EDITORIAL.

The Old German Baptist Brethren, in conference assembled, declared the telephone an unholy thing and have prohibited its use among their brethren. The press dispatches have failed to give the reason for such declaration and it would be interesting to know just what their conclusion was based upon.

Uncle John Hash, with his wife, Aunt Mary Hash, of Newburg, Oreg., are the oldest couple so far to visit the Lewis and Clark Exposition. Uncle John is 79 years old, and his wife a year older. Uncle John came across the plains in 1850, going first to California, and then on to Oregon, but his wife did not come west until 1870. Uncle John said that he remembered going hunting on the present site of the Exposition.

Contrary to the impression which appears to be held by some persons in inland towns, the exhibits palaces at the Lewis and Clark Exposition are open free to the public. The fifty-cent admission fee includes admission to every building on the Exposition grounds, except, of course, the shows on the Trail. Toilet arrangements are also free. The exhibit buildings are open from eight in the morning until seven in the evening, except on Sunday, when the Exposition does not open until noon. The Trail attractions are closed on Sundays, but the exhibits may be viewed on that day as on other days.

Oregonian: Russia has already discovered two ways through which it may evade conclusion of a peace with Japan except on terms satisfactory to itself. The plenipotentiaries will not be plenipotentiaries, and Russia reserves the right to repudiate any engagement they may make. Second, the plenipotentiaries will withdraw if they do not like the outlook. Russian diplomacy looks forward to many further notable achievements. Meanwhile the Japanese seem ready and able to go ahead with the war.

Oregonian: The torpedo boat is coming back into popular favor as a result of the work of the Japanese with these diminutive but deadly craft. Germany has just ordered six of a new type in which the vital parts will be protected sufficiently to prevent their destruction by the small guns of the warships. This may be a saving in the number of boats needed, but the experience of the Japanese showed that there was but little difficulty in placing in easy range of the battleships a sufficient number of unprotected boats to accomplish all purposes for which a torpedo boat was built.

Mr. J. T. Barber, of Irwinville, Ga., always keeps a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy at hand ready for instant use. Attacks of Colic, Cholera Morbus and Diarrhoea come on so suddenly that there is no time to hunt a doctor or go to the store for medicine. Mr. Barber says: "I have tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy which is one of the best medicines I ever saw. I keep a bottle of it in my room as I have had several attacks of colic, and it has proved to be the best medicine I ever used." Sold by C. Y. Lowe, Druggist.

THE SHEEP-HERDER,
De Laney's new novel
An Oregon writer's Greatest Effort.

A story of the great range wars into which is interwoven the romantic episodes of acquiring timber lands, and the advancement of irrigation.
This production will appear in the Semi-Weekly Oregon Journal in serial form. The Journal will be entitled with the Sheep-herder the two for $2.25. Subscribe at once and read this great story of life as told by Paul De Laney.

School Report.
Following is given a summary of the school taught in District No. 62, Coos Co., Oreg., for the year ending June 15, 1905. No. pupils enrolled, 16; attendance 91 per cent; visitors Co. Supt. 1; directors 3; parents 12; others 19. Names appearing on the Roll of Honor: Joseph Haga, Cecil Ohman, Melvin Sneed, Josephine Sneed, Paloma Randleman.
M. L. R. EMMYNS, Teacher.

Found a Cure for Dyspepsia.
Mrs. S. Lindsay, of Fort William, Ontario, Canada, who has suffered quite a number of years from dyspepsia, and great pains in the stomach, was advised by her druggist to take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. She did so, and says: "I find that they have done me a great deal of good. I have never had any suffering since I began using them." If troubled with dyspepsia or indigestion, why not take these Tablets, get well and stay well? For sale by C. Y. Lowe, Druggist.

Centennial Notes.
The Marvellous Banns, a team of high-wire bicycle and trapeze performers, have been engaged to give two performances daily at the Lewis and Clark Exposition from June 12 to July 3. The performances will be given in the open air and will be free to all.

