EDITORIAL.

When Eve and Adam sinned both were turned out of the Garden of Eden, but the modern Eve has found a different way: When she sins and and tempts her husband to sin, he is sent to prison for life, while she goes free.

Japan and Russia are piling up indebtedness at a rate calculated to make the money lender smile, and it is safe to predict that these microbes upon the body poltic will be inserting their bills with a ferocity equaled only by an attack of hungry mosquitoes from a Mississippi swamp.

North Bend Post: L. H. Barnes, who has been meat cutter in Wm. Gamble's shop, has bought the stock and fixtures of Noble Bros.' meat market and has leased L. M. Noble's building for a term of three years.

Telegram: The Czar of Russia and the King of Italy can now exchange a congratulatory handshake. The birth of the Russian prince has resulted in the abolishment of flogging and that of the Italian in clemency to deserters. These facts constitute a singular but rather forcible commentary on the out of date patterns of such governments as obtain in Italy and Russia.

Coquille Herald: Col. C. T. Blumenrother, of Bandon informs us that the proposition of the Bandon people to the company who have been canvassing the idea of starting a wood pulp paper factory at that place, has been accepted and that the mill is a sure go. This will be a great help to Bandon and the whole valley. This will employ a greater number of men than any one institution in the valley, and possibly more than any in the county.

Rich Strike in Curry County.

L. G. Higgins is said to have discovered a rich dike of gold bearing porphyry, several hundred feet wide, lying between walls of slate and diorite. Very rich ore is said to have been found for a thousand feet. This find is on the head-waters of Chetco river, near the Josephine and Curry boundary lines.—Port Orford Tribune

Court News.

A. E. Suckau, who was convicted of rape on the person of his daughter, was sentenced to twenty years in the State Prison.

In the case of Earl Steele, charged with murder in the first degree, the jury found him guilty of murder in the second degree and his sentence is imprisonment for 99 years.

In the case of Mrs. Earl Steele, the verdict of the jury was, "Not guilty."

Mrs. Mary E. Hunt was granted a divorce from W. H. Hunt.

In Praise of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

"Allow me to give you a few words in praise of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says Mr. John Hamlett, of Eagle Pass, Texas. "I suffered one week with bowel trouble and took all kinds of medicine without getting any relief, when my friend, Mr. C. Johnson, a merchant here, advised me to take this remedy. After taking one dose I felt greatly relieved, and when I had taken the third dose was entirely cured. I thank you from the bottom of my heart for putting this great remedy in the hands of mankind." Emergency Medicines.

It is a great convenience to have at hand reliable remedies for use in cases of accident and for slight injuries and ailments. A good liniment and one that is fast becoming a favorite, if not a household necessity, is Chamberlain's Pain Balm. By applying it promptly to a cut, bruise or burn it allays the pain and causes the injury to heal in about one-third the time usually required, and as it is an antiseptic it prevents any danger of blood poisoning. When Pain Balm is kept at hand a sprain may be treated before inflammation sets in, which insures a quick recovery. For sale by C. Y. Lowe.

Sour Stomach.

When the quantity of food taken is too large or the quality too rich, sour stomach is likely to follow, and especially so if the digestion has been weakened by constipation. Eat slowly and not too freely of easily digested food. Masticate the food thoroughly. Let five hours elapse between meals, and when you feel a fullness and weight in the region of the stomach after eating, take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and the sour stomach may be avoided. A GOODLY HERITAGE.

Nature in her silent, beautiful way teaches many lessons. She does not force a moral upon us. We may drink in her lovliness and take or leave the lesson as we please. A man must have something of the child in his heart to feel the splendor of the horizon, the magnificence of the stars, the mystery of the woods, the joyous dignity of fertile sunlit meadows; and having the child's heart to feel, he will have the child's faith to see, and whatever his sorrow, nature shall heal it, whatever his perplexity, nature shall solve it. Men have set their mark upon the woods and upon the hills. They have divided the lands and have said to the world, "This farm is mine." "Yonder woodland is yours." "The babbling brook and the beech covered hillside belongs to your neighbor;" but the first child of nature who chances that way without a penny in his pocket may have all the beauty and peace of this lovely landscape for the looking. Nature teaches us to live our own lives, to be ourselves. The petty cares of life hurry us away from the best that is within us. We cannot stop to live up to the heights of beauty, to think the noble thoughts. Nature says, "All these months I waited in serenity for the springtime. Without haste and without rest I have perfected each tiny bloom until the work is completed and the blossoming trees fill the land with perfume and color."

