EDITORIAL.

If reports circulated and remarks dropped are indicative of anything they lead us to think that the average saloon keeper has but a low opinion of the business he has engaged in. An ex-saloon keeper, who added his mite to help the temperance cause along, remarked: "The saloon ought not to be allowed to exist." A saloon keeper, speaking of his son who was engaged in the business, also said, naming his boy: "He is too good a boy to be ruined in the saloon business and I will get him out of it." A young man who was in the business in speaking to a friend, remarked: "I have higher ambitions and will get out of the saloon business." Still another remark that dropped from a young woman whose husband was in the liquor traffic, rather caps all as to the esteem of a saloon keeper for his calling. The subject under discussion was the raising of offspring, and the lady remarked that her husband would not rear any children as long as he followed the business he was then engaged in.

Our Legislative talent at Salem is very solicitous about the confiscation of the property of the Beer Brewers and Wholesale Whiskey Association, claiming that it is practically confiscation to close them ont of business on so short notice as the present Local Option law provides for. In the first place, the liquor traffic is only permitted on suffrage, having come under the ban of law, hence, those who have engaged in it have done so knowing that an objecting majority could close their business, hence there is no truth in the claim of confiscation, but there is confiscation of property when those who oppose the whiskey traffic have to help pay the costs imposed for crimes committed by persons while under the influence of liquor. If the liquor traffic is of so much importance, let those who profit by it pay the damages that follow in its wake and not confiscate other property to bear the burden. Oregon's law makers might take such proposition under consideration with profit to themselves and their constituents

Revival Results in Wales

What is going on in Wales just now is almost worthy of the name of a social revolution. From the sober account of the results given by the correspondent of the "Standard," we extract a few of the points. The break-up of the Football Clubs continues, many of the players becoming converts. Match fixtures are being cancelled on all hands. Crime in South Wales has sunk to zero, and at the weekly Petty Sessions on Saturday, the Police Court calendar in the towns was unprecedentedly low. The same week in a normal year is usually one of abundant riot, drunkenness and disorder. In the theatres ruin stares the managers in the face. All sorts of lectures, dances, and entertainments are deserted in favour of prayer meetings. All tradesmen except the publicans, report that they have benefitted greatly, the people apparently having taken to expending on food and clothes what they have saved on liquor. Strangest result of all, "long lost debtors have sought out their creditors, and, their consciences having troubled them through the influence of conversion, have either discharged their long-standing liability or made arrangements therefore."

Will our Saloon friends rise and explain how the above facts agree with their assertions that the Saloons build up a town?

T. W. Clark Won His Suit.

Judge J. W. Hamilton has denied the petition of the Simpson Lumber Company praying the appointment of a receiver for the North Bend Woolen Mill, which has been shut down since the middle of last September. Superintendent T. W. Clark claimed that the mill could not be operated upon a paying basis at the present prices ruling in wool, and Judge Hamilton accepted his explanation and held that if Mr. Clark could not operate the mill at a profit, no one else could.

At the request of Superintendent Clark the Judge granted the appointment of a custodian to take charge of the mill. Mr Clark had filed an action against the Simpson Lumber Co. for $25,000 damages.

Nearly Forfeits His Life.

A runaway, almost ending fatally, started a horrible ulcer on the leg of J. B. Orner, Franklin Grove, Ill. For four years it defied all doctors and all remedies. But Bucklen's Arnica Salve had no trouble to cure him. Equally good for Burns, Bruises, Skin Eruptions and Piles. 25cts at Lowe's Drug Store.

Better than Gold.

"I was troubled for several years with chronic indigestion and nervous debility," writes F. J. Green, of Lancaster, N. H. "No remedy helped me until I began using Electric Bitters, which did me more good than all the medicines I ever used. They have also kept my wife in excellent health for years. She says Electric Bitters are just splendid for female troubles; that they are a grand tonic and invigorator for weak, run down women. No other medicine can take its place in our family." Try them. LESSONS IN NATURE.

Men of gross character find no beauty in nature. LeSage, Smollet and writers of the present day who offer to the world minute pictures of what is coarse and impure, never take their readers into the refreshing atmosphere of field or mountain—their scenes are laid in the tap room, the prison, the drawing room, or on the foul pavement of city streets. How different the works of the great and noble in literature, Scott, Spencer, Chaucer, Milton, Goethe, Wordsworth! Their writings are full of the beauty of nature, the charm of fragant flowers, the inspiration of mountains, 'rivers that move in majesty,' the splendor of sunsets, forests, clouds and sea.

