EDITORIAL.

News comes again that China has assured the powers of her determination to remain neutral during the Russian Japanese war. It is very evident from the amount of assurance the powers require in regard to China's neutral intentions, that they have but little faith in her word.

The greatest degree of patriotism observable in Russia, is that which emanates from a desire in all persons to come off best in a controversy. The Russian people, generally considered, wish victory because their national pride resents the humility of defeat, but outside of that consideration, they seem to have little care for the result.

There is plenty of money, yet there is evidence of a stringency in the business of the country. Since the first of the present year over thirty-one millions in gold has been taken to New York from San Francisco, and since April 7th over thirty millions have been shipped to Europe from New York. It is not an evidence of good time when money hunts investments in other countries, except for the country in which the money is invested, but it is an evidence that capital has the business well cornered, and is seeking elsewhere to invest their earnings.

The members of the Liquor Dealers Association, in trying to sway public sentiment in favor of their lease to manufacture intoxicating liquors and poison human beings with them, are making strenuous efforts to lower the per cent of insanity charged up to drink and drunkenness, by giving opinions of medical men that not more than three per cent is due to drunkenness, and asserting that as many women as men go insane. Even the low percentage of three, if true, is too much, and as for the number of cases of insanity in women equaling that of the same affliction to men, is no reason in favor of extending or continuing the curse, and in view of the worry and poverty striken life of the wives of drunkards, the wonder is that the rate percentage is not much greater among them.

Forty-three years ago a Connecticut school girl tied a seed onion to an aching ear, and during the night it worked itself inside and has remained in her head until one day last week, when in a violent fit of coughing it was ejected, in a perfect state of preservation. The escalent has grown, slowly, but in 43 years only about an inch, showing that while a woman's head was all right as a bin for preserving an onion, it was not a fertile onion patch.—Portland Journal.

Slips are being taken both for and against the local option law which is is to be voted on in June. The matter should receive an intelligent consideration and there is no good reason why any loyal citizen should not vote in favor of the proposed law. The law itself, as supposed by some is not a perpetual prohibitive measure. It means simply that in the event of the bill becoming a law, a community either large or small shall have an opportunity every two years to say through the ballot, whether the sale of liquor shall be allowed in that community. In other words, to every precinct town or county, once in every two years is given the right to decide by a majority vote whether liquor selling shall be allowed in the district involved.—Enterprise.

Saved A Sick Day Since.

"I was taken severely sick with kidney trouble. I tried all sorts of medicines, none of which relieved me. One day I saw an ad. of your Electric Bitters and determined to try that. After a few doses I felt relieved, and soon thereafter was entirely cured, and have not seen a sick day since. Neighbors of mine have been cured of Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Liver and Kidney troubles and General Debility." This is what B. F. Bass of Fremont, N. C. writes. Only 50c, at C. Y. Lowe's Druggest.

FOR SALE—A span of Bulls; 6 feet 9 inches and 6 feet 10 inches, respectively. Enquire of J. H. Tucker, Bandon, Oregon.

Expense money advanced; position permanent. Address Manager, 60 Monon Building, Chicago.

A Runaway Bicycle.

Terminated with an ugly cut on the leg of J. D. Orner, Franklin Grove, Ill. It developed a stubborn ulcer unyielding to doctors and remedies for four years. Then Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured. It's just as good for Burns, Scalds, Skin Eruptions and Piles. 25c, at C. Y. Lowe's Drug Store.

The Portland Hog.

The City of Portland has once reached its grasping hand into the treasury of the state and drew forth $500,000 for the Lewis and Clark fair The people of Oregon were more or less interested in the fair, not particularly because it would be of any special benefit to the other portions of the state, but because they are proud of the metropolis and assist that city at all times. Portland cares very little for the state at large, and a great many business men down there believe that the state is indebted to Portland for being on the map, in fact, that it is the whole thing. Perhaps the most preposterous proposition ever made is the latest suggestion emanating from one of the leading public men of that city, and should be most promptly squelched.

Mayor Williams wants the legislature to purchase the site of the Lewis and Clark fair when that event is over, and dedicate it for a large city park for Portland, where people could "wander there and ponder" over the beauties of nature. If Portland does not get enough of the exposition before the end of 1905 and wants to have a keepsake of that show, then let the municipality buy the land and establish a park or what ever it pleases, but any move to get the state legislature to fool with the fair site, will be heartily rebuked by the people. Enough is enough of anything, and Oregon taxpayers have rights that they feel should be respected.—Capital Journal.

Twenty Reasons why I should vote for the Local Option Bill.

1. Because, according to Justice Harlan, of the United States Supreme Court, local option is the basic principle of American government, and I am an American citizen.

2. Because, according to Wm. E. Gladstone, who first advocated local option, it has been found to be a practical and effective solution of the liquor problem. It is already the law of thirty-five states and territories of the Union.

3. Because I believe in the Initiative and Referendum law, and this bill, the first presented under that popular law, is in accord with it.