FOR HUSBANDS ONLY.

The money maker of the family has his own troubles—no one ever doubted that—but the housekeeper has a few, too, and it would not be out of place to give her a little consideration. The man of the house, therefore, might paste these suggestions in his hat, if he does not consider them impertinent.

Assume a cheerfullness even though you do not feel it on coming home in the evening.

Greet your wife with a smile, instead of an impatient inquiry as to when will dinner be ready.

Do not complain any more than is absolutely necessary about the toughness of the beef nor the comparative inferiority of the bread.

Do not tell your wife that you can not imagine what she does with all the money she has to spend.

Do not ask her what she did with the $1 you gave her last month before you respond to her appeal for two bits to send out and get some butter.

Do not tell her at once that you saw the prettiest woman you have seen for a long time in town that day; it will hurt her feelings.

Do not tell her she does not know how to handle the servants, or they would do better.

Do not say that the children are the worst behaved you ever saw.

Has Sold a Pile of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

I have sold Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for more than twenty years, and it has given entire satisfaction. I have sold a pile of it and can recommend it highly.—Joseph McElhiney, Linton, Iowa. You will find this remedy a good friend when troubled with a cough or cold. It always affords quick relief and is pleasant to take. For sale by C. Y. Lowe.

Fixes A Penalty.

The authorities at Washington have fixed a penalty of $200 on any person taking out of the postoffice mail other than their own. All postmasters are liable to make mistakes and get mail that in the wrong boxes, and the law says that the people must examine their mail before leaving the office, and if they have mail other than their own, it must be returned at once. That it is the fault of the post master makes no difference. This law includes newspapers as well as first class mail. There is a class of curious people every where and, as a rule contemptibly curious about letters and other mail matter which hey chance to get hold of. They will open all letters coming into their possession, and often when knowing full well they do not belong to them they will, after reading the letters, write on the envelope, "opened by mistake," and without signing their names, drop it back into the post-office box or during the daytime when not observed. This class of curious individuals are warned to be careful in the near future. If they open a letter hereafter which does not belong to them, they must sign their name and state why they opened same, whether by accident or design.

BLACK-DRAUGHT STOCK and POULTRY MEDICINE

Stock and poultry have few troubles which are not bowel and liver irregularities. Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine is a bowel and liver remedy for stock. It puts the organs of digestion in a perfect condition. Prominent American breeders and farmers keep their herds and flocks healthy by giving them an occasional dose of Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine in their food. Any stock raiser may buy a 25-cent half-pound airetight can of this medicine from his dealer and keep his stock in vigorous health for weeks. Dealers generally keep Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine. If yours does not, send 25 cents for a sample can to the manufacturers, The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

ROCKVILLE, GA., Jan. 30, 1902.
Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine is the best I ever tried. Our stock was looking bad when you sent me the medicine and now they are getting so fine. They are looking 30 per cent. better.

Timber Land Act, June 3, 1878.

UNITED STATES LAND OFFICE, Roseburg, Oregon, August 26, 1904.

Notice is hereby given that in compliance with the provisions of the act of Congress of June 3, 1878, entitled "An act for the sale of timber lands in the States of California, Oregon, Nevada, and Washington Territory," as extended to all the Public Land States by act of August 4, 1892, Mrs. Rhoda E. Marshall, of Bandon, County of Coos, State of Oregon, has this day filed in this office her sworn statement No. 6387, for the purchase of the Lot 4 of Section No. 5, in Township No. 30 South, of Range No. 14 West, and will offer proof to show that the land sought is more valuable for its timber or stone than for agricultural purposes, and to establish her claim to said land before C. T. Blumenrother, United States Commissioner at his office at Bandon, Coos County, Oregon, on Saturday, the 19th day of November, 1904. She names as witnesses: John M. Adams, William D. Marshall, William Hite and John H. Tucker, all of Bandon, Coos County, Oregon.

Any and all persons claiming adversely the above-described lands are requested to file their claims in this office on or before said 19th day of November, 1904.

Dexter is a beautiful steel gray, 16 1-2 hands high, foaled 1898, is of gentle disposition, and unusual intelligence. He is the best for breeding to for getting of horses for general service, that has ever stood in this section, being possessed of both strength and speed. His colts are large and of fine action. Inspection of his get will convince the most doubting.

His dam, owned for years by Mr. Hume, in Curry County, was the celebrated blue Hambiltonian mare, noted even when 30 years of age for her speed, gameness and endurance. It is unnecessary to add anything to description when the pedigree of the sire of Dexter follows:
