dred pounds. We have seized the still BEATING GOLD LEAF AT THE BEND OF THE STREAM

By J. P. COUGHLAN

Copyright, 1908, by J. P. Coughlan

> "Och, Pat, ye are me darlin'; Ye are me heart's delight!"

S Pat Casey strolled down the street of unlit Kilclooney, lilting and singing as he went, he smiled broadly on the world, and the world, or at least Kilclooney, smiled back at Pat.

When about to turn down the lane that led to his own snug farmhouse Pat's song was interrupted by a voice behind him. Turning and seeing Father Matt Daly standing in the roadway, he respectfully lifted his cap. saying:

"Good evenin', yer riverence." "Good evening to you, Pat" replied Father Matt. "'Tis a happy man you called. seem to be this day."

"Faith, then, happy I am, yer river ence, an' 'tis I that have the good cause."

"Good cause, Pat! And what is it may I ask?"

"An' who's the better right to? Why but 'tis a sacret yet an' musta't go far ther than verself, but I think I'll have a nate job for yer riverence very soon." "I'm glad to learn it, Pat. Jobs are scarce just now, and they are hard times for the clergy. And what may it be?" asked Father Matt, with a know ing twinkle in his eye, Pat looked equilansly around and, putting his hand sideways to his month, whispered loudly: "Nora Condon has taken me for her husband, ver riverence."

"That's the secret, is it?" laughed the priest. Then, with a serious face, he added

"Nora Condon is a good girl, and in- pronouncement-no evidence had been deed I must say you're not a bad boy adduced to show that the land was the yourself. Fatt test, remember, don't property of the defendants or in their fragments. Twenty-three carat gold dare to come to me before the altar un- possession. til you've given me your firm promise to give up your illegal ways. The the defendants grinned broadly and church commands us to obey the laws." the prosecution assumed a perplexed and worm" "Thank ye for yer information, Mr THE WAY THE SQUARES OF METAL Nicholas, but it seems to me that yer ARE WORKED UNDER THE HAMMER. business is to carry out the law an' not to be givin' information about it. I've forgot more law than ye've ever learn-Gradually Reduced In Thickness Uned, as perhaps ye may find out one of til the Sheets Are Transparent and these tine days." With this elaborate So Fine That 300,000 of Them In a retort Pat turned on his heel. Pile Would Measure but an Inch. "Well, 1 thought 1 would prepare

A local sign writer was in the winvou"dow of a large F street establishment "An' now prepare to take yerself out putting gold leaf on the outlines of letof here an' not be disturbin' me an' me ters he had made with a stencil. The family," said Pat. When the intruders had gone Pat curiosity of a reporter was aroused as Casey dived his hand into a big pot of to how these tiny sheets of gold were mashed fodder, and, producing the botreduced to such minute thinness. A tle he had carried away from the cave, visit to the establishment of one of he filled a horn all round and asked "one an' all" to drink a toast.

"To Nora, an' confusion take the the following: gaugers!"

And then was begun the most diffi cult part of the night's business. Three days later Pat Casey and a group of friends stood in a little knot outside the dingy little building called 3,520 sheets of gold, each five inches the petty sessions courthouse of Cahirsquare and almost transparent, and coolen waiting for their case to be you get a vague idea of the queer industry known as gold beating.

When the pompous clerk called out "Imagine a square of gold three-hun-"The king versus Patrick Casey and others," all filed in and sat on a long bench behind Mr. Hanrahan, their counsel. The crown prosecutor opened the case briefly for the king. The just 'beating'-for no power other than | ern make, charge was simple, but serious. Utenthe strength of a man's arm is used in sils for the manufacture of illicit whisthe process-and you will have been ky were found on Casey's land. Mr. mentally initiated into the mysterles Nicholas and the three policemen gave of a silent art. evidence for the prosecution, and then

"Few persons are familiar with the Mr. Hanrahan rose to state the case work for several reasons: First, there are less than twenty-five gold beating

He expressed his intention to call no establishments in the country; second, witnesses. The question was entirely it is an exclusive industry, and few, one of fact. Mr. Nicholas and his po- either manufacturers or laborers, are lice witnesses had spoken of having admitted to its secrets, and, third, the raided the land of his client, a most trade is limited. Therefore it is a most respectable and worthy man, and they interesting study. testified to having found thereon cer-

"The gold beater buys direct from the tain utensils, but-and here Mr. Hangovernment assay office, where the rahan paused to give due effect to his gold is weighed, stamped and guaranteed. A fraction too much of alloy is used exclusively. Usually the gold Great sensation in court, during which comes in nuggets weighing fifty-five pennyweights and valued at $55 each. "After the gold has been received it

WLASS MANUFACTURE.

The Art Goes Back to a Time Beyond the Knowledge of Man.

The art of glass manufacture goes riety of the blouse. The dainty little back into antiquity to a time "when waist sketched is of accordion plaited the mind of man runneth not to the white crepe de chine, but any of the contrary," yet we cannot penetrate the mists which hang over the infancy of pretty wash materials could be made what has for ages been a useful indus- up in the same fashion. Bias taffeta try. Its original discovery is alleged, forms the straps which ornament the

WOMAN AND FASHION

For Summer Wear.

Custom cannot stale the infinite va-on the authority of several reputable writers, to have been the result of an accident in which some nitrum (supposed by some to have been salt) was fused with sand. The date of this event is not even approximately given, but is said to have taken place on the banks of the Belus, in Palestine, where some mariners had landed and were Washington's largest sign writers and cooking their meals, using blocks of a talk with the proprietor brought forth nitrum to hold their pots in position. Sir Gardner Wilkinson gives a cut

"I learned the gold beater's trade in of a piece of Egyptian sculpture work Rochester some years ago. Imagine a which represents two glassblowers plyslab of gold measuring eight inches in | ing their art in a manner which strikes width, ten inches in length and half an one as being surprisingly like that inch in thickness being reduced to practiced at the present time. Sir Gardner informs us that this sculpture was executed about 3,500 years ago during the reign of Beni Hassan. Theban paintings and sculptures which are known to date back to the time of dredths of an inch in thickness, and the exodus, 1400 B. C., show glass you will appreciate the brawn and drinking vessels of delicate patterns brain making for the result, and then and fine workmanship, in some inreflect that the word 'beating' means | stances rivaling similar vessels of mod-

Closure by Sleep.

WHITE CREPE DE CHINE BLOUSE Once upon a time the Baltimore Reform league, of which C. J. Bonaparte | swiss embroidered yoke, and a fall of was then president, undertook an in- the same very much used embroidery vestigation of the official doings of a is draped over the shoulders. prominent federal officeholder. Mr. The sleeves are accordice plaited Bonaparte, who did most of the inves- match the blouse fronts and back and tigating, discovered what he regarded trimmed with hias bands of taffeta. A as a long series of deliberate violations girdle of white taffeta is folded over a of the civil service rules. He drew up fitted lining of canvas. Dresden riba report accordingly and proposed to bon would make an attractive belt submit it for the approval of the asso- where a little color is required. When ciation at its next annual meeting. the blouse is to be made of wash fab-Meanwhile the friends of the official in ric. Persian mull is serviceable and question in the association-for, like ev- pretty to use, with insertions of val ery other organization, it has its hypo- lace.

crites-secretly decided to "pack" the meeting and vote the report down. New Linens For Gowns. They arrived bright and early and waited for the roll call. But Mr. Bona- ed of a fashionable material is that it parte was not to be so easily overcome, should assume an appearance which of sorrow, After listening attentively to the form- its name hardly guarantees, and many A cheerful countenance betokens

"THREE FISHERS."

The incident Which Moved Kingsley The Secret of Its Rise and Fall Is a to Write the Poem.

LAKE CICOTT.

Deep Mystery. Charles Kingsley wrote the "Three Lake Circuit has been an interesting Fishers" as a result of the many sad phenomenon to the people of northern sights he had seen at Clovelly. One Indiana for many years, but the secret day of horror in particular lived in his of its rise and fall has never been dismemory, a day, as he described it, covered. It is the only lake in Cass "when the old bay lay darkened with county and is about one mile wide and the gray columns of the waterspouts, about one mile long. The water is stalking across the waves before the clear and cold and perfectly fresh. Its northern gale, and the tiny herring most mysterious characteristic is the boats fleeing from their nets right for fact that it overflows its banks every the breakers, hoping more mercy even seventh year. The farmers who own from those iron walls of rock than the land upon its banks have become from the pitless howling waste of so used to this that they never atspray behind them, and that merry tempt to cultivate the land in the sevbeach beside the town covered with enth year, but give it up without proshricking women and old men, casting test, as they know it is sure to be themselves on the pebbles in fruitless claimed by the waters. agonies of prayer as corpse after The Pottawatomie Indians, who incorpse swept up at the feet of wife and habited what is now Cass and adjoinchild, till in one case alone a single ing counties, were familiar with the dawn saw upward of sixty widows and characteristic of the lake. They beorphans weeping over those who had leved that the bottom was inhabited gone out the night before in the full- by a powerful spirit, which at interness of strength and courage." These vals of seven years caused the lake to scenes lived ever in his mind. overflow. They construed this action

But the "Three Fishers" was written as approval of the tribe by the spirit as a result of one of the strangest inci- and watched anxiously for the time to dents in the stormy career of the come, for they saw in the rising waters preacher-author. In 1851 he preached a sure indication that they had done a sermon in a London church on "The nothing to displease it. The early Message of the Church to the Laboring white settlers became acquainted with Man." At its close the vicar rose and the legend, and the oldest inhabitant is denounced him. Bishop Blomfield for- not able to recall a time that the overbade Kingsley to preach again in his flow did not take place when expected. diocese until, having read the sermon -Toledo Blade.

THE LAW IN KOREA.

Queer Ways of Punishing the Relatives of Criminals.

heart, he retired to his study. When Angus Hamilton in his book on Kohe reappeared he handed to his family rea says: "The inhabitants are peculhis immortal song, "as though it were iarly proficient in the art of doing the outcome of it all," as his wife said. nothing gracefully. There are, therefore, infinite charm and variety in the daily life of Korea. The natives take their pleasures passively, and their He that hath no heart ought to have constitutional incapacity makes it appear as if there were little to do but A happy heart is better than a full to indulge in a gentle stroll in the brilliant sunshine or to sit cross legged What comes from the heart goes to within the shades of their houses. Inaction becomes them. Nothing could He who hath most heart knows most be more unsuited to the character of their peculiar costume than vigorous movement. The stolid dignity of their appearance and their stately demeanor add vastly to the picturesqueness of No estate can make him rich that has the street scenes. The white coated, a poor heart. white trousered, white socked, slowly The heart's testimony is stronge striding population is irresistibly fasthan a thousand witnesses. cinating to the eye." A glad heart seldom sighs, but Here are some of the punishments sorrowful mouth often laughs. prescribed by Korean law: Treason, The heart is the hidden treasure of man-Decapitated, together with male man; the tongue is the gate to the relatives to the fifth degree. Mother, treasure. wife and daughter poisoned or reduced A good heart is the sun and moon; to slavery. Treason, woman-Poisoned. r, rather, the sun, for it shines bright Murder, man-Decapitated. Wife poland never changes. soned. Murder, woman-Strangled or There never was a heart truly great poisoned. Arson, man-Strangled or and compassionate. man-Poisoned. Theft, man-Strangled, decapitated or banished. Wife reduced to slavery; confiscation of all A PALACE OF ICE. property. Desecration of graves-De-Cavern In Hungary That Is One of capitated, together with male relatives the Marvels of Europe. to the fifth degree. Mother, wife and The ice cavern near Dobschau, Hun- daughter poisoned. Counterfeitinggary, is one of the most remarkable Strangulation or decapitation. Wife but least known marvels of Europe, poisoned.

delivered his discourse Kingsley went to his home weary. There had nearly been a riot in the church. Sick at

HEART PROVERBS.

and seen its author, he withdrew the edict. The same night upon which he heels. purse.

One of the virtues which are requir- the heart.

"Ab, yer river nee, sure 'tis the hard frown. Mr. Hanrahan then produced thing to be delyin' the drop of the cra- a map of the estate prepared by the tur' out of the country altogether, but | landlord and invited Nicholas to indibefore I'm married I'll make ye the cate the precise spot where the utenpromise.

Good evening, and God bless you." evena homeward walk a complacent smile trate deciding to adjourn the court to crossed his handsome, good natured the disputed spot and there decide the face. "Faix, an' I suppose his riverence matter for himself. is tight," he mused to himself, "We'll have one good flow tonight, an' with loads of people, magistrate, counselors, the help of God 'twill be the last. Ould prosecutors and defendants, drove off Gauger Nicholas would give somethin' to be able to discover on me, but after tonight I can snap me fingers at him. He's a terrible villain entirely, an' 1 have no doubt he has a sweet spot in the corner of his withered ould heart land so recently purchased by him from for me own Nora; but, faith, won't he the Widow Bryan he began to fear grind his ugly ould teeth when he sees me l'adin' Nora up to the altar as if she pounced upon a still on his own land. was a queen in her own right an' me the king of Munster?"

That night lights burned brightly in the Casey household, and from the kitchen chimney the blue smoke curled up into the midnight air, but if a friend of the family came, doubtless, after passing the time of night with those in the kitchen, he would find his way down to the little stream that skirted the bounds of Pat Casey's farm.

At one spot down by this picturesque stream the water, passing through a barren, rocky patch, made a V shaped loop around a knot of bowlders. Near to these was a sort of natural cave known only to the Caseys and their immediate friends and formed by them into a neat de tillery, where from time Immemorial the "mountain dew" was turned out in considerable quantities and in almost perfect immunity from disturbance.

On this particular night Pat Casey attended to the still. Ned Hanlon took charge of the precious fiuld as it filtered slowly through the worm, and Jerry Casey stirred the "wash" out in to the stream that flowed beyond. Not a vestige of smoke appeared in the cave or went up from above it. From the fire under the still a pipe ran under the ground for a hundred yards or so joined the capacious and respectable chimney of the farmhouse, the two courthouse to go through the formality smokes mingling innocently as they mounted skyward.

by another.

Cahircoolen today, an' ould Nicholas pair presented themselves at the Kilseemed to be very busy between the clooney parish church. magistrates and the police barracks | Before the ceremony began Father I only hope he hasn't his eye on us | Matt took Pat into the sacristy and sils were found. Nicholas did so, mark-"I'm sincerely glad to hear it, Pat. ing a spot on Casey's side of the stream. The accuracy of that Mr. Hanrahan at "Thank yo kindly, yer riverence; good once begged leave to doubt. Then ensued a long legal wrangle, which was As Pat left the priest to continue his ended only by the long suffering magis-for the defense.

In less than half an hour three car from the courthouse amid the admiring cheers of the assembled mob.

Throughout the journey Nicholas was grumpy and silent. From the doubtful knowledge which he possessed of the that in the excess of his zeal he had Surely enough his fears were confirmed. The stream ran most conclu-

Nicholas and his policemen burst into the kitchen.

until, reaching the house, it stealthily sively on Pat Casey's side of the guilty spot, and the party returned to the of discharging the defendants. That trouble off his mind and enjoy-

The three men were shortly joined ing the sensation of being the hero of the barony, Pat made all haste with When the leaves of gold are removed "Pat." said he, "ye want to be very the preparations for his wedding to x utious tonight, I tell ye. I was in Nora Condon. Not many days later the

Did ye hear that he bought the Widow spoke to him about his promise to give thickness. Out of this ribbon are cut 220 squares of equal size.

