BANDON, OREGON: THURSDAY, JULY 27, 1905

Number 30.

LOCAL NEWS.

Dr. H. L. Houston gave Coquille a visit last Thursday.

Howard M. Brownell, of Wedderburn, was doing business at Coquille and in this place during the past week.

Leon Cox, son of Glen B. Cox, has gone to Yaquna on a visit. He left Monday morning on the steamer Newport.

When you want a pleasant laxative that is easy to take and certain to do use Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. For sale by C. Y. Lowe, Druggist.

The Law and Order League met at Coquille last Friday, and retained Attorney S. B. Rutherford, of Portland, to look after the enforcement of the Local Option Law.

There will be a large excursion from Coquille to this place, next Saturday. The M. E. Church and Ladies' Band will picnic on the beach. The steamer Liberty will be used for this trip.

W. F. Harris, wife and daughter, who left here Monday morning on the Newport, for Portland, left the boat at Marshfield, and proceeded by way of Myrtle Point and Roseburg. They were very seasick going from here to the Bay.

Crescent City Record: The coast railroad survey crew has again moved nearer this place. For some time lines have been run in the Wilson Creek section, but a suitable grade to reach that creek was not found. Another line will probably be run from on Smith River and then up Mill creek. The country goes over very rough and steep, near Wilson creek, and the required grade could not very well be obtained.

Bandon had a small blaze last Thursday, just after noon, or near one o'clock, which, while it did no damage worth mentioning, might have proved a very serious affair.

The fire caught in the roof of the wood and wash house of the Tupper House, which stands west of the hotel, with but a narrow passage way between. It doubtless originated from a spark dropping in some moss on the roof, as the start was made some distance from a chimney.

The discovery was made before the blaze had made any particular headway, and being close to the Town Hall the fireman soon had a hose playing upon the fire which was extinguished in short order.

There was a very strong northwest wind blowing at that time, and had the fire had five minutes' start, there would not have been much of Bandon left, as there was trouble with the water system causing a shortage in the supply.

The wharf was found blazing between a couple of plants, a day or two before the hotel fire. Some person had probably thrown down a cigarette or cigar stub which had lodged in a crack and fanned into a blaze by the wind.

Steamboat Victories.

A number of the steamboat men and business men of this place met on the diamond Sunday morning to decide which were the more skillful in directing aerial bodies and the swiftest in perambulating the baseball grounds.

Frank Blackerby, as a scientific ball twirler was a wonder; invariably two out of three balls astonished the steamboat men as they never could guess where the ball was, but on the critical third the ball always got in the way of the bat and took a balloon route for the woods. Frank was there on sacrifice hits when he came to the bat, and if he did not advance a base man it was because there was none on the bases. However, there were exceptions to Frank's rule, as Tom Lewis and Joe Gigg are credited with making a record fair threshing with a ball bat.

Alex Snyder filled the pitcher's box for the steamboat men, and so surprised the opposing force that they are still wondering where his curves went to.

Hark Dunham was the star player. Hark is an all-around steamboat man, from deckhand up, which accounts for his superiority, and he was given first base. In piling up runs for his side he did his share, and being an engineer he fired the ball, turned on steam and the way he crossed the home plate would have astonished a purist.

As first baseman Hark was a model of politeness, always bowing low in his appreciative thankfulness, in fact, going clear down upon his knees when he caught the ball. He retired before the game closed on account of one of the members of his hand having collapsed with a bad sprain under a full load of steam, and during one of his flights.

This was emphatically the most amusing and romantic game of the season, and there were other celebrities, but we were unable to get a full account. One thing, very noticeable for a day or two after the game, was the salutes exchanged by the players, each, or nearly so, moving as if he had a doctor's certificate for senility.

The gate receipts were $21.25. Below we give the line-up and bill of fare.

Below we give the line-up and bill of fare.

There will be a large time at Dairyville on August 5th, at which we hope the W. O. W. will give a big gathering. The members of that camp are preparing for the event of the season, and will leave nothing undone that will add to the pleasure of their guests.

The Humboldt Standard says that Captain Coggeshall has purchased the schooner Bender Brothers to place on the Eureka-Crescent City run. The schooner is 84.87 gross and 80.36 net tons register, and will have installed in her a 100 H. P. Standard gasoline engine to operate twin-screws. She will probably be in readiness about August 15th next.

The steamer Bandon sailed for Portland last Monday morning, via Coos Bay and Yaquna. Following her passenger list: Mrs. Alice May and child, Mrs. M. E. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Harris and daughter, F. J. Blackerby, Misses Jennie and Crissie Denholm, and Misses Kyle and Winnie McNair. Leon Cox to Yaquna, and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Lee and D. R. Rice to Marshfield. There were two other passengers to Portland, whose names we could not learn.

Public Sale.

W. C. Sanderson will sell all his Household Goods, consisting of Bed Sets, Bed Springs, etc., Monday afternoon, August 7th, 1905, at 2 o'clock, on the premises.

Last of the League.

In the league game at this place, last Sunday, the Bandon team won out against the Coquille nine by a score of 10 to 5. This winds up the baseball for this season, as the league seems to have gone out of business.

Camp Meeting.

The Annual Reunion of the members of the Southwestern Oregon District of the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ, Latter Day Saints, will convene at Bandon Friday, Aug. 4th, and last ten days. District conference will be in session during Saturday and Sunday, Aug. 12th and 13th.
