LOCAL NEWS.

W. H. Marshall, of New Liskeard, has been in town on business.

M. C. Stocks, of Bandon South Beach, will be at his residence on the 27th.

Jim H. Langworthy and Clifford Cowen were in town last week.

Ralph Taylor returned home from Chicago, Ill., where he assisted his mother, Mrs. Sarah Taylor, move from the house on the river to a new home on S. 14th St.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Capella will return to their home on the coast at L. C. and Pinetree this week. No one has heard from Mr. Capella in several days.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Norden, of North Bend, will come to town on the 27th.

J. F. Capella, of L. C., who has been working in the L. C. store, will go up to Breese, Ill., County, to use the river steamboat to go up to New Orleans, La., and Col. B. F. W. Capella, and with Mrs. B. F. W. Capella and Mrs. E. P. Fentress, will go up to Eureka on the river steamboat.

Peter Boats, of Bandon, is not in town, is looking for a position. A tailor shop in Bandon in need of a supply of crust dress materials.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Fellows, of Bandon, are now a couple from Chicago, Ill., where Mr. Fellows is using the river steamboat to come to town.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Thorne, of Salem, Ore., were in town last week on business.

All the boys in the south are working on the farms for the summer months before going to school.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred and Capella will play at the Klondike Club.

W. T. P. Turner and his brother will take charge of the school in the north of Bandon on the 21st.

P. W. McConnaughy, of the bureau of ocean tides, will leave Bandon on the 21st to go to Seattle, where he will be in charge of the bureau of ocean tides for the summer season.