EDITORIAL

There is much talk about strenuous effort, but the latest incident in that fruitful field, was the narrow escape of a gun chaser from nervous prostration, brought on by overwork in trying to extract comfort from a cad of resin.

Important News Notes

Tuesday, January 19. Russia concentrates forces on the Yala River. A petition having nearly a million and a half signatures has been sent to President Roosevelt, to save the Calaveras big trees. Russia promises to place no obstacles in the way of powers having treaties with China. St. Louis gets the next National Democratic Convention. July 6th is the date selected. A woman died suddenly at Ontario, Oregon, who, for 18 years masqueraded as Joe Monahan. Her sex was not suspected until preparation for burial commenced.

Wednesday, January 20. Trains into Port Arthur are crowded with Russian troops. Two Russian cruisers, and seven torpedo boats are headed for the Suez Canal on their way east. The United States will not pay Colombia any indemnity. That would be an admission of having wronged that country. Colombia is reported to be sending troops to Panama. Uncle Sam will probably have to get out his long barreled gun. S. V. Ryland was robbed of a $200 diamond pin while serving as a juror in a police court at Stockton. Thursday, January 21. A tribe of starving Indians, north of Lake Nepigon, British America, have resorted to cannibalism. They killed and ate a young squaw. Japan is calling in transports, and will be ready to move troops to meet the occasion by the first week in February. John Bruckman, working in an electric plant, at Albany, had a hand torn off. Alexander Dowie arrived at Los Angeles on his way to Australia. Friday, January 22. An army of Columbians are believed to be marching on Panama. The British ship Simla is reported to have been wrecked on the rocky shore of Vancouver Island. Tramps broke into the postoffice at Aurora, Oregon. They got nothing but some tobacco and cigars. Jerry Simpson says that the money power will be against Roosevelt for President in the next campaign, and will defeat him. Saturday, January 23. A lone robber held up the Mint Saloon, at Baker City, and got away with $370. Three men, one of whom was asleep, were in the saloon. No clew left. Buffalo, N. Y., suffered a quarter million dollar loss from fire. Part of the skeleton of a man who was almost eleven feet tall has been taken from the earth in Nevada. During the last week $5,000,000 in gold has arrived at San Francisco from Japan, to pay for food supplies and munitions of war. Since the Chicago theatre calamity a general inspection of exits to public buildings has been in progress in many cities, and churches, as well as theatres, have been closed. Found a Cure for Indigestion. I use Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets for indigestion, and find that they suit my case better than any dyspepsia remedy I have ever tried, and I have used many different remedies. I am nearly fifty-one years of age, and have suffered a great deal from indigestion. I can eat almost anything I want to eat. Geo. W. Emory, Rock Mills, Ala. For sale by C. F. Lowe, Druggist.

Night Was Her Terror. "I would cough nearly all night long," writes Mrs. Chas. Applegate, of Alexandria, Ind., "and could hardly get any sleep. I had consumption so bad that if I walked a block I would cough frightfully and spit blood, but when all other medicines failed, three $1.00 bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery wholly cured me, and I gained 58 pounds." It's absolutely guaranteed to cure Colds, Coughs, La Grippe, Bronchitis, and all Throat and Lung Troubles. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at C. Y. Lowe's Drug Store.

The Real Fighting Spirit in Japan

Clarence Brownell, author of the "Heart of Japan," has much to say in favor of the Japanese army in an article in the Buffalo Express, entitled "Hachiman is getting ready." He does not believe that Russia will by any means have a walkover in her fight with Japan. Japan held for a long time the belief that her progress in the peaceful arts would win her consideration among nations. In their hearts the Japanese despise trade. The exigencies of the times compelled them to turn their attention to commerce, and many of them still believe she must be great commercially if she is to endure. But none of them doubt now that she must also win battles if she is to escape annihilation.

The fact that her victorious war with China won her more respect and consideration from the West in half a year than all her peaceful industry in half a century, was not lost upon the Japanese. When her military and naval forces so speedily beat China to her knees, she proceeded at once to double her forces. No one is allowed to escape military training in Japan, unless physically unfit; more than this all are willing and anxious to undergo it. The government drill is imposed on all public schools, and adopted by private ones. Little mites of boys delight to carry the flag, and stonily march for miles through the blazing sun to prove their ability to serve as soldiers.

