They usually insist, however, on celebrating their holidays, which lessens their real usefulness about 25 per cent. The holidays are numerous and afford the laborer many opportunities to quaff from the stupe fying pulque bowl. Their stock of surplus change is not apt to be excessive. It cannot be when most of them receive but little over 20 cents a day. Field hands in the states of Guanajuato, Michaocan and Queretaro receive a cuartillo of corn in addition to their wages of 12 cents a day. One haclendado who voluntarily raised the wages of his hands to 18 cents a day found imself without laborers for two days If the week. As the extra wages supdied living means for the entire week, what was the need of working?

These laborers are of all sizes and ages; but, whether young or old, all bear alike upon their brow the depressing and degrading leathern thong that makes of them beasts of burden.
