EDITORIAL.

Now comes the news that John D. Rockefeller, the Oil King, is going to build a million dollar home in Kansas. He probably wishes to take his sons on Socialism from the Kansas.

Young man, why do you idle your time away? Time improved brings its sheaves of gold. Time wasted brings its crop of sorrow and condemnation. If there is labor to perform its completion means so much of increase. When there is nothing for the hands to do, then there is time to store the mind, and if these moments are improved it means a fund of knowledge that brings pleasure to the possessor and fits him for higher duties and usefulness. Get out of the groove so many are following and quit wasting valuable time in living only for present amusement. That kind of life will never give you the satisfaction you seek.

From Colorado's capital comes word that James H. Peabody has been seated and Governor Adams dispossessed of the Governorship, on the promise that in case he was given the governorship, he would immediately resign. Politics show many inconsistencies. This deal was necessary in order to obtain the votes of enough Republicans to unseat Mr. Adams, hence it was used as a bribe to control certain votes. If Mr. Peabody was entitled to the seat, it was the duty of the Colorado Legislature to give it to him without curtailing his right to fill the office, and if he was not rightfully entitled to the position, no self-respecting man, acquainted with the merits of the case, could support him, while to let Peabody as the cat's paw to foist the Lieutenant Governor upon the people, certainly smatters of dishonor.

More Ricks

Disturbances of strikers are not nearly as grave as an individual disorder of the system. Overwork, loss of sleep and nervous tension will be followed by utter collapse unless a reliable remedy is immediately employed. There's nothing so effective to cure disorders of the Liver or Kidneys as Electric Bitters. It's a wonderful tonic, an effective nerve, and the greatest all around medicine for run down systems. It dispels Nervousness, Rheumatism and Neuralgia, and expels Malaria germs. Only 50c, and satisfaction guaranteed by C. Y. Lowe, Druggist.

The Commoner: In Tom Watson's Magazine, Dr. Girdner presents a new view of the franchise question, and W. J. Ghent shows that the interstate railroads kill nearly twice as many each year as were killed at Gettysburg.

Telegram: President Roosevelt will make a great mistake if he appoints Addicks to any foreign office in order to get rid of him. We have been disgraced abroad enough without sending Addicks over to keep up the disgusting impression that some foreigners have formed of us.

Telegram: A poolroom, patronized almost exclusively by the wives of wealthy New Yorkers, has just been broken up in New York by the police. Loud screams from the women around the roulette wheel greeted the officers of the law. There is no doubt that the women of our time are learning to follow pretty closely in the track of man's vices, and like the American eagle, they can scream.

Oregonian: The population of Japan is about 43,000,000—one-third that of Russia. But Japan has a homogeneous population, and is near the seat of war. Her supply of men will not fail, and her people are prepared for immense sacrifices. The spirit of her soldiery is splendid, as the fighting shows. Japan can furnish men enough. She can furnish more men at the seat of war than Russia can. Her main problem is the financial one; but herein she certainly has no more difficult problem than that which confronts Russia. Less difficult, probably.

A Safe Cough Medicine for Children.

In buying a cough medicine for children never be afraid to buy Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. There is no danger from it and relief is always sure to follow. It is especially valuable for colds, croup and whooping cough. For sale by C. Y. Lowe.

Tragedy Averted.

"Just in the nick of time our little boy was saved," writes Mrs. W. Watkins of Pleasant City, Ohio. "Pneumonia had played sad havoc with him, and a terrible cough set in besides. Doctors treated him but he grew worse every day. At length we tried Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and our darling was saved. He's now sound and well." Everybody ought to know it's the only sure cure for Coughs, Colds and all Lung diseases. Guaranteed by C. Y. Lowe, Druggist. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

What Chance for Peace?

The war ought to cease. Russia is beaten, and an uncertain no fair hope of retrieval. To her, the war, which has been in progress more than a year, has been a series of unbroken and unrelieved disasters. In no instance has she gained an advantage. She is beaten on land and sea.