squares, and these he places between the leaves of a book. This book is a made necessary by the many turnings | result would be .- John F. Brownell in | it is often made with hardly any adornand floppings of the book in the proc- Leslie's Popular Monthly. ess. A sixteen pound hammer is used. and the beater is compelled to work uninterruptedly for twenty minutes to gain the desired measurement. "Wielding a sixteen pound hammer tridge belt after thrusting half a dozen for a few seconds only is exhausting shells into my pocket. On and on I ran, work for the uninitiated, but the beat- wondering, in a semidazed way, if the

"When the 'kutch' book is opened me. Instantly the blood coursed fastidious schoolgirl, pieces. Its thickness has been reduc- I swung my rifle into position, but my all round, the plaits stitched down beed in the operation from one thirty- hand was so tremulous and my heart second of an inch to one one-hun- thumped so heavily that the front sight

dredth of an inch. Twenty-five of these wabbled all over the horizon. I realsquares are put into a book called the jzed that this might be the only shot 'shodder.' The 'shodder' is not a pa- I should get, for Indians in more proper, but a skin, and it is said that cer- pitious seasons had gone into the Bartain intestinal parts of 500 oxen are ren grounds and not seen even one required to make a package or book herd. Yet the musk oxen going away of twenty-five papers. The 'shodder' | from me all the while, every instant of is made in England by a secret proc- time seemed an insuperable age. The ess. It is the most exclusive industry | agony of those few seconds I waited so in the world.

as to steady my hand! Once or twice "Like the 'kutch' book, the 'shoder' I made another attempt to aim, but book is sealed and handed to the art- still the hand was too uncertain. I did ist, who is required to pound it ninety | not dare risk a shot. When I had restminutes with a twelve pound hammer. ed a minute or two-that seemed fully This reduces the thickness, and when half an hour-at last the front sight it is taken out of the book each leaf held true for an instant, and I pressed of gold is again cut into one inch the trigger. squares. This time the gold is so | The exuitation of that moment when fragile that a metal knife blade, no I saw one of the two musk oven stag-

matter how sharp, would break the ger and then fall I know I shall never edges; so a knife with double blades | again experience.-Caspar Whitney in is used, requiring only two strokes to Outing. cut a square.

"Now comes the last beating. Each Dog Pleads Before Judge. square is again put into a book called An amusing trial has ended at a 'mold.' Forty minutes' beating is Prague in which a dog played the leadrequired to give this the proper size. | ing part.

The owner of the dog was sued by they are transparent, but perfect in an engineer, who claimed damages for shape and unbroken. It would require a bite from the animal. He also de-300,000 of them to make one inch in nounced the dog as vicious. At the thickness.

in wax paper books ready for sale.

The leaves are so delicate that they

Taking No Chances.

to the booking room, where women re the dog by teasing him, but the ani- lace and a cape of lace so arranged as ing, 'There, pussy, go to sleep.' move the gold leaves and place them | mal kept its temper.

is placed in a crucible and made ready al and specious arguments against of the new linens resemble canvas and good heart. for the beating about to follow. It is the report he arose and made a speech voiles, some of them being very loosely molded into a shape which will fit into of half an hour's length, bitterly ar- woven. The flecked and granule efthe only power machine in the place, | raigning the official in the limelight. fects recall hopsacking and make very which compresses the gold into a rib- Then, seeing that the latter's friends substantial dresses, for it is even exbon ten yards in length, one inch in still remained by their guns, he began pected of linen that it should be supple width and one thirty-second inch in the same speech all over again. When and capable of being gathered and it was done once more he began it an- tucked. It is being trimmed with broad other time, and so he talked, on and on, brocaded bands, also made in linen, em-"The work of reducing is begun. To over and over, six, seven, eight, ten beilished with a gold thread here and each workman is given twenty-five times, until it was nearly dawn and there; metallic buttons are introduced, the last friend of the official was asleep, and appliques of gulpure are also a fa-Then he and his faithful followers vorite garniture. It is dotted and 'kutch' paper and is sealed with a pat- adopted the report. He had taken care spotted, especially with black. Where ent envelope device which prevents the to send copies of it to the morning pa- the fabric is plain the trimming is loss of particles of gold, a precaution pers beforehand. He knew what the more ornate; where fancifully woven and generous that was not also tender poisoned. Wife poisoned. Arson, wo-> ment at all. Linen batiste will be one of the favorite fabries of the year.

