Senator Fulton introduced a bill in Congress for the establishment of a lighthouse at Cape Arago.

This man knows what he is talking about and is evidently no tenderfoot in the newspaper business.

The Alliance reached the bay about 11 a. m. Thursday. Some difficulty was experienced in crossing in over the bar.

A Berkeley, Cal. man offers to build a shoe factory in Marshfield provided the citizens of that town will donate a lot 150x150.

Increased population, railroads and deeper harbors in Coos County will increase the demand for all farm and ranch products.

They are Coming Father Abraham.

Several eastern newspapers are indulging in much speculation with reference to the enormous activity now being displayed in railroad building in the Pacific northwest.

Elsewhere they talk glibly about states that are empires but here in Oregon they find a demonstration of it.

The immigration tendency toward the Pacific northwest is at last definitely defined. To many people the region has come with the force of an original discovery.

CALL AND SEE US

Myrtle Point.

Been near this city, Nov. 25, 1905, to Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Cox, twin boys.

Wind ducks are more numerous on Coos Bay this year than they have been for some time.

There is some activity being shown by the different candidates for state and county offices, but it will be the first of the year before they get down to hard work.

Will Klunquist and Clarence Fish were arrested Tuesday, charged with "disturbing the quiet and peace" of the city by driving a wild and vicious steer through the main street.
