Long Living. The men of eighty ave and ninety years of age are not the rotund, well fed, but thin, spare men who live ou a slender diet. Be as careful as he will, however, a man past middle age, will occasionally eat too much or of some article of food not suit d to his constitution, and will need a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets to cleanse and invigorate his stomach and regulate his liver and bowels. When this is done there is no reason why the average man should not live to old age. For sale a C. Y. Lone
