ODDS AND ENDS.

A Column of Miscellaneous Topics Clipped From Exchanges.

High society custom don't go at Macon, Ga. A woman has been arrested down there for wearing a décolleté gown on the street.

It is said that four-fifths of the Japanese boys are studying English. Over here English seems to be a thing that is no longer considered worth studying.

Some of those young San Francisco people who married in a hurry last week, may discover after a while, that there are worse things than earthquakes.

A Birmingham, Ala., negro has just been paid $100,000 for a car couplet of his invention, and can in future afford to buy his chickens instead of depending for their acquirement upon the dark of the moon.

Every man has a right to think for himself, work for his own interest and do a number of similar selfish things, but after all the things that give the most pleasure when looking backward is the good we have done others.

A full-grown whale will yield about 1,500 pounds of bone, and as the whalebone sells for $14,000 a ton, a whale of that kind brings in bone worth about $10,500. In addition to this the oil of the whale is valuable, so that a single whale may yield $20,000.

Work is a great blessing. You can not see now, but some day you will say that you were fortunate in your boyhood days because you were compelled to work. Because you cannot get power to do things save by doing them. Look over the successful men you know. Get their history. Nearly everyone was compelled to work in boyhood. They toughened their muscles by hard work and sharpened their brains by looking out for themselves.

We will act wisely if we make the best of things as they come to us. There are certain ones in this town who are always putting up a "holer" about hard times. They never see anything to be thankful for or to feel jolly about. They know that the spring is so backward that the crops will be a failure this year. There is always something disastrous going to happen. The worst is to be expected and nothing else will do them. They never look on the bright side and always find the dark places. It is just as well not to be too critical or captious and find something to commend instead of so much to condemn.

HEAVEN FOR THE OLD MAIDS.
 Is there "no room in heaven for an old maid," as a prominent minister has declared?
 Coming with the seriousness and solemnity of a pulpit utterance, the assertion which might serve as a passable, though ancