The Simpson Lumber Co. sold their mill at Gray's Harbor for $600,000.

C. Timmons, proprietor of the cannery, is in town this week looking after business interests.

Mrs. Thos. Anderson and daughter have been visiting her father and sister at Riverton this week.

The Simpson Lumber Co. lost 12,000,000 feet of lumber in the San Francisco fire, worth about $250,000.

O. A. Trowbridge received some new floor show cases on the Elizabeth which improve the looks of the store very much.

Chris Jorgensen had two fingers caught in the saw at the Parkersburg mill and lacerated to such an extent that amputation was necessary.

J. E. and Gus Gross arrived here from Cottage Grove last week and will engage in business. They drove through with a horse and buggy.

The county road grader has been used in repairing the road south of town. About three miles of the road south of Rosa's mill has been put in good condition. The grader will be used on Main street in a few days.

W. H. Cary, 2nd assistant at the Umpqua lighthouse, has been promoted to the position of assistant keeper at the Coquille lighthouse and arrived here last week to assume his new duties.

James Richardson, of Parkersburg, was in the Winchester hotel in San Francisco during the recent great earthquake. The shock did not waken him and he slept on in blissful ignorance of the great disaster until awakened by the excited populace. He arrived here yesterday.—Sentinel.

One of our handsome young widows was asked why she did not get married. She replied: 'I'm just as good as married now. I've got a parrot and he does the swearing; I've got a hog that does the grunting; I've got a tom cat and he stays out all night. If that is not as good as the average husband, I'll quit.'

The W. R. Haines Music Co., Marshfield, will refund all expense of transportation, including a days' stop at Marshfield, to anyone purchasing a piano, coming from the following places or tributary thereto: Langlois, Bandon, Coquille and Myrtle Point. We carry piano players, pipe and reed organs, talking machines and a full line of sheet music and musical merchandise, also Domestic sewing machines. Easy payments.

F. D. Brown and his gang of surveyors came in from Gardiner and reported that orders had been received from Chief Engineer Hood of San Francisco that the great fire had destroyed a portion of the plats and field notes, and that it is necessary to retrace the line for a distance of about 25 miles—from Drain to Paradise creek. This the surveyors have started to do today, and it may result in delaying the work of construction a couple of weeks or longer. But it is safe to conclude that grading will be commenced here next month.—Drain Nonpareil.

The Bandon Recorder is to be congratulated upon coming out in all home print. Its own make may not be quite so classical as some of the stale plate matter formerly used on the patent inside, but it is a good deal more profitable to the community. As a further evidence of the prosperity of the town the post-office receipts for the first quarter of this year increased thirty per cent over the corresponding period for 1905. Bandon beach is one of the great resorts that will make Coos county celebrated and the place has a permanent future.—Coos Bay Harbor.

Card of Thanks.
 We wish to thank the G. A. R. of Myrtle Point and Bandon, the W. R. C. of Bandon and the many friends for their kindness and aid during the long illness and death of our beloved husband and father,
 Mrs. Susie M. Leggett and children.

Court House Items.

Circuit Court has been in session this week and the town has been graced by the presence of Judge Harris, the legal lights of Coos county, and many farmers and other citizens from all parts of the county. It has been an unusually long term of court.

The two cases of the city of Myrtle Point against James Endicott and Clarence Fish, appealed from the recorder's court, were dismissed on account of defective complaints not giving the court jurisdiction.

John Negithon, accused of running deer with dogs and convicted in Justice's court, was found not guilty by the jury.

The grand jury consists of C. R. Gabaler, foreman, J. D. Hayes, Peter Loggie, H. W. Holverstott, John Catching, Wm. Saunders, R. P. Haut. They had a lengthy session and investigated some serious matters.

The dog question seems to be of considerable importance if we may judge by the proceedings of this term of court. S. C. Rogers brought an action against Hiram Granby to recover the value of two bound dogs which it was alleged that Granby shot. The jury found a verdict of $98 for the plaintiff.

This has been the longest term of circuit court held in this county for sometime. A larger number of jury trials, both criminal and civil, has been the cause.

In the case of the state vs. P. G. Peterson, in which the defendant was accused of pointing a revolver at John Eklund and divers other persons, the jury brought in a verdict of not guilty.

There is a noticeable scarcity of divorce cases this term, especially of the sensational character.

In the case of State vs. F. E. Willard, the grand jury brought in not a true bill.

Judge Sehlbrede returned Tuesday from a business trip to Portland, and arrived at this place Wednesday to attend court.

The case of Blumenrother vs. Bethel for damages caused by fire to fences, timber, and pasture lands, was tried by a jury Tuesday and Wednesday, and the jury returned a verdict for the defendant.

H. P. Brogdon and Paris Ward were each granted a divorce from their wives, Tuesday. Mr. Ward on the grounds of desertion, and Mr. Brogdon on statutory grounds.—Sentinel.

From Santa Rosa.

J. W. Field received the following letter from an aunt, Mrs. Sam Blackman:

April 23, 1906.
 All the brick and large buildings are down and burned up, and all the main part of town is in ruins. About 500 people killed and wounded. Still finding bodies among the ruins all the time. I thought our time had come; the children and I were alone. Everything upstairs was thrown and broken; the children were thrown out of bed; I got them all out in time to see a large warehouse go down in front of our door. There were only a few dwellings that fell; all chimneys are down. Other towns are sending food so we do not suffer from hunger. Everybody, little and big, are at work clearing away the debris. The only hotel that is left, is the Magnolia, and one or two little stores out away from town in the suburbs. The town will soon build up again as so many say that they have to. No one in the country was hurt and no damage done that I have heard of.

Stm. Buckman in Terrific Sea off Cape Blanco.

Sau Francisco, April 25. —The steamer Buckman arrived here late last night with volunteer physicians, Red Cross nurses and a cargo of 2200 tons of provisions and supplies.

The vessel etc. entered a terrific sea off Cape Blanco, which crew and passengers believe was caused by subterranean eruptions, which for a time threatened to engulf the ship. The Buckman was sent to Sau Francisco by the Chamber of Commerce of Tacoma.

On the way down from Tacoma the crew and passengers baked several thousand loaves of bread so that it would be ready for immediate distribution upon arrival here.

Off Cape Blanco yesterday the steamer ran into dirty weather and high seas. Off to the west passengers and crew saw a great wall like a huge tide, of seething, boiling water, running mountain high, approach at great speed.

It struck the ship with terrific force, smashed two of the boats as if they were mere eggshells, and tons of water rolled over the decks of the steamer, which quivered from stem to stern, and threatened every moment to founder it.

Captain Wood, his first officer, and the chief engineer, were swept from their feet. It was little short of a miracle that they were not washed overboard.

The wall of water had all the appearance of a huge tidal wave, and the seas continued running high until late in the afternoon.

Captain Wood and the passengers are of the opinion that it was caused by some disturbance under the sea.

Oregon Lumber Will be Needed.

Lumbermen and owners of timber lands in the Northwest look for a sharp advance in prices in both lumber and logs as a result of the destruction of cities and towns in California. These places will all have to be rebuilt, and the available lumber in the country is in Oregon and Washington.

"Of course steel will enter largely into the new structures," one timberland owner said, "but lumber must be used for floors and ceilings, as well as for docks, sidewalks, fences, etc. The San Francisco demand alone will reach millions of feet monthly as soon as things get going again, and the mills of the Northwest will be incapable of supplying it. Such large lumber companies as the Weyerhaeusers and the Booth-Kelly Co. will have to add largely to their present mill capacity, and the lumber industry alone will employ thousands of men where now they employ hundreds."—Telegram.