4. Because it will take the liquor problem out of politics by making it a non-partisan issue, thus removing a chief cause of political corruption.

5. Because town and city councils could then be elected on other than saloon issues, and many competent business men who refuse to be candidates, would allow their names to be used.

6. Because it would largely remove corruption from municipal government, the weakest point in American law.

7. Because it would confine the saloon to the business districts and protect the residence districts, those wards built up with homes, public schools and churches. Tennessee law will not allow a saloon within four miles of a public school, except in eight of the largest cities. In the cities of Oregon, saloons are rapidly locating themselves in residence wards, thus depreciating the value of property and demoralizing the youth, the future dependence of the state. The Supreme Court of the United States has declared: "The saloon has been enjoined as a common nuisance when set up and run in a purely residence community."

8. Because it would give the citizens of towns and cities the same privileges of local option now enjoyed by the rural districts, where they have the right of remonstrating against saloons in their precinct. To prevent the people having a voice whether there shall be a grog shop in their residence communities, many small villages, logging and mining camps are being incorporated through liquor influences. Is it not a gross injustice to practically disinfranchise citizens because they live within a municipality?

9. Because it would give every taxpayer the privilege of saying whether or not he wanted the saloon. Do not be deceived by the false statements the brewers will circulate throughout the state on the eve of the election. It has been demonstrated in many states that the expense of criminality, pauperism, police protection, etc., arising from the liquor traffic, is about ten times the revenue received. The taxpayers must foot the bills. The brewers and liquor dealers are seeking to line their own pockets. Do not be caught by selfish guile. Forewarned is forearmed.

10. Because it would give fathers an opportunity to decide whether they would continue to sacrifice 800 Oregon boys each year to the 1600 saloons of the state. Local option is a choice between the boy and the saloon.

11. Because I am a Republican and believe in the principle of protection. Local Option grants protection of home, the most valuable American institution.

12. Because I am a Democrat and believe in the rights of the sovereign people to have a voice in governmental affairs.

13. Because I am a Prohibitionist and believe in co-operating with Local Optionists to prevent the sale of fiery rum in any locality.

14. Because I am a Socialist and believe in the Initiative and Referendum law as a step toward "a government of the people, by the people and for the people."

15. Because I am an advocate of temperance legislation and should have the privilege of voting upon the liquor proposition without withdrawing from my party.

16. Because I am an American and believe in the "majority rule" underlying all American government.

17. Because I am a loyal citizen and believe it to be my duty to rebuke whatever opposes a pure ballot. . . . . A saloonist of Portland said: "We could have killed the initiative petition with $200, but it will require $25,000 to kill the bill. Yet we must do it. At a recent meeting of the Retail Liquor Dealers of Portland, at Alisky Hall, it was proposed that they assess themselves $200 each to create a fund to prevent the people from securing home protection at the polls. This would aggregate $75,000 for Portland alone. A few days later the brewers and wholesale dealers, according to the Oregonian, decided to join forces with the retailers to fight the local option bill. They declare: "We can raise millions for defense." Their usual methods of subsidizing the public press, circulating false statements through the mails on the eve of election, and buying votes through every saloon of the state, are a menace and a rebellion against good government.

18. Because I am a church member, and believe that Christian civilization is the foundation of real national progress. This law would protect our Christian institutions from inroads of the saloons, the hot bed of vice and crime.

19. Because I am a man and believe in humanity. I am my brother's keeper and "love worketh no ill to his neighbor." This law would place my state with thirty-five others, besides the five that have statutory or constitutional prohibition, in line of twentieth century progress.

20. Because I believe that lawbreakers, gamblers, thugs and all the vicious class will vote against it

Therefore, for the best interests of Oregon I shall vote "Yes" for local option!

Cured His Mother of Rheumatism.

"My mother has been a sufferer for many years with rheumatism," says W. H. Howard, of Husband, Pa. "At times she was unable to move at all, while at all times walking was painful. I presented her with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and after a few applications she decided it was the most wonderful pain reliever she had ever tried; in fact, she is never without it now, and is at all times able to walk An occasional application of Pain Balm keeps away the pain that she was formerly troubled with." LIVER TROUBLES

"I find Thedford's Black-Draught a good medicine for liver disease. It cured me on after he had up at $100 with doctors. It is all the medicine I take."—MRS. CAROLINE MARTIN, Parkersburg, W. Va.

If your liver does not act regularly go to your druggist and secure a package of Thedford's Black-Draught and take a dose tonight. This great family medicine frees the constipated bowels, stirs up the torpid liver and causes a healthy secretion of bile.

Thedford's Black-Draught will cleanse the bowels of impurities and strengthen the kidneys. A torpid liver invites colds, biliousness, chills and fever and all manner of sickness and contagion. Weak kidneys result in Bright's disease which claims as many victims as consumption. A 25-cent package of Thedford's Black-Draught should always be kept in the house.

"I used Thedford's Black-Draught for liver and kidney complaints and found nothing to excel it."—WILLIAM COFFMAN, Merbiehead, Ill.
