EDITORIAL.

Uncle Sam is having words with Turkey, again, regarding American citizens and their rights in the Turkish realm. The Sultan seems to be afflicted with morbid deafness peculiar only to him, and particularly pronounced when other nations make a demand on him. His ear, however, becomes peculiarly sensitive and hearing is restored when there is danger of the sizzle and crackle of gunpowder in the air. Uncle Sam has ordered his warships to Turkey, and the Porte's listless condition will soon pass away.

Strange alliances take place, and interests are sometimes woven together that would seem impossible of harmonizing, or of assimilation, yet a transformation results; but perhaps the most incompatible union yet undertaken, was that inaugurated by Bishop Potter, of New York, when he delivered the dedicatory address of the "Subway Tavern," and closed by chanting the doxology. The Subway Tavern is to be a kind of social reform where the poor can assemble and where light alcoholic drinks will be dispensed to people who can not afford to visit and become members of high toned clubs. It is aimed as a halfway place to keep a certain class of men from visiting a lower order of saloons. A halfway place is a good name, as it will be an easy step for Bishop Potter's church members to "hit" the "Subway Tavern," and soon they will be unable to discern any thing wrong in visiting and drinking anywhere else. Jesus Christ makes no compromise with sin, and while Bishop Potter has the privilege to choose good or evil, and may stoop to any degree of degradation compatible to himself, yet he cannot drag the Lowly Nazarene down to his level. Righteousness and unrighteousness will not assimilate; truth and falsehood will not agree, and God cannot be made to serve the devil. When a man turns to serve the devil, the Christ Spirit leaves him; he cannot take it with him into sin.

New Steamer for Portland.

It is at last authentically given out that a special freight and passenger steamer is to be put on the run between Coos Bay and Portland. The Spreckels Bros. Steamship Co. of San Francisco, have taken the matter up, and the announcement was made by C F. McCollum, their manager on this end. In an interview granted a Coast Mail reporter by Mr. McCollum and Captain Seaman, of the Breakwater, last evening it was learned that it is the intention of the company to build coal-bunkers at Portland, and place a new steamer on the run, carrying coal from Coos Bay to that market. The new steamer is to have ample passenger accommodations, and will make weekly trips on schedule time, making direct connections with the steamer Breakwater at this place.—Coast Mail.

Telegram: All cats at Felton, Del., have been ordered exterminated, by the Council, and all dogs in that town must be muzzled. This action was taken because a woman and a boy were bitten by a vicious feline. The order is too sweeping, but there are probably many citizens of that place who will sleep better when the command is executed.

Portland Telegram: No apparent advantage has been obtained by the Russian fleet at Port Arthur by its spectacular break for the open sea a few days ago. A few of the vessels managed to escape, but these are now widely separated and will have trouble in concentrating with the Vladivostok squadron, while several of the heaviest ships were compelled to return to their precarious position in Port Arthur harbor.

Cholera Infantum.

This disease has lost its terrors since Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy came into general use. The uniform success which attends the use of this remedy in all cases of bowel complaints in children has made it a favorite wherever its value has become known. For Sale by C. Y. Lowe.

WANTED—TRUSTWORTHY LADY OR gentleman to manage business in this County and adjoining territory for house of solid financial standing. $30 straight cash salary and expenses paid each Monday direct from headquarters. Secretary Hay's Position.

In his official declaration as to what, in reason, may not be considered as contraband of war by the Russian government, Secretary of State John Hay evinces that common sense and adherence to palpable justice that is characteristic of American statecraft. While not unexpected, it is refreshing to note that his position receives unqualified indorsement at the hands of the English press; and that the attitude of the British government will doubtless harmonize with his views. It is hardly to be assumed that in the face of his declaration, and its accepted correctness, Russia will persist in a policy as defenceless as it is foolish. Mildly but firmly the Muscovite power has been served with notice that it may not consider every article of human use as contraband of war, because its destination is a belligerent port, and it may ultimately become useful to a belligerent for military purposes. In other words, destination is to raise no binding presumption, when taken by itself, as to the character of cargo with which a neutral ship is laden. The American Secretary points out that such procedure is plainly an invasion of the universally acknowledged rights of commerce; and there is rather more than an implied admonition that this position will be firmly maintained by the United States Government. This declaration is timely, to the point, and we predict, will be effective to the protection of American commercial interests.—Telegram.

