POLLY LARKIN

Easter Customs

From time immemorial, Easter has been observed with due reverence by all and sundry. It is the usual custom to attend the special services on Easter morning, which are always attended by a large number of people. The services are followed by a feast, and the children are given Easter eggs and other presents. The custom of the Easter Bunny is also observed, and children are given chocolate bunnies and other eggs. The whole family enjoys the traditional Easter meal of eggs, hot cross buns, and other delicacies. The Easter holiday is a time of joy and happiness, and everyone looks forward to it with great anticipation. The customs and traditions associated with Easter are a symbol of hope and renewal, and they continue to be observed by people of all ages and backgrounds.
