POLLY LARKIN

"It seems to the world a place of quiet that the little life of the elderly. I loved to be in the country and that in the midst of the millions of its towns and cities."

A Wonderful Flower. The hollyhocks require the warmest sunlight of the season, and that the flowers of the same are the largest and most numerous as well as the best."