Driven back out of Corea, driven back out of maritime Manchuria, and Port Arthur wrested from her, beaten in great battles on her lines of defense northward, forced out of Mukden, the capital of the great province she was stealing from China, her vast armies rolled back with terrible losses and the remnants scarcely able to reorganize for resistance to the progress of the victorious Japanese—Russia, boasting herself one of the greatest of powers, stands foiled and beaten before the world by a nation, whose warlike prowess she had hitherto refused to take into account. Her answer is that she will send other armies. But will she? Can she? Or would it avail if she could and should?

Why should not the impartial world now intervene to stop this dreadful tragedy? Nobody can imagine that other armies which Russia may send can be as efficient as those which Japan has defeated and practically destroyed. On the sea Russia remains as helpless as she has been from the first. She hasn't the spirit even to hazard a combat on the sea; and still, as from the first, she keeps studiously out of the way of it. Is France the friend of Russia? Then France ought to urge Russia to make peace; for certainly France cannot possibly desire her so-called ally to be humiliated further in a war that for Russia can have no triumphs. Possibly Germany might wish to see Russia weaken herself still further; for such result might lead to separate Russia and France, and to relieve Germany of the menace of their alliance.

English speaking nations, of course, would be glad to hear of overtures for peace, which, in the present state of affairs, could hardly come from Japan. France is the nation which ought to take the lead in suggestions of peace; and France probably will speak as soon as she gets an intimation from Russia that such intervention would be welcome.—Oregonian.

Champion Liniment for Rheumatism.

Chas. Drake, a mail carrier at Champaign, Conn., says: "Chamberlain's Pain Balm is the champion of all liniments. The past year I was troubled a great deal with rheumatism in my shoulder. After trying several cures the storekeeper here recommended this remedy and it completely cured me." There is no use of anyone suffering from that painful ailment when this liniment can be obtained for a small sum. One application gives prompt relief, and its continued use for a short time will produce a permanent cure. For sale by C. Y. Lowe, Druggist.

Booth and Bridges to be Indicted for accepting Bribes.

Washington, March 16.—Evidence is accumulating which indicates that Register Bridges and Receiver Booth, of the Roseburg Land Office, are to be indicted by the Federal Grand Jury when it reconvenes in April. Both men, so it is said, have confessed to gross maladministration, including the acceptance of money for improperly advancing cases before their office. It is reported that the Government is in possession of damaging evidence against both men, aside from their own admissions. In all probability Bridges and Booth will be dismissed as soon as indicted, and other appointments will be made at once. Senator Fulton expects to leave for home on Saturday.

Working Overtimes.

Eight hour laws are ignored by those tireless, little workers—Dr. King's New Life Pills. Millions are always at work, night and day, curing Indigestion, Bilelessness, Constipation, Sick Headache, and all Stomach, Liver and Bowel troubles. Easy, pleasant, safe, sure. Only 25c at C. Y. Lowe's Drug Store.

Home Circle Column

Crude Thoughts As They Fall From The Editorial Pen. Pleasant Evening Recreations. A Column Dedicated to Tired Mothers as They Join The Home Circle at Evening Tide.

The old man may not recall all the experiences, all the struggles and triumphs of his early manhood, but every feature of his childhood home, every little playhouse that he helped his sister to build, is a photograph on his heart's tablet, and can never fade away. Perhaps the golden light of eternity will not dim the brightness of that picture. What else the heart may forget, it cannot forget the place of its birth; it cannot forget the little broken cart, the sled and the kite, the sister's fond caress, the brother's generous aid, the father's counsel, the mother's anxious prayer.

In Democratic countries like the United States and Canada, where the fate of the nation is in the hands of the people, the future of the nation is in the hands of the children. They must be fitted for their high responsibilities by the influences of the home. These countries should fear the disloyalty and contentment of the fringe more than the nefarious plots of scheming politicians. If boys wrangle and content at home, if they cannot discuss with dignity the little questions that arise from daily intercourse with one another, be sure they will not honor the nation when they take their places in senate, parliament or congress to discuss the great problems that confront the civilization of the twentieth century.

FOR MOTHERS SAKE.

