EDITORIAL

Secretary Shaw says that wages have kept pace with prices. The Secretary should keep closer tag on government statistics...

When it comes to manufacturing tales of calamity and defeat to an enemy, Russia stands at the head of the list, but unfortunately for the Bear's cause, the Mikado's forces are like Banquo's ghost and won't down when reported dead. They rise again.

Among the expenses of election as allowed by the County Court are several claims by hotel keepers for meals which we presume were given to election boards. These claims should not be paid by the county as they are unjust. The county hires its judges and clerks and pays them three dollars per day, and if they are kept a few hours overtime, allows them for two days, but it does not agree to board them during that time...

Telegram—Any day now there may come rumors that Bert Arthur has fallen. There will be more reason to give credence to the reports now than formerly, for the Japanese are concentrating their energies in that direction. It is advisable to wait for official confirmation before believing the first wild rumors, however.

Domestic Troubles

It is exceptional to find a family where there are no domestic ruptures occasionally, but these can be lessened by having Dr. King's New Life Pills around. Much trouble they save by their great work in Stomach and Liver troubles. They not only relieve you, but cure. 25cents at C. Y. Lowe's Drug Store.

WIFE CHILDREN AND FRIENDS

When the black lettered list to the gods was presented. (The list of what Fate for each mortal intends). At the long strings of hills a kind goddess re-lected. And slipped in three blessings—wife, children and friends.

In vain curly Pluto maintained he was cheated.

For justice divine could not compass its ends.

The scheme of man's penance he swore was defeated.

For earth becomes heaven with—wife, children and friends.

If the stock of our bliss is in stranger hands vested.

The fund, ill-secured, oft in bankruptcy ends.

But the heart issues bills which are never protested.

When drawn on the firm of—wife, mother and friends.

Children, look in those eyes, listen to that dear voice, notice the feeling of even a single touch that is bestowed upon you by that gentle hand; make much of it while you have that most precious of all gifts, a loving mother.

Read the unflattering love of those eyes, the anxiety in that tone and look, however slight your pain. In after life you may have friends, but never again will you have the inex-pressible love and goodness lavished upon you which none but a mother can bestow.

There has ever been a split of opinion in the matter of when the "home nest" is regarded by some of its acquaintances, and there seems to be an underlying vein of suspicion in the comments of some as they refer to withering women in those of their fellow men, who are perhaps, in every way their mental and intellectual superiors. The "home nest" is the great man, the honest man, and the manly man, and the more the woman spends at home with her family, the more her credit and eternal happiness. The day fellow who spends his time away from home as much as possible with a coteries of equally poor associates, lives the life of the butterfly, when his devoid of health to himself or anybody else, and when, when it has been lived, has made no man any better. The "home nest" who spends his leisure time at home with his wife and little ones, or, if he is married, with his mother and sisters, is the sensible man, the man for whom the world is made, and the man who is better than the thousands of small pleasure if a worldly existence.

Compare a table for dress with a code for knowledge, culture, spirit and piety. Dress up an ignorant woman in the "height of fashion" put on plumes and flowers and the world and progress; paint her face and get up her waist, and nothing compared for this side of a painted, feathered savage, nor is there anything more pretentious to befall. Yet just such young women we meet every day on the street and in public places. Why is it so? It is because so many women are regarded as a doll to be dressed, a plaything to be petted. How the soul of womanhood is dwarfed and stunted by such a life and kept away from the great and noble fields of active thought by the progress that hang from her feet. The richest dress is always worn on the soil. The adornments that will not perdition that all momentary admiring shine from the heart through this life. We do not endorse the well-dressed person, man or woman. We can but feel that the love of dress, He has played robes of beauty and glory upon all his works. Every flower is dressed in blossoms every field blossoms through a mantle of beauty, every star is veiled in largeness, every bird is clothed in the brightness of the most exquisite tints. The cattle upon a thousand hills are dressed by the hand divine, and to dress properly is quite different to being a slave to fashion.

Saved From Terrible Death

The family of Mrs. M. L. B. of Burgerton, Tenn., saw her dying and were powerless to save her. The most skillful physicians and every remedy used, failed, while consumption was slowly but surely taking her life. In this terrible hour Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption turned despair into joy. The first bottle brought immediate relief, and its continued use completely cured her. It's the most certain cure in the world for all throat and lung troubles. Guaranteed Bottles 50cts and $1.00. Trial Bottles free at C. Y. Lowe's Drug Store.

Try for Health

622 South Pacific St., Clatskanie, Ore., Oct. 7, 1902. Eight months ago I was ill that I was unable to get down nearly all the time. My stomach was so weak and upset that I could keep nothing on it and I vomited frequently. I could not urinate without great pain and I coughed so much that my throat and lungs were raw and sore. The doctors pronounced it Bright's disease and others said it was consumption. It mattered little to me what they called it and I had no desire to live. A sister visited me from St. Louis and asked me if I had ever tried Wine of Cardui. I told her I had not and she bought a bottle. I believe that it saved my life. I believe many women could save much suffering if they but knew of its value.

Don't you want freedom from pain? Take Wine of Cardui and make one supreme effort to be well. You do not need to be a weak, helpless sufferer. You can have a woman's health and do a woman's work in life. Why not secure a bottle of Wine of Cardui from your druggist today?
