One of the engines in operation at the Broom Handle Factory has given out and is being replaced by one from the Circle City Mill.

Miss Francis Smith starts for Portland the latter part of this week to attend the Eleventh Session of the Grand Lodge, Degree of Honor.

E. S. Edwards and George F. Fuller, of Portland, were here Monday night inspecting steamboats, this being the time of their annual visit.

Albert Dyer will leave here Saturday morning, for Portland, going by way of Roseburg. Mr. Dyer comes as a delegate to the Grand Lodge, A. O. U. W.

The Misses Yaeger are having a new roof put on their building, the McNair hardware store. Their half-brother, Perry Robinson, is doing the work.

C. D. Miner and wife of San Francisco were in town Monday. Mr. Miner represents a San Francisco wholesale house and was rustling business.

D. R. Rice, of Roseburg, is here rustling on the beach, having taken a vacation from the Soldiers' Home where he serves in the capacity of steward in the hospital.

For Mowers, Hay rakes and any thing in the hardware line call on William Gallier. Also persons in want of fruit jars will find him well supplied in all that they need.

Still to be found at the old stand is H. A. Cox, the grocer, and of groceries and provisions he keeps the best in fruit, nuts, candies, etc., he keeps in the front, always a fresh stock coming in.

The members of the Reorganized Church, of Jesus Christ, of Latter Day Saints, in the South-western Oregon District, will hold their Reunion and Conference at Lew, Oreg., beginning August 19th and continuing 10 days.

Last week ushered in the National Holiday, and as we dropped out of harness for a day, to celebrate, we had some items of interest escape, among which was a visit here by Dr. Lee, President of the Albany College, and Rev. C. McLeod, of Salem, Oregon. The Albany College is a Presbyterian Institution, and these gentlemen are touring through this part of the state on bicycles, combining business and recreation. Mr. Lee is working in the interest of the College and the Presbyterian Church in general.

We visited Myrtle Point and the East Fork country the latter part of last week, and while we observed no unusual activity in business, yet there was some improvement to be seen at Myrtle Point in the way of buildings that had been recently erected or were under way. In the country farmers and dairymen were generally busy with their crops and dairies. Vegetation is farther advanced on the East Fork than on the lower or main river, and we observed there 3 patches of growing corn that had reached an average height of nearly four feet, which is the best we have ever seen at this season of the year in this part of the state.

SAY!! RACKET

If you cannot find what you want anywhere else in town, come to the RACKET. Maybe we have one left, if so, the price will please you. Our stock is small, but the goods are of a good quality, and the prices are right. We make "Cash Buying" an object to the purchaser, at the RACKET.

H. A. Cox keeps wheat and shorts for sale. Rev. McVeigh, Evangelist, from Chicago, is holding revival services in the M. E. Church this week. On Sunday next he will preach in the Presbyterian Church at the usual hours, and continue meetings there during next week.

The Woolen Mill Proposition. The Woolen Mills proposition is hanging on a pivot, as it were, and is likely to drop either way, according to the best information we can get.

There are about $1200 more wanted in order to secure the project, and as those who are interested have reached the limit of their capacity to take stock, it is necessary to draw from other sources. There are those interested in the business and growth of Bandon who should interest themselves in the taking up of this deficit, and who, perhaps, will take that amount of interest when the machinery is here, but that will not help to capture the prize. There is ample chance after the plant is secured and placed here on the ground to get all that is needed to carry it forward, but NOW is the time when assistance is needed, and there is but a short time left in which to secure this desirable industry.

There are ten carloads to be brought from Rochester, Minnesota, and the plant when in running order will have a capacity equal to the North Bend Mill, and will manufacture a better grade of cloth.

New buildings will have to be erected as the building here is too small to accommodate the machinery. The machinery for this plant, which is a new mill, cost $18,000, so that the investment is a solid one, in which there is little chance to lose, as it will cost less than half its real value to lay it down in Bandon, or even to install it in a suitable building for operating purposes.

