Try him for Flour, Ham, Bacon, etc. Mrs. Mary B. Smith, of California, arrived here last Sunday, from San Francisco, on a visit to her brother, S. A. Alumbangh. Mrs. Smith will remain most of the summer. See our clubbing proposition with the Oregon Semi-Weekly Journal. This is done to give our readers a chance to read Paul De Laney's new novel, "The Sheepherder."

R. W. Lundy was a passenger on the steamer Elizabeth, last Sunday, turning from a visit to the East where he had been called some weeks ago on account of the illness of his father. The town marshal disposed of three yearling calves, last Monday, which had been impounded, and which the owner would not redeem. Port Sommers purchased the lot for the sum of $18. The steamer Chico arrived Monday evening from San Francisco, bringing about 25 tons of freight and five passengers. The passenger list follows: Samuel Rothera, Allen Hodges, wife and two sons. The steamer Elizabeth arrived last Sunday from San Francisco, bringing about 50 tons of freight and four passengers. The passenger list follows: Miss Sadie Fahy, Mrs. Mary B. Smith, C. L. Foster and R. W. Lundy. John Shields, of this place, was made happy Saturday evening by the return of his wife and little daughter from Washington state where Mrs. Shields was called, some two months ago, to visit her parents, her father being sick at that time. There will be a Grand Ball at Prosper, Saturday evening, April 29th, to which a general invitation is extended. There will be free transportation to and from the ball, the Dispatch leaving Bandon at 8 o'clock, and the Favorite leaving Coquille at 7 o'clock in the evening. Ticket one dollar, and supper 50 cents. Mrs. Susan Cox, of Floras Creek was in town Saturday night having come up to attend a meeting of the Eastern Star. She brought news of the death of George Sypher who expired Friday night at the residence of William Cox, on Sixes River. Deceased has been a sufferer from consumption for some time. The Oregon Semi Weekly Journal will soon begin the publication of a new newspaper novel by Paul De Laney entitled "The Sheepherder." In order to give our readers a chance to read this story, we have arranged an unprecedented low clubbing rate with the Journal. This paper and the Semi Weekly Journal will be given one year, the two for $2.25. Call at the office at once and subscribe in order to get the first chapter of the story. This offer applies to the old subscriber paying in advance as well as new ones.

Next Sunday is Easter. The steamer Chico is ready for sea today. North Bend was represented here Tuesday by J. H. Gay. F. E. Maxwell, of Seattle, was a Bandon caller this week. Mrs. A. M. Sumner returned yesterday from a visit to Marshfield. BORN.—At Bandon, April 18th, to Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Law, a daughter. Bandon is to have a resident dentist. Dr. J. C. Snook will move here this week. Mrs. W. A. Bingham has secured the school at Dairyville and will go there to teach next week. Miss Bertha Wells arrived here Tuesday from Eckley and will make Bandon her home for awhile. T. J. Perkins, of Parkersburg, was down yesterday to see his physician. Mr. Perkins is gradually improving. Denholm has the cheapest Millinery that ever came to Bandon. Come in and see it and you will be convinced. C. S. McCulloch came down last Monday from the county seat and on Tuesday surveyed the lot for the Odd Fellows building. W. H. Logan returned home Tuesday from attending a meeting of the Grand Lodge of United Workmen which met in Portland. Mrs. Swift started last week for Eastern Oregon on a visit to relatives. She was accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Nels Rasmussen. Frank J. Fahy took passage for San Francisco, on the steamer Elizabeth, where he will visit for a short time, combining business with pleasure. Alfred Machado and wife were passengers Monday morning on the steamer Wed-Jerburn, where Mr. Machado will take charge of the sea for R. D. Hume. The Latter Day Saints' Sunday School has prepared a short program for Easter Sunday, April 23rd. The exercises will commence at 11 o'clock, immediately after Sunday school. Thomas Praston left on the steamer Elizabeth, for San Francisco, where he will visit his wife who lives at that place. Rumor says that he will go to the Soldiers' Home at Santa Monica, from San Francisco. Hundreds of magnificent vases have been profusely scattered about the grounds of the Lewis and Clark Exposition. In these have been placed beautiful palms which will be in full bloom by opening day. The Woolen Mill is about completed, and the next thing necessary in the way of progress is wool to set the machinery in motion. All arrangements are about completed and the whir of the machinery and rattle of the looms will soon be heard. William Bingham has been at work making changes on the Nellie and Cressy, this week, preparatory to using her on the river for towing purposes. He has changed the wheel and arranged so that he can handle the wheel and the engine lever at the same time. Billy will be chief engineer and pilot also. J. M. Harrington, of Oregon City, accompanied by his brother Ed, gave his son B. N. Harrington and family, of this place, a visit, Monday, remaining until Wednesday morning, when they left for home. They were called to Catherine Creek on account of the sickness and death of their brother George who lived there. Last Friday witnessed the departure of another lot of eight men to fish for R. D. Hume on Rogue River. Those going on that occasion were: Ernest Boak, Roy Gibson, Dale Barrows, Harvey Morse, Moss Averill, Charles Swift and Myron Shannon, of Bandon, and Fred Holgren of Prosper. Clay Garonette took several of the boys down, returning home on Monday.

The steamer Elizabeth is due here again on next Monday. The Chico will be due again by Wednesday. William H. Button was up this week from the oilwell, and says that work is moving along nicely there. Assessor T. J. Thrift was in town Sunday and left next morning for the southern portion of the county to do some assessing. Bert Walker started in yesterday to do the scraping act on the tug Triumph, preparatory to applying the spring coat of paint. The sick folks are all convalescing again, Mrs. W. C. Sanderson being up and around again. Fred Goetz is out and around again. The whistle of the broom handle mill rings out cheerily again, it having been closed down for several days awaiting material. W. H. Schroeder, formerly of Arago, will open up a watch, clock and jewelry repair shop at Coquille. Mr. Schroeder took a course in repairing in a first class institution in Portland. The authorities at Washington look kindly upon the proposed change in Bandon mail schedule, but give out that the change will not take place till 1906. The Board of Commerce will make another effort to secure the change sooner. A. B. Prentiss, the dentist, finished his work here and left yesterday for Langlois, from which place he will go on to Port Orford. He expects to catch a steamer there and return by water to Marshfield when through with his work at that point. The enormous Ionic columns for the Oregon state building at the Lewis and Clark Exposition have been placed in position. The building now presents a very imposing appearance. Work upon all the other state structures is progressing with much rapidity. A number of the members of the Bandon Lodge, I. O. O. F., have been at work this week widening the street in front of the lot on which the Odd Fellows Hall will be built, preparatory to putting in the foundation. This work, and also the constructing of the foundation, will be done. MARRIED.—At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Pettit, in Bandon, Justice A. D. Morse officiating, Miss Anna Pettit to William V. Colvin of Hills Creek. The young couple are well and favorably known, and the Reverend joins their friends in extending congratulations.