My First Musk Ox.

I was in a dripping perspiration and Tenerife and Japanese designs, and a had dropped my fur capote and car- great deal of lace is being used.

> A Charming Summer Gown. Nowadays the girl of sixteen is not trimmed with open stitchery after ers hammer away as if it was boys' musk oven were really on the other content to be dressed "anyhow." In play. They must grasp the end of the side of the ridge. Finally the ridge fact, at this age she is more sensitive hammer farthest from the head, which took a sharp turn to the north, and as as regards her clothes than she will increases its weight, but the benches I reached the top of it there-about 100 probably be again in her life. In the they use are so constructed that they | yards ahead were two of the musk | illustration will be seen a charming cause a small rebound of the hammer. oxen running slowly but directly from summer gown that will suit the most twenty-five sheets are taken out, and through my veins, and the mist cleared. It is carried out in gray voile over each sheet of gold is cut into four from my eyes. Dropping on one knee white silk. The skirt is box plaited low the hips, while an entre deux of her, and then, for fear she might be trial a veterinary surgeon who was lace finishes the hem. The waist boasts distracting, I picked her up and put her "The last operation is to send them called in tried his utmost to irritate a tucked yoke, outlined with cream down on the nearest place at hand, say-to suggest the fashionable low shoul "The cat curled up contentedly, and

GOWN FOR "SWEET SIXTEEN."

Though spoken of as a cavern, in reality it is an ice palace, the roof, floor and MISTAKEN IDENTITY. walls being of ice, sometimes opaque, the Lyons Mail.

sometimes as diaphanous as glass. The The Famous Case of Lesurgues of frozen water assumes many quaint and The most famous of all cases of miseautiful forms. Pillars, vases, grottoes, onches and waterfalls meet the eye taken identity is that of Lesurques, charged with the robbery and murder at every turn. Herr Ruffiny has the honor of being of the courier of the Lyons mall, which its discoverer. One day while shooting has been so vividly brought home to us among the hills he was startled by the through the dramatic play based upon peculiar echo of his gun, an echo which lit. Lesurques was positively identified suggested the near presence of a vast as a man who had traveled by the mail cavity or hollow. After a long search coach, and he was in due course conhe was rewarded by finding a small victed. Yet at the eleventh hour a aperture in the hillside overgrown by woman came into court and declared bushes and trees. The next day he re- his innocence, swearing that the witturned, accompanied by two friends, nesses had mistaken him for another, who lowered him by ropes into the Duboseq, whom he greatly resembled. space. As he swung into the darkness She was the confidant of one of the a bitter cold, which increased as he de- gang who had planned and carried out scended, was felt. the robbery. But her testimony, al-

At last he felt his feet touch the though corroborated by other confedground, and, looking around him, he erates, was rejected, and Lesurques refound himself in a vast hall which he ceived sentence of death. Lesurques could but dimly see. The ice palace died protesting his innocence to the was discovered. last. Four years elapsed before Du#### boseq was captured. In the interval others of the gang had passed through the hands of the police, but the prime mover was only now taken. Even then he twice escaped from prison. When finally he was put on his trial and the judge ordered a fair wig, such as Lesurques had worn, to be placed on his head, the strange likeness was immediately apparent. He denied his guilt, but was convicted and guillotined. Thus two men suffered for one offense,

There have been several one cent claims against the United States government. One was by the Southern Pacific, which submitted a bill of $5.20 for hauling government freight. It was a bond aided road, only part of its

A prominent actress tells this incl dent that happened when she was play ing in "Madame Sans-Gene:" "I was playing the part of the blan chisseuse in the laundry scene and was busily engaged in ironing when a cat which had its home somewhere about the theater came walking on to the stage. I thought this would furnish a good opportunity to give a realistic domestic touch to the scene, and so, when puss came purring up and rubbed One Cent Claims Against Uncle Sam. against me, I stroked her fur, spoke to

A Warm Bed.