Should the enterprise fail, Bandon citizens will have cause for regret. Should it succeed it will enhance every other business and help up the value of real estate. Stand in and pull together; we cannot afford to lose this opportunity.

Proclamation. Whereas, there was submitted to the electors of the state at the last general election as required by law, an initiative petition for a Local Option Liqueur Law;

And, whereas, on the 21st day of June, 1904, the Secretary of State in my presence as Governor of the State of Oregon, did canvass the votes given for said law;

And, whereas, it was ascertained and determined upon such canvass that there were 43,316 votes cast for said Local Option Liqueur Law, and 44,198 votes cast against the same, and that said law received an affirmative majority of the total number of effective votes cast thereon and entitled to be counted under the provisions of law;

Now, therefore, I, Geo. E. Chamberlain, as Governor of the State of Oregon, in obedience to Section 9 of an Act entitled "An Act making effective the initiative and referendum provisions of Section 1 of Article IV of the State of Oregon, and regulating elections thereunder and providing penalties for violations of provisions of this Act," Approved February 24, 1903, do hereby make and issue this proclamation to the people of the State of Oregon, and do announce and declare that the whole number of votes cast in the State of Oregon for said Local Option Law was 43,316 votes, and the whole number of votes cast in the state against said Local Option Liqueur Law was 44,198 votes, and that said Local Option Liqueur Law received an affirmative majority of the total number of votes cast on said measure and entitled to be counted under the provisions of law, and that said Local Option Liqueur Law shall be and is in full force and effect as the law of the State of Oregon from the date of this Proclamation.

Done at the Capitol at Salem this 24th day of June, A. D. 1904. (Signed) GEO. E. CHAMBERLAIN, Governor of Oregon.

By the Governor: (Signed) F. I. DENBAR, Secretary of State.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

This remedy is certain to be needed in almost every home before the summer is over. It can always be depended upon even in the most severe and dangerous cases. It is especially valuable for summer disorders in children. It is pleasant to take and never fails to give prompt relief. Why not buy it now? It may save life. For sale by C. Y. Lowe.

"I wish to say a few words in praise of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says Mrs. Mattie Burge, of Martinsville, Va. "I suffered from chronic diarrhoea for ten years, and during that time tried various medicines without obtaining any permanent relief. Last summer one of my children was taken with cholera morbus, and I procured a bottle of this remedy. Only two doses were required to give her entire relief. I then decided to try the medicine myself, and did not use all of one bottle before I was well, and I have never since been troubled with that complaint. One cannot say too much in favor of that wonderful medicine." This remedy is for sale by C. Y. Lowe, Druggist.

Snow Drift Flour at Denholm's. The steamer Elizabeth is due tomorrow, and will sail Sunday. The outgoing passengers on the Elizabeth last Thursday were, W. D. McKone, Mrs. H. A. Carpenter, Geo. Westlund, E. M. Page, Mrs. L. L. Page and R. E. L. Beddison.

Port Orford Tribune: Prof. J. C. Logan informs us that after the close of his Elk River school, this fall, he will join his wife in Ohio, where they will locate permanently. Mr. Logan is one of the popular teachers of Southwest Oregon, and will be greatly missed.

Coast Mail: T. W. Clark, general manager and president of the North Bend Woolen Mills Company, accompanied by his wife, arrived on the last Alliance from Portland. Mr. Clark is just returning from a business visit to Detroit, Michigan. In an interview today he informed a Coast Mail reporter that while in the East he had closed a contract with Detroit parties for the sale of carriage cloth, amounting to over $200,000. He seemed very much gratified with the projects now in view, and said that this contract within itself would insure the full working capacity of the mills for a year, and would necessitate the increasing of his forces and machinery.

It is estimated that the capital stock of this great concern may soon be increased from $100,000 to $150,000, the addition to be in preferred stock and the object to increase the capacity of the mills by adding 10 or 12 more broad looms and insuring ready capital for running expenses.