One Lady's Recommendation Sold Fifty Boxes of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets.

I have, I believe, sold fifty boxes of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets on the recommendation of one lady here, who first bought a box of them about a year ago. She never tires of telling her neighbors and friends about the good qualities of these Tablets.—P. M. Shore, Druggest, Rochester, Ind. The pleasant purgative effect of these Tablets make them a favorite with ladies everywhere. For sale by C. Y. Lowe

Myrtle Point Enterprise: Fred Nosler, of Bridge, met with a severe accident Wednesday. He was putting hay in the barn with a derrick fork when the wheel stuck on the track and in freeing it his right hand was caught. His third finger was torn off at the second joint and the second finger at the first joint. He was brought to town and the wound was dressed by Dr. Leep. It will be some time before Mr. Nosler will have the use of his hand.

The State Fair.

This year is going to be a record breaker, in more ways than one. The Races are going to be very rapid for there are in training now more horses than have ever been on the track at this time of the year and in the Greater Salem Stake for 2:15 pacers $2,000 purse. There are 31 entries in the $2,000 2:17 trot. In the Lewis & Clark Stake there are 17 entries. In the Rural Spirit Stake 2:11 pace for $1,000 there are 18 entries. In the Inland Empire Stake for 3 year old pacers for $500 there are 11 entries, and there are besides 11 other pacing and trotting races to say nothing of th erunning races of which there will be at least two each day.

The Camping Ground has been fixed up and streets laid out and named, camps numbered and in charge of a Camp Grand Marshal, who will look after the matters there day and night. Water has been piped into the grounds and other improvements made making it one of the best camping grounds in the state. Take your family and a tent and enjoy a week of solid comfort to say nothing of the educational advantages that you and the children will get at the Fair that they never could get any place else in the same time.

All trains of the S. P. R. R. Co stop at the grounds during the week.

The street railway system into Salem has been thoroughly overhauled, new cars purchased, the track widened to standard guage, and the roadbed improved, allowing the company to make a 6 minute service and possibly shorter. The pavillion and grounds will be lighted by Incandescent Electric Lights, thus giving a much improved light service.

Violent Attack of Diarrhoea Cured by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and Perhaps a Life Saved.

"A short time ago I was taken with a violent attack of diarrhoea, and believe I would have died if I had not gotten relief," says John J. Patton, a leading citizen of Patton, Alabama. "A friend recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I bought a twenty five cent bottle and after taking three doses of it was entirely cured." I consider it the best remedy in the world for bowel complaints. For sale by C. Y. Lowe, Druggist.

Home Circle Column

Crude Thoughts As They Fall From the Editorial Pen. Pleasant Evening Reveries. A Column Dedicated to Tired Mothers as They Join The Home Circle at Evening Tide.

THE DEAREST SPOT ON EARTH IS HOME.

The dearest spot on earth to me
  Is home, sweet home!
The fairy land I long to see
  Is home, sweet home!
There, how charmed the sense of hearing!
There, where love is so endearing!
All the world is not so cheering
  As home, sweet home!

I've taught my heart the way to prize
  My home, sweet home!
I've learned to look with lover's eyes
  On home, sweet home!
There, where vows are truly plighted!
There where hearts are so united!
All the world besides I've slighted
  For home, sweet home.

We would impress upon every reader of this column the importance of cultivating the home virtues, the household beauties of existence. Endeavor to make the little circle of domestic life a cheerful, an intelligent, a kindly and a happy one. Whatever may go wrong in the world of business and trade, however arduous may be the struggle for fortune or fame, let nothing mar the purity of reciprocal love, or throw into its harmonious existence the apple of discord.

