Tribune: The R. R. Engineers will be tackling Whales Heads this week, and have already had to climb 300 feet higher than normal grade, but they'll get through some way.

H. M. Tucker returned home Monday evening from a visit to North Bend, but he could learn nothing definite as to when the wooden mills of that place would start up again.

The Elizabeth's passenger list on her arrival, Monday, was as follows: F. M. Shoemaker, wife and son, L. D. Layton and wife, and Mrs. Korth and daughter. Mr. Bross and M. L. Patterson.

Millard F. Shoemaker, wife and child arrived here Monday morning, on the steamer Elizabeth, on their return from California. Millard informs us that he is back to spend the winter.

When you are calling, call on Cox the groceryman. He will be tickled to receive you, and his provisions, groceries and fruit, are always palatable, and his flour, hams and bacon are of the best.

There will be no exhibits permitted in Festival Hall at the Lewis and Clark Exposition, at Portland, next year. The building, which will seat more than 2,500 persons, will be used for concerts, lectures and conventions.

C. V. Woodruff, of Curry County, was in Bandon Thursday night on his way home. He had been at Coos Bay for some time having undergone surgical treatment at the hands of Dr. Horsfall. The treatment was very satisfactory.

One of the funny incidents of the election here, is a story that one voter of lengthy proportion, loaded up the preceding day, arose with a "blooming" headache, and rushed to the polls and voted prohibition while his aching brain lent him courage.

A. E. Withers, who is in charge of Lighthouse improvement work in this district, was in town a few days having come from Cape Blanco to this place where he had been supervising improvements. From here Mr. Withers went to the Arago light where his services are in demand for a few days. His work will detain him between here and Portland until next spring.

Dentistry.

Dr. Will Tatum, the Painless Dentist, of Portland, will be in Bandon, at the Tupper House, Nov. 21st, and will remain 6 days. All work guaranteed.

SAY!!

If you cannot find what you want anywhere else in town, come to the

RACKET

Maybe we have one left, if so, the price will please you.

Our stock is small, but the goods are of a good quality, and the prices are right.

We make "Cash Baying" an object of the purchase, at the

RACKET.

Good music will be in attendance and a free boat will be run from Bandon.

The steamer Liberty will leave the wharf here at 6:30 P.M.

Western Home A Wreck.

The schooner Western Home, Capt. Weider, master, met with hard luck last Sunday, in trying to make harbor at this place.

The Western Home had made the usual trip from here to San Francisco and back, having been gone but 23 days. On Sunday evening she returned, and started to sail in over the bar. When our reporter first noticed the vessel she was close in and sailing southward, parallel with the beach north of the jetty. She kept southward until she passed the end of the jetty, then she turned in to cross the bar at the North channel, but had not gone far until her speed was checked, and she began to drift into the eddy near the North jetty, from whence she was drifted against the rocks at the Lighthouse.

The station crew, who are always on the alert, were soon on the ground to render assistance, and the tug got up steam so as to render all assistance possible. During the evening everything was done that could be done to pull the schooner off the beach, but to no avail, and as the surf had considerable swell on the vessel soon began leaking.

Early Monday morning on the rising tide another effort was made to get her afloat, but to no avail, as she was leaking so badly by that time the water was as high inside the hull as it was on the outside.

It soon became evident that the schooner could not be saved, and she has been stripped of everything that could be taken off, and she is now left to the orders of the insurance company.

This is the third schooner that has found trouble at the same place during the last three weeks or thereabouts. The schooner Advance was the first to go aground there, and suffered to the extent that it has been necessary to get a donkey engine and pump from San Francisco and put them aboard to keep her free of water while she goes to the city with about three fourths of a load.

The next to try sailing in was the C. A. Klose. She went ashore at the same place, but was fortunate in being taken off with only a damaged rudder which can readily be repaired, and doubtless will be by the time this appears in print.

Immediately after the C. A. Klose went on the beach, the schooner Sacramento sailed in very nicely, but she came in by the South channel, and had more room and better conditions.

These are not the first schooners that have had trouble on the north beach; others have failed under about similar conditions, and during one fall these were five schooners that had trouble, but all succeeded in getting off with but little damage, and the Western Home is the first to become a wreck.

Go to Cox's for your groceries. J. M. Nye and wife, of San Francisco, were in town last night.

Oregon to Give Thanks.

Salem, Or., Nov. 11.—By Proclamation, Governor Chamberlain has set aside Thursday, Nov. 24th, as Thanksgiving Day. The Proclamation is issued in accordance with that of President Roosevelt, and is framed in the briefest form possible. It follows: "To the end that thanks may be returned to Almighty God for the manifold blessings enjoyed by the people of the United States, the President has designated Thursday, the 24th day of November, A. D. 1904, as a day of general thanksgiving, and, conformable to custom, I, George E. Chamberlain, Governor of the State of Oregon, do designate said day as an appropriate way in returning thanks for the continued health, happiness and prosperity of our people.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the great seal of the state to be hereunto affixed at the City of Salem, this 10th day of November, in the year of our Lord, 1904. GEO. E. CHAMBERLAIN, By the Governor.

F. I. DUNBAR, Secretary of State.

Sunday Welcome: Everybody.

From the lord, on down the line, hates a loafer. A loafer is a wart on the face of life—who is unfair, has no sense of decency and no respect for either industry or honesty. Nothing is too good for a loafer if it comes easy—he delights in riding a free horse to death. The man who works is modest and forbearing, and invariably respects those who accomplish something in life—the loafer has no use for anyone other than himself, and invariably insists on being the whole show from trick mule to ticket taker. Lambast the loafer—do it now.

Doesn't Respect Old Age.

It's shameful when youth fails to show proper respect for old age, but just the contrary in the case of Dr. King's New Life Pills. They cut off all maladies no matter how severe and irrespective of old age. Dyspepsia, Jaundice, Fever, Constipation, all yield to this perfect Pill. 25c at Lowell's Drug Store.

A Narrow Escape.

A correspondent from Two mile sent us the following account of an incident which happened in that vicinity: November 9th, at 4 o'clock, P. M., our attention was called to South Two-mile bridge to Miss Anna Thorhagen and sister who were returning home from Bandon when their horse shied at a hole in the bridge and backed the hind wheels of the buggy off the bridge. The young ladies managed to escape with a few bruises, but most likely the horse and buggy would have gone off the bridge but for the quick assistance of Mr. and Mrs. Stillwell and Amos Hatcher and son who soon got the wheels on the bridge again. Mr. Hatcher took Miss Anna to her house and bathed her arm which was bruised. The buggy was damaged some, but was soon repaired and the young ladies started on their way home, rejoicing that their lives were spared.

Roofing Done.

All kinds of roofs painted and repaired. Shingling a specialty. C. W. DYBERT, Bandon, Ore. Not a Sick Day Since.

"I was taken severely sick with kidney trouble. I tried all sorts of medicines, none of which relieved me. One day I saw an ad. of your Electric Bitters, and determined to try that. After taking a few doses I felt relieved and soon thereafter was entirely cured, and have not seen a sick day since. Neighbors of mine have been cured of Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Liver and Kidney troubles, and General Debility." This is what B. F. Bass, of Fremont, N. C. writes. Only 50c at C. Y. Lowe's Drug Store.