Hachiman, the great war god from whom the present mikado is directly descended, is the one god whom the whole Japanese people unite in honoring. They may be Buddhists, or followers of Confucius, but they all pay due respect to their war god. It is both a military and religious ceremony, and appeals to the whole people who are thoroughly in sympathy with the sentiment that those who die in battle, die nobly, and are worthy of undying love and honor.

W. H. Galvani's able and timely article in The Journal, recently, gives a fair idea of Russia's moral condition, and no one is better informed on the subject. His statement that it needs something new to stir the fighting spirit, "what there is of it," in the Russian soldiery, is worthy of attention. They may have the finest armament and the best officers in the world, but ages of brutal oppression have not cultivated the "fighting spirit in the common soldiers."

On the other hand, the Japanese soldier is possessed of the spirit of the feudal retainer, whose sword was his soul, and his emperor his god. It is this army spirit which is Japan's chief asset.

When bilious try a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and realize for once how quickly a first-class up-to-date medicine will correct the disorder. For sale by C. Y. Lowe, Druggist.

Band from the Sage Brush State. Nevada citizens are raising a fund of $10,000 for the purpose of sending the Nevada State Band to the World's Fair as an attraction. The band is composed of 40 musicians, and is reckoned as one of the strongest musical organizations in the West. At the close of the Exposition it is intended to make an Eastern tour, and visit 15 of the largest cities as an advertisement for Nevada.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address: F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by C. Y. Lowe, Druggist, 75c. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

Brutally Tortured. A case came to light that for persistent and unmerciful torture has perhaps never been equalled. Joe Golobick, of Colusa, Calif., writes: "For 15 years I endured insufferable pain from Rheumatism, and nothing relieved me though I tried everything known. I came across Electric Bitters, and its the greatest medicine on earth for that trouble. A few bottles of it completely relieved and cured me." Just as good for Liver and Kidney troubles and general debility. Only 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed by C. Y. Lowe, Druggist.

W. C. T. U. COLUMN.

The next W. C. T. U. meeting takes place Tuesday, at 2:30 P. M., at the M. E. Church.

"Here I Am"

A drunken man staggered into a church one Sunday, and sat down in the pew of one of the deacons. The preacher was discoursing about prevalent popular vice. Soon he exclaimed: "Where is the drunkard?" The drunken man was just far enough gone to think the call personal, so, raising heavily he replied: "Here I am," and remained standing while the drunkard's character and fate were eloquently portrayed. A few minutes later the preacher reached another end of his discourse, and asked: "Where is the hypocrite?" Gently nudging his neighbor, the drunkard said: "Stand up Deacon, he means you this time. Stand up and take it like a man, just as I did! It will do you good!"—Denver Tribune.

Lady Henry Somerset in a reported interview on arrival in this country, states that "drunkenness is on the increase in England," a fact largely due to the spread of the liquor habit among women. To illustrate this she made the statement that about fifteen years ago the average arrests for intoxication in London was four men to one woman. Now it is three women to one man. One of the chief reasons for this deplorable increase of inebriety among women, Lady Somerset believes, is the privacy permitted to their indulgence in liquors at the public houses. This practice among women has led to an increase in crime. Women under the influence of liquor are more nervous, sensitive and excitable than men, and less able to conceal their condition.

Remember This.

People kiss their dead who never stoop to kiss their living; they hover over open caskets with hysterical sobs, but fail to throw the wealth of affection about those who are fighting the stern battle of life. How unhelpful I yet permit the opportunities for carrying sunshine into the lives of those who love to pass by. A word of cheer to a struggling soul in life is worth more than all the roses in Christendom piled high on casket covers. The dead cannot smell the fragrance of the flowers, but the living can; scatter them broadcast in their pathway, therefore, and pluck out the thorns. A welcome smile, a cheery well-done, an affectionate look, will cause a rift to break in the lowering clouds, and permit the glorious sunshine to gladden the lives of those you love.—Exchange.

Congratulations.

Mr. John H. Cullom, Editor of the Garland, Texas News, has written a letter of congratulations to the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as follows: "Sixteen years ago when our first child was a baby, he was subject to croupy spells and we would be very uneasy about him. We began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in 1887, and finding it such a reliable remedy for colds and croup, we have never been without it in the house since that time. We have five children and have given it to all of them with good results. One good feature of this remedy is that it is not disagreeable to take, and our babies really like it. Another is, that it is not dangerous, and there is no risk from giving an overdose. I congratulate you upon the success of your remedy." For sale by C. Y. Lowe Druggist.