No food should be so inviting as the food dispensed aronnd the family table. Mother should be the best cook in America. Mother's pancakes should "take the cake" every time. When the bell sounds for breakfast at the old homestead, what a good sight it is to see the hungry children eat. Mother has some difficulty in getting an opportunity to have a bite herself, but she is willing to wait, for her comfort exists in being a blessing to others. Comfort on earth is generally found at home. Comfort in the hereafter will be found at home in Heaven. Those who have found comfort on earth in a hovel, may find comfort in Heaven in a mansion.

When tired out, go home. When you want consolation, go home. When you want fun, go home. When you want to show to others that you have reformed, go home and let your family get acquainted with the fact. When you want to show yourself at your best, go home and do the act there. When you feel like being extra liberal, go home and practice on your wife and children first. When you want to shine with more brilliancy than usual, go home and light up the whole household.

Home should be a refuge in every storm. Troubled men should find an anchorage there when it is too stormy to be about. Around the old stove surrounded by his wife and children, such a man should be able to say "Who cares for the troubles and trials outside? This is my castle, and it is here that I find comfort as nowhere else."

COMFORT AND HOME.

Amid the troubles of life—actual and imaginary—it is no more than proper to endeavor to inquire where solid comfort can be found.

As far as our earth is concerned there is no place like home to put aside troubles and bask in the sunshine of comfort. We can dress more comfortably at home than away from it. We can tell our joys and sorrows to the members of the family as no where else. We can reprove and be reproved at home in a way that will be beneficial to all.

The model home circle should be the best place on earth; for it is composed of thoughtful, hard-working father, loving mother, brothers who love to look out for their sisters, and sisters who study what should be done in order to make the rest of the family happy.

The family circle also embraces the grandchildren. They are the last comers to the family to make hearts glad, and keep up the baby talk among the old ones.

Grandchildren from two years old up to ten or twelve years of age are just the things for old people to play with. It is cheap amusement and very refreshing.

A great feature about grandchildren is that when grandfather and grandmother get weary of them they can hand them back to their parents. We could not do that with our own children.

Taken with Cramps.

Wm. Kirmsa, a member of the bridge gang working near Littleport was taken suddenly ill Thursday night with cramps and a kind of cholera. His case was so severe that he had to have the members of the crew wait upon him and Mr. Gifford was called and consulted. He told them he had a medicine in the form of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy that he thought would help him out, and accordingly several doses were administered with the result that the fellow was able to be around next day. The incident speaks quite highly of Mr Gifford's medicines.—Elkader, Iowa, Argus.

This remedy never fails. Keep it in your home, it may save life. For sale by C. Y. Lowe.

FEMALE WEAKNESS

512 1-2 Congress St.
PORTLAND, MAINE, Oct. 17, 1902.

I consider Wine of Cardui superior to any doctor's medicine I ever used and I know whereof I speak. I suffered for a few months with suppressed menstruation which completely prostrated me. Pains would shoot through my back and sides and I would have blinding headaches. My limbs would swell up and I would feel so weak I could not stand up. I naturally felt discouraged for I seemed to be beyond the help of physicians, but Wine of Cardui came as a God-send to me. I felt a change for the better within a week. After nineteen days treatment I menstruated without suffering the agonies I usually did and soon became regular and without pain. Wine of Cardui is simply wonderful and I wish that all suffering women knew of its good qualities.

Wilhelmina Snow
Treasurer, Portland Economic League

Periodical headaches tell of female weakness. Wine of Cardui cures permanently nineteen out of every twenty cases of irregular menses, bearing down pains or any female weakness. If you are discouraged and doctors have failed, that is the best reason in the world you should try Wine of Cardui now. Remember that headaches mean female weakness. Secure a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui today.