Myrtle Point Enterprise: D. B. Jones started last week to look for a new location, but after going as far as Medford, decided that Myrtle Point was the place for him, and returned to this place Sunday. Mr. Jones says that he did not realize that Coos County has such a fine climate, and that everything is green and growing until he got outside and saw everything dried up and nothing stirring. He says there is a great deal of talk about Coos County, and he predicts quite an immigration in here before the summer is over. Mr. Jones has traveled nearly all over the Pacific Coast, and he says that Coos County has the brightest prospects of any county he has seen.

Rev. J. E. Snyder arrived home Friday evening from Coos County, coming by ocean steamer to Portland. During his evangelistic work in Bandon, Marshfield, and in other places during the past month, he met with great success. He has now completed the work assigned him as synodical evangelist for the Presbyterian church and will enjoy a much needed rest of several weeks. It is with deep feelings of regret that the friends of Mr. Snyder and family learn that they will soon remove from Brownsville to Winona Lake, Indiana, to reside. From this point Mr. Snyder will be assigned to evangelistic work under the direction of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian church, his first work probably being in Texas.—Brownsville Times.

Cuban Diarrhoea.
U. S. soldiers who served in Cuba during the Spanish war, know what this disease is, and that ordinary remedies have little more effect than so much water. Cuban diarrhoea is almost as severe and dangerous as a mild attack of cholera. There is one remedy, however, that can always be depended upon as will be seen by the following certificate from Mrs. Minnie Jacobs, of Houston, Texas. "I hereby certify that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy cured my husband of a severe attack of Cuban diarrhoea which he brought home from Cuba. We had several doctors but they did him no good. One bottle of this remedy cured him, as our neighbors will testify. I thank God for so valuable a medicine." For sale by C. Y. Lowe, Druggist.

To New Yorkers.
Former residents of New York state now residing in Oregon, are requested to send their names and address to Maj. Algar M. Wheeler, 225 W. Park St., Portland, at once.
A list is now being prepared for publication showing the present and former residence of former New Yorkers.
Visitors to the Exposition from New York will be interested in it and many residents here will doubtless discover old friends and form new and personal acquaintances.
The New York society is doing a good work.

Sprained Ankle, Stiff Neck, Lame Shoulder.

These are three common ailments for which Chamberlain's Pain Balm is especially valuable. If promptly applied it will save you time, money and suffering when troubled with any one of these ailments. For sale by C. Y. Lowe, Druggist.

Home Circle Column
Crude Thoughts As They Fall From The Editorial Pen. Pleasant Evening Reveries. A Column Dedicated to Tired Mothers as They Join The Home Circle at Evening Tide.

Why stand ye here all the day idle? Matt 20:5
There is plenty to do in this world of ours, There are weeds to pluck from among the flowers:
There are fields to sow, there are fields to reap;
There are vineyards to set on the mountains steep;
There are roses to plant, and thistles to fell;
And homes to be reared on hillside and dell;
There are poor to be fed, there are children to teach,
And a message of love and of mercy to preach;
The fallen to lift, and self-pride to abase;
And every one fitted to stand in his place;
There are souls to be saved by land and by sea:
There's work in great plenty for you and for me.

Late hours are shadows from the grave.
"It is continued temperance which sustains the body for the longest period of time, and which most surely preserves it free from sickness," writes Humboldt; when asked the secret of his success. No employer will keep in his office a drunkard, a gambler, or a prodigal, for the very good reason that these vices not only debase the body, but also glut the mind with thoughts of which business has no part. Drink has become the curse of the world. Whole battalions of splendid young men who started in life with glowing hopes have been swept away by whiskey and ruin.