Bryan's over the sthrame there next up potheen making. "Faith, yer river ence, this happy day I make the promto this?"

ise with a heart and a half." "Oh, we heard that a fortnight agone. Thady," said Pat Casey, "an', what's more, we know he'd like to be able to you speaking so manly. And now tell add this one to it, but he won't do it me," he added suddenly, "did you and the boys divert the stream the night while Pat Casey is alive." "Hush! Hush! I hear a noise ever bead!" cried Jerry. Suddenly a head came through a hole riverence, Nicholas coveted my patch of land, an' me an' the boys thought in the roof.

"Quick, boys, for the love of heaven! we would give him a taste of it to Jackeen Dooley, who has been watchin' please him. We wanted to do it withup at the cross of the four roads, says out his knowin' it, an' more especially that the pleece are stealin' down, an' as it was easy to do that same because ould Nicholas is at the head of 'em." that strame was turned many an' many window of her tobacco shop with a Without a word the lights were put a time by me father an' the Widow printed warning to trusting women to out and the fire was pitched bodily in Bryan, accordin' to which way they beware of "Mizpah" rings, and invitto the stream and with it the contents wanted to Irrigate the land. So that's ing men to come and buy "breach of ation! Why, I can twist that husband of every vessel in the cave except one how the turnin' didn't show, all the bottle, which Pat Casey took with him. ground about bein' the same tookin'." In less than two minutes there was not a trace of recent operations, and the yesterday, tells me, Pat, that Nicholas by to keep the pavement clear, while men stole to the house.

They were not more than well played ther Matt as they walked back into the and offered themselves in marriage. church.

inside when they could plainly hear the policemen's voices coming from the spot doses," said Pat Casey fervently. where they were so energetically engaged but a few minutes previously. They had not much longer to wait when the sounds approached nearer, justice," said Mrs. Corntossel. "Some and suddenly Nicholas and his policeof the folks that was to town said he men burst into the kitchen. "You've been warned of my visit, Pat, told 'em he was on the water wagon

Casey, and, though I haven't caught now." "That's good news." you in the act of illicit distillation, we have discovered potheen making apparatus on your land, and when you appear before the magistrate you will anything else to do, he'll drive a sprinhe accordingly liable to a fine of a hun "kling cart."-Washington Star.

can be handled only with bamboo "That's right, Pat. I'm glad to fine sticks. So adhesive is the gold that if a leaf is broken in removing it is eas ily patched without a trace of it being

"Good fortune never comes in small

Maternal Faith.

"I always knew you did Josh an in apparent to the naked eye."-Washingafter the gauger pounced upon you?" ton Star. Pat's reply was indirect: "Well, yer before whom it sat on its hind legs widow in West Bromwich, England, begging in a most pathetic manner. obtained a farthing in a breach of promise action she brought against a dog to be a veritable lamb and gave broidered in the prevailing tones of the faithless sweetheart. She put it in the judgment for its owner.

Story of a Widow's Mite. Here's a "widow's mite" story. A

Too Unantmous.

The complainant then demanded that in order to test its real disposition its owner should be turned out of court and the dog let loose among the audi-

The dog, however, continued to dis

up one paw after another and wagging

Its tail. Finally it ran to the judge,

"Talk about men being lords of cre- rather a misnomer, for they are fasof mine around my little finger." promise cigars" and "widow's mite "Yes, I suppose so. He's rather near the toe. The smartest tongueless cigarettes." The result was such a big "My clerk, who was in Cabircoolen business that the police had to stand small, isn't he, and quite slender?" "Small and slender? He isn't any rally with the hose so much en eviis going to leave Cahircoolen," said Fa- nineteen men, mostly widowers, came such thing. There's enough of him, dence only the very prettiest designs let me tell you, to make a million such are worn.

been muzzled.

busbands as yours."-Chicago Tribune.

Caught at the First Trial.

