Denholm has still a few Ladies' and Children's Jackets on hand which will sell at greatly reduced prices.

Carl Danielson is now installed as "Mine Host" of the Tupper House, and will enter to the wants of the travelling public.

A card addressed to the Recorder from Springfield, Oregon, announced the arrival to Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Bryan, of that place, on May 14, 1905, of a daughter.

School Entertainment.

Public School will close here on Friday, and on Saturday evening there will be an Entertainment given, in Kime's Hall, to which the public is invited.

Teachers and pupils have labored hard to make this event a success, and an enjoyable evening awaits those who attend.

A small fee of 25 cents for adults, and 15 cents for youths will be charged at the door, the proceeds to be used to purchase books for the school library. Come out and enjoy this treat, lend your encouragement to teachers and scholars, and your aid to the library.

Just previous to the School Entertainment the Band will render its usual Saturday Evening Street Concert.

The Town Primary.

Quite a representative number of the citizens of Bandon met in Primary election Tuesday evening, and after choosing Geo. P. Topping as Chairman, and Arthur Kise as Secretary of the meeting, proceeded to nominate a ticket to be voted upon at the town election which takes place Monday, May 22, 1905.

For Recorder there was but one nomination made, A. D. Morse, the present incumbent, seemingly being satisfactory to all.

Ten names were placed on the ticket, as follows:

Elbert Dyer	B N Harrington
Ed Fisher	W F Disber
J H Shields	R E L Badillion
A Henry	J T Mars
Charles Kime	F A Mehl
J. W. Felter, J. N. Langlois and J. Denholm were also put in nomination but declined to stand. There being no further business the meeting adjourned.

Warning That is Timely.

But a few days ago the Portland Travelers' Aid Association of this city announced the preparation of a large number of leaflets and placards, to be distributed in the various centers of population, warning unskilled and unemployed young women against coming to Portland to seek positions simply because it is Exposition year. It is the purpose to set forth the fact that such field of labor will be greatly overcrowded. Such warning is timely, and the hope is that it will prove efficacious.

It is very natural that many young women should be attracted to an Exposition city, in the belief that remunerative employment is to be had merely for the asking. This is a mistaken notion, nevertheless; dangerously so, in fact, as that young woman may realize whose ambitious mission results in failure, and who finds herself without employment, means friends or protection in a city like Portland, with a great Exposition in full swing. The risks incident to such a step are not to be complacently contemplated by those of the gentler sex who are endowed with plenty of moral stamina and who have some knowledge of the world, while to the inexperienced, not so equipped, there is positive menace in the situation.

It would be well if the Portland Travelers' Aid Association called attention in its warning to the unfortunate fact that young women of the city who now have employment as clerks, stenographers and the like have cause to complain of the conditions which the cupidity of the landlord and boarding-house proprietor promises to impose. These latter, evidently believing that there is to be but one year in Portland, that the present year of the Exposition, and after that the deluge, have signified their intention of advancing room rent and the price of board until their working-girl patrons have come to regard the Fair as a detriment to their welfare. Many of these young women declare that after they pay the advanced price of living, they will have left from a week's wages, but a fraction of a dollar for clothing and incidental expenses.

These facts, if forcibly brought to the attention of young women who erroneously believe that during the approaching summer Portland will be a veritable industrial Mecca, should be beneficially discouraging. These are not pleasant facts even for Portland people to contemplate. It is indeed pitiable that any considerable class of persons should allow the mighty dollar to tread so closely upon the heel of their conscience, or perhaps more accurately, trample conscience under foot entirely. It is the condition, however, and not the ethical desire, that the wage-earning young woman of Portland, who does not live at home, has to face. The more clearly this condition is understood by her sisters abroad, infinitely better will it be for all concerned.—Portland Telegram.

Closed on Sundays.

W. F. Harris has taken charge of the El Dorado Tonsorial Parlors during the absence of P. B. Hoyt, who will apply himself to other business for awhile, and notice is hereby given that the shop will be closed on Sundays.

Remember and have your work done on Saturdays.