If a man will purify his soul let him turn to the beauties of nature. Let us teach our children to dwell upon the loveliness of the changing seasons, to look "thru nature up to nature's God," and the firmament showeth His handiwork. The truths of religion are taught by nature. The goodly heritage of man is his that he may learn the beauty of goodness, that he may know that beauty is truth and truth is beauty. Nature teaches him reverence. The mystery of the deep woods still his perversities, widens his horizon, chastens his conceit, softens his asperities, teaches him modesty, gentleness and piety. We know

That nature never did betray
The heart that loved her, 'tis her privilege
Through all the years of this our life, to lead
From joy to joy; for she can so inform
The mind that is within us, so impress
With quietness and beauty, and so feed
With lofty thoughts, that neither evil tongues,
Rash judgments, nor the sneers of selfish men,
Nor greetings where no kindness is, nor all
The dreary intercourse of daily life,
Shall e'er prevail against us, or distorb
Our cheerful faith, that all which we behold
Is full of blessings.

Let us teach our children to be lovers of the meadows, the woods, the mountains and the beautiful earth. Students of all her moods, knowing that nature will be to them as to Wordsworth, the anchor of the purest thoughts, the nurse, the guide, the guardian of the heart, the very soul of the moral being,

Sperry Flour Co.

Gentlemen:

I would like to tell you why I know Sperry's Flour is the best. My mamma uses 400 lbs. a month, and always has good bread. It never fails her. Everybody praises my mamma's bread. That is the reason I think Sperry's Flour is the best to make good bread

I am ten years old.

My name is Ida Hodges. I live at Parkersburg.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the Mother's Favorite.

The soothing and healing properties of this remedy, its pleasant taste, and prompt and permanent cures, have made it a favorite with people everywhere. It is especially prized by mothers of small children, for colds, croup and whooping cough, as it always affords quick relief, and as it contains no opium or other harmful drug, it may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale by C. Y. Lowe.

Startling but True.

People the world over were horrified on learning of the burning of a Chicago theatre in which nearly six hundred people lost their lives, yet more than five times this number or over 3,000 people died from pneumonia in Chicago during the same year, with scarcely a passing notice. Every one of these cases of pneumonia resulted from a cold and could have been prevented by the timely use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. A great many who had every reason to fear pneumonia, have warded it off by the prompt use of this remedy. The following is an instance of this sort: "Too much cannot be said in favor of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and especially for colds and influenza. I know that it cured my daughter, Laura, of a severe cold, and I believe saved her life when she was threatened with pneumonia." W. D. Wilcox, Logan, New York. Sold by C. Y. Lowe.

Coquille, Oregon, Jan. 20, 1905.

F. S. Dow,
Marshfield, Oregon.

Gentleman:

The reason why my folks like Sperry's Flour is because it is made from the best grain. We have tried all kinds of flour, but when we want good flour we have to buy Sperry's Flour. It is the purest flour and makes the best bread.

Respectfully yours,
Nettie Belloni.

Sperry Flour Co., F. S. Dow, Agt.
Marshfield, Oregon.

Sir:

Having heard of your generous offer of $5.00 to the boy or girl in Bandon who gives the best reasons why his or her mother should use Sperry's Flour, I contribute the following hoping to be one of the successful contestants. My mother has used Sperry's Flour for six or seven years. Sperry's Flour makes the whitest bread. Every sack of Sperry's Flour can be relied on. Sperry's Flour makes the sweetest bread. Bread kneaded from Sperry's Flour is more easily handled and is not so sticky as bread kneaded from other flour.

Respectfully,
Henry C. Adams.

BILIOUSNESS AND CONSTIPATION CURED BY THEDFORD'S BLACK-DRAUGHT

Because the liver is neglected people suffer with constipation, biliousness, headaches and fevers. Colds attack the lungs and contagious diseases take hold of the system. It is safe to say that if the liver were always kept in proper working order, illness would be almost unknown.

Thedford's Black-Draught is so successful in curing such sickness because it is without a rival as a liver regulator. This great family medicine is not a strong and drastic drug, but a mild and healthful laxative that cures constipation and may be taken by a mere child without possible harm.

The healthful action on the liver cures biliousness. It has an invigorating effect on the kidneys. Because the liver and kidneys do not work regularly, the poisonous acids along with the waste from the bowels get back into the blood and virulent contagion results.

Timely treatment with Thedford's Black-Draught removes the dangers which lurk in constipation, liver and kidney troubles, and will positively forestall the inroads of Bright's disease, for which disease in advanced stages there is no cure. Ask your dealer for a 25c. package of Thedford's Black-Draught.
