that any person can learn to use it in thirty minutes, and any boy or girl, ten or twelve years of age, can operate it.
With this Washer the clothes are rubbed with an even, steady pressure, which does not tear or injure them. The water is forced through and through the clothes, making them absolutely clean, white as snow, and healthful.
A Fairbank Washer will save clothes enough in one year to pay its cost, and clothes that would be worn out by the short, sharp process of hand rubbing, or by an ordinary Washer, are comparatively well preserved.
Parties purchasing a Fairbank Washer can have their money refunded upon return of the Washer, if it proves unsatisfactory after a thorough trial has been given it.

TESTIMONIALS