No friend or loved one will prove as true to us as our mother. She is beyond a doubt our best friend. We should shield her from all the trouble we can, for when she has crossed life's transient stream, if we have or added a furrow to her brow, or a pain to the true heart that lies cold and still, every unkind word and disobedient action will come thronging back upon the memory and knock dolefully at our hearts. We should henceforth be more faithful and kind in discharge of our duties, not only toward our mothers, but we should be kind and considerate in every thought, word and deed toward all the old, lame, blind, unfortunate and erring. While error must be deplored, and virtue ever commended, we should deal carefully and considerately with the erring. Remember that a myriad of untoward circumstances are continually weaving a network around the individual, fretting and binding a soul that otherwise would be pure. We should not forget in our treatment of the erring that were the mother present she would plead with us to deal gently with her child. Very touchingly does the following poem ask that we be lenient for her sake:

SOME MOTHER'S CHILD.

At home or away, in the alley or street,
Whenever I chance in this wide world to meet
A girl that is thoughtless, a boy that is wild,
My heart echoes sadly, "Tis some mother's child!"
And when I see those o'er whom long years
Have rolled,
Whose hearts have grown haggard, whose
Eyes are cold—
Be it woman all fallen, or man all defiled,
A voice whispers sadly, "Ah, some mother's child!"
No matter how far from the right she hath
Strayed,
No matter what inroads dishonor hath
Made,
No matter what element enshrouded the pearl,
Though tarnished and sullied, she's some
Mother's girl.
No matter how wayward his footsteps have
Been,
No matter how deep he is sunk in sin,
No matter how low is his standing of joy,
Though guilty and base-born, he's some
Mother's boy.
That head hath been pillowed on tenderest
Breast,
That form hath been wept o'er, those lips
Have been pressed,
That soul hath been prayed for in tones
Sweet and mild,
For her sake deal gently with this "some Mother's child!"

Frank Vincent DuMond, the famous artist and proprietor of the Lyme school, has been appointed chief of the art department of the Lewis and Clark Exposition.

Oregonian: The town of Tillamook has raised nearly $35,000 of a subsidy asked for a railroad. This would be a small sum of money for a city like Portland, but it is an exceedingly liberal supply for a place the size of Tillamook. It illustrates how thoroughly in earnest the Tillamookers are in their efforts to secure railroad connection with the outside world. Such enterprise should not go unrewarded, and it is to be hoped that the thriving little seaport will soon have the desired facilities for developing her wonderful natural resources.

For an Impaired Appetite.

Loss of appetite always results from faulty digestion. All that is needed is a few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They will invigorate the stomach, strengthen the digestion, and give you an appetite like a wolf. These Tablets also act as a gentle laxative. For sale by C. Y. Lowe.

A MATTER OF HEALTH

President Roosevelt has heartily approved the plans for a conference on the relation of the United States to the Orient, which is to be held next summer at the Lewis and Clark Exposition.

August 1st, has been decided upon as Kentucky Day at the Lewis and Clark Exposition. August 1st was the birthday of Captain William Clark, who shared with Captain Meriwether Lewis the dangers and privations of the Lewis and Clark Expedition. Captain Clark was for twenty years a resident of Kentucky.

This great stock medicine is a money saver for stock raisers. It is a medicine, not a cheap food or condition powder. Though put up in coarser form than Theodor's Black-Draught, renowned for the cure of the digestion troubles of persons, it has the same qualities of invigorating digestion, stirring up the torpid liver and loosening the constipated bowels for all stock and poultry. It is carefully prepared and its action is so healthful that stock grow and thrive with an occasional dose in their food. It cures hog cholera and makes hogs grow fat. It cures chicken cholera and roop and makes hens lay. It cures constipation, distemper and colds in horses, murrain in cattle, and makes a draught animal do more work for the food consumed. It gives animals and fowls of all kinds new life. Every farmer and raiser should certainly give it a trial.
It costs 25c. a can and saves ten times its price in profit.

PRESBURG, KAN., March 22, 1904.

I have been using your Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine on my stock for some time. I have used all kinds of stock food but I have found that yours is the best for my purpose.