Our fathers and mothers need all the kindness and sympathy we can ever give them. It does not only make the children brighter, but the older heads, whose locks are white from the snows of many winters, are in sore need of kind words. Perhaps they have long ago laid all, or most all, of their loved ones to rest, and their burden seems greater than they can bear. How a word of sympathy and kindness helps them! There is enough of gloom in this world without adding more by unkind words and actions. Let us not so unheedingly permit opportunities for carrying sunshine into the lives of those we love pass by. A word of cheer to a struggling soul is worth more than all the roses we would scatter on their casket cover. A welcome, a smile, a cheery "well done," an affectionate look, will cause a rift to break in the clouds, and permit the sunshine of life to gladden the passing day of those we love. Let us try faithfully to throw the weight of affection about our loved ones who are fighting the stern battles of life. Let us scatter our love broadcast and pluck out all the thorns we can, and surely and certainly will our Father say, "Well done."

In the close relations of members of the same household, and the constant contact through long association, there is apt to be a lack of the friendly greetings and delicate attentions which are given to visitors and strangers in the household. Children are commonly not trained to sweet courtesies in their treatment of parents and one another.
Husband and wife do not preserve their first gracious care of each other. But thoughtful and loving little services sweeten home life and pour the oil of joy over daily experiences. When a husband or son is prompt and helpful in placing her chair to the table, what woman does not feel happier?
An act of courtesy entitles in its performer more appreciation and attachment. The spirit which prompts little attentions, and the habit which preserves them will banish hard feeling, sharp words and alienations that naturally and easily come in times of difference of judgment or conflict of interest.

A Bad Scare.
Some day you will get a bad scare, when you feel a pain in your bowels, and fear appendicitis. Safety lies in Dr. King's New Life Pills, a sure cure, for all bowel and stomach diseases, such as headache, biliousness, constipation, etc. Guaranteed at C. Y. Lowe's Drug Store. Only 25 cents. Try them.

A flock of swallows have taken up their habitation in the eaves of the United States Government building at the Lewis and Clark Fair, and all efforts to dislodge them have failed. The Government officials have decided to let the birds remain, and they are proving quite an attraction to the thousands who daily visit Uncle Sam's magnificent display.

No Secret About It.
It is no secret that for Cuts, Burns, Ulcers, Fever Sores, Sore Eyes, Boils, etc., nothing is so effective as Bucklen's Arnica Salve. "It didn't take long to cure a bad sore I had, and it is all O. K. for sore eyes," writes D. L. Gregory, of Hope, Texas. 25c at C. Y. Lowe's Drug Store.

The Westerner
To Uphold the Integrity of the West.

Those of our readers who believe that nothing is too good for the West, and that, as Westerners, we should conserve, and promote the best that lies within us, of art, romance and history, will be interested in the new Seattle Magazine, "The Westerner," the May number of which is now in the hands of its readers. "The Westerner," a magazine of and for the West—to go into the homes of the West, with stories, sketches and poems and articles by the very best writers that write—writers who live in the West and know of its possibilities—people whom you have met and know, and whose literary works are recognized by the public and the literary authorities of the country—these are some of the promises, which, judging by the May number, the publishers of "The Westerner" are already fulfilling.

The writers for the Magazine, and the promoters, are well known literary people. H. A. Stanley, Joseph Blethen, Herbert Bashford, Tevor Kincaid and a large number of other writers, equally prominent, offer the literary features.
Edgar L. Hampton, for ten years a Seattle newspaper man, is editor of "The Westerner," and Ella Higginson, the poet and novelist, is associate editor.

Wine of Cardui Cured Her.
213 South Prior Street, ATLANTA, GA., March 21, 1903.
I suffered for four months with extreme nervousness and lassitude. I had a sinking feeling in my stomach which no medicine seemed to relieve, and losing my appetite I became weak and lost my vitality. In three weeks I lost fourteen pounds of flesh and felt that I must find speedy relief to regain my health. Having heard Wine of Cardui praised by several of my friends, I sent for a bottle and was certainly very pleased with the results. Within three days my appetite returned and my stomach troubled me no more. I could digest my food without difficulty and the nervousness gradually diminished. Nature performed her functions without difficulty and I am once more a happy and well woman.