CONTEST NOTICE.

Department of the Interior. UNITED STATES LAND OFFICE, Roseburg, Oregon, Dec. 23, 1903. A sufficient contest affidavit having been filed in this office by John R. Stillwell, contestant, against homestead entry No. 12662, made Sept. 20, 1902, for 8 1/2 of NE 1/4, NW 1/4 of NE 1/4, NE 1/4 of SE 1/4, Section 25, Township 29 S., Range 15 W., by F. L. Bridgen, contestant, in which it is alleged that F. L. Bridgen has wholly abandoned said tract, that he has changed his residence therefrom for more than six months past continuously up to date since making said entry, that said tract is not settled upon and cultivated by said party as required by law, and that he with his family has removed out of the State of Oregon to the State of California, and parties are hereby notified to appear, respond and offer evidence touching said allegation at 10 o'clock a.m. on Feb. 24, 1904, before Col. C. T. Blumenrother, U. S. Commissioner, Bandon, Oregon, and that final hearing will be held at 10 o'clock a.m., March 7th, 1904, before the Register and Receiver at the United States Land Office in Roseburg, Oregon. The said contestant having, in a proper affidavit, filed Dec. 21, 1903, set forth facts which show that after due diligence personal service can not be made, it is hereby ordered and directed that such notice be given by due and proper publication. J. H. Boggs, Receiver.

MRS. CECILIA STOWE, Oregon, Extra Nourish Club. 176 Warren Avenue, Chicago, Ill., Oct. 22, 1902. For nearly four years I suffered from ovarian troubles. The doctor insisted on an operation as the only way to get well. I, however, strongly objected to an operation. My husband felt disheartened as well as I, for home with a sick woman is a desolate place at best. A friendly druggist advised me to get a bottle of Wine of Cardui for me to try, and he did so. I began to improve in a few days and my recovery was very rapid. Within eighteen weeks I was another being. Mrs. Stowe's letter shows every woman how a home is saddened by female weakness and how completely Wine of Cardui cures that sickness and brings health and happiness again. Do not go on suffering. Go to your druggist today and secure a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui. WINE-CARDUI

Watches! Are You Aware

Think of It. In time the oil gets, and produces friction, which wears the delicate bearings, destroys their high finish, and perfect fit; thus ruining an accurate time piece. When you do this do not blame the jeweler because he cannot make it run as accurately as it did before. An ordinary machine is oiled daily. Your watch from which you expect correct time should be cleaned and oiled once a year. Do not neglect your watch, but have it repaired by Arthur Lee, the reliable jeweler, who guarantees all his work. Bandon, Ore.

THE Fairbank Washer is Manufactured by J. W. FAIRBANK, BANDON, OREGON.

To operate the Fairbank Washer is so simple that any person can learn to use it in thirty minutes, and any boy or girl, ten or twelve years of age, can operate it. With this Washer the clothes are rubbed with an even, steady pressure, which does not tear or injure them. The water is forced through and through the clothes, making them absolutely clean, white as snow, and healthful. A Fairbank Washer will save clothes enough in one year to pay its cost, and clothes that would be worn out by the short, sharp process of hand rubbing, or by an ordinary washer, are comparatively well preserved. Parties purchasing a Fairbank Washer can have their money refunded upon return of the Washer, if it proves unsatisfactory after a thorough trial has been given it.

TESTIMONIALS FROM DENVER, COLORADO. I have a Fairbank Washer. It is all we could expect in a washer, easy running and handy for cleaning after the washing is done, advantages not found in other machines. Mrs. N. COOPER. I have a Fairbank Washer; like it very much; would not do without it for $20. Mrs. W. REEL. FROM WENDLING, OREGON. I have a Fairbank Washer; the more I use it the better I like it. It washes easy and clean. Mrs. D. WHEAT. I have a Fairbank Washer. I think I can't get along without it now. Mrs. JOHN COLLINS. FROM BANDON, OREGON. I have a Fairbank Washing Machine. Can say from experience that it is the most complete family washer we ever used. Would not be without the Fairbank Washer for twice the price of same. S. L. STEWART