Fire at Myrtle Point. Myrtle Point suffered from a small blaze last Friday night, which, had it not been for the heroic efforts of her citizens would doubtless have proved very destructive to the town.

At about eleven o'clock, in the evening, the alarm of fire was given, and by the time one could rise and dress, and get out on the street, the fire, which had started in the attic of the small building occupied by B. T. Van Decar and Dr. J. W. Strange, was bursting through the roof and beginning to get considerable headway.

By the time the citizens gathered, the fire had such hold that it could not be extinguished with the means at hand, hence the purpose of confining it to the building in which it started was undertaken and carried through with an energy that succeeded. The building destroyed stood between J. Machado's meat market and a brick building, there being a dozen or perhaps sixteen feet space intervening between each, and not being a very tall building, by persistent fighting and stubborn effort the fire was kept from igniting the adjoining structures.

At one time it looked as if the men who were stationed upon the Machado Building would be forced off by the heat, but by dashing water over themselves as well as over the roof and sides of the building, they succeeded in maintaining their positions and in confining the flames to the place where it started.

The only means of fighting the fire was to carry water from the surrounding wells, in buckets, and dash it over the buildings threatened. While there were many persons employed who were energetic throughout, there were none who did more service or deserve more credit than Charles Page, Gus Brown and a Mr. Schneider, who mounted the Machado Building and worked where the heat was greatest.

The fire originated in the attic of the building, and must have been the result of defective electric wiring. Dr. Strange lost about one half of his dentist outfit, but was insured. B. T. VanDecar carried no insurance, and estimated his loss at $500. He saved part of the contents of his jewelry store.

The town is in a helpless condition to fight fire, and on this occasion was fortunate in the isolation of the building and calmness of the night, there being no wind, and a heavy fog hung over the town.

Sick Headache. For several years my wife was troubled with what physicians called sick headache of a very severe character. She doctored with several eminent physicians and at a great expense, only to grow worse until she was unable to do any kind of work. About a year ago she began taking Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and today weighs more than she ever did before, and is real well," says Mr. G. E. Wright, of New London, New York. For sale by C. Y. Lowe.

Safeguard the Children. Notwithstanding all that is done by boards of health and charitably inclined persons, the death rate among small children is very high during the hot weather of the summer months in the large cities. There is not probably one case of bowel complaint in a hundred, however, that could not be cured by the timely use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera, and Diarrhoea Remedy. For sale by C. Y. Lowe.

Telegram: Again a list of dead and injured, the outcome of the Glorious Fourth, is making its appearance, and the roll is as long as at any time in the past. The Fourth was not celebrated in as "safe" a manner as was hoped, but by constant agitation it may be at some time in the future. The public accepted the warning against the toy pistol, and the place of that deadly weapon was filled by the equally exploding cane. When the cane is eliminated, what next?

A Very Close Call. "I stuck to my engine, although every joint ached and every nerve was racked with pain," writes C. W. Bellamy, a locomotive fireman, of Burlington, Iowa. "I was weak and pale, without any appetite, and all run down. As I was about to give up, I got a bottle of Electric Bitters, and after taking it, I felt as well as I ever did in my life." Weak, sickly, run down people always gain new life, strength and vigor from their use. Try them. Satisfaction guaranteed by C. Y. Lowe.

Another Chance to Register. By a provision of the direct primary law enacted at the recent election, registration will be resumed this autumn for the November elections. Heretofore the registration law has been deficient in the respect that it required electors to register prior to May 15, in order to vote in November for President, or else to vote on the anniversary of six free holders.

County clerks throughout the State are now required to re-open the registration books between September 20th, 1904, and 5 o'clock p.m. of October 20th, 1904, and between the same dates in each and every year thereafter in which thereafter in which there shall be an election of Presidential electors.—North Bend Citizen.