A canny Scot got on a tramcar, in-Mr. Cleverly-1 have a great joke on tending to make the full journey, costmy wife. I've just bought her a hat ing 3 pence, but only took a penny ticket and renewed it twice at the end for $5 and had it sent home with a of each stage. On the last stage the fifteen dollar mark on it. She'll never of a weapon. conductor remonstrated with him, say- know the difference. Mrs. Cleverly he ought to have taken out a threepen- (later)-Harold, dear, I guess I would ny ticket at the beginning of his jour- better buy my own hats after this. I ney and saved unnecessary trouble, could have done a good deal better "Na, na !" said the Scot. "Had I dune for $15. You've been awfully cheated. "Of course it is. It shows the boy sae and yer cable had broken doun I Why, I saw this very same hat in the ain't afraid of work. If he can't find micht hae lost ma thruppence; but, as window with a five dollar mark on it .-it is, I canna lose mair than ae penny !" Detroit Free Press.

dered effect. The sleeves are gathered went on with my lines. Suddenly 1 bills against the government being into soft puffs and frills. was aware of a murmur among the blue satin straw, ridged to present the of laughter. I realized something was case its credit was $5.28 and its cash a ence. This was done after the dog had appearance of a spider's web. The top up and turned instinctively to look at is covered with masses of blue convol- puss. There she was, asleep, where 1 of a single cent was in favor of a vuli, and on each side of the chapeau had put her, among the irons on the chemical company which for some unplay the greatest good humor, holding are flat rosettes of blue satin ribbon. 'redhot' range."

Practical Demonstration. Smart Shoes For Summer.

Shoes in a light champagne shade will be much seen this summer. had a horse stolen, but the thief, miss-The judge thereupon pronounced the adorned with pours of chiffon or em nquired how he had got possession of ment had to be signed by several percostume. Distinctly novel are the tongueless shoes, the stocking showing he horse. The man replied that he sons. through the lacing, although lacing is could not well tell his honor, but would be pleased to show him. "Now," said tened by the most lovely ribbons imhe, "this is how I crawled over the aginable, terminating in a large bow grooms. The next thing was to loosen shoes have a perforated pattern. Natuhalter over the neck thus." "Admirable!" said the officer. "In this manner. sir, observe I jumped upon his back." He then gave the horse a smart cut

Bobby is a little Germantown boy carried him clear off, to the mortificawho is a seeker after the wherefore tion of the astonished owner.-London srying it on the Dog.

North-You never seem to be impatient when somebody recommends something for your cold. West-Oh. no. I just repeat it to somebody else for trial upon himself. If it helps him, Artist-What a beautiful place this I shall know there's something in it. is! I suppose you came here for the If it doesn't, it can't have any bad efview? Old Lady-No, I wasn't consult- fect upon me, you know. - Boston one visitor added to the notice "on ed. I was born here. Transcript.

Fell Into Luck,

paid in cash, the rest going to the rall-The hat is a dainty affair of pale audience, which increased to a ripple road's credit on the bonds. . In this cent. Another government obligation explained reason agreed in a public competition to supply 16,892 pounds of At an encampment of British troops ethyl ether for a cent. The offer was the East Indies one of the officers accepted. There were nine signatures, one that of a rear admiral, on the paing his way, was detected and brought per relating to the establishment of back. The next morning the officer this claim, and the warrant for pay-

A Gormandizer.

Some years ago the late Marquis of Queensberry made a bet of 1,000 guineas that he would produce a man the ropes behind. I then clapped a who would eat more at a meal than any Sir John Lade could find. The bet being accepted, the time was appointed, but his lordship not being able to attend the exhibition he wrote to with a whip, put him to full speed and his agent to know the result and presently received the following note:

> My Lord-I have not time to state particulars, but merely to acquaint your grace that your man beat his antagonist by a pig and an apple pie.

Amending the Notice.

The mistress of a very dirty lodging house posted at the entrance this notice: "Visitors will please wipe their feet." After inspecting the apartment going out."-Farm Journal.

of things. Some days since he was Chronicle, questioning his father as to the nature

"A weapon, my son," explained his father, "is something to fight with." "Is ma your weapon, pa?"

Her Status Explained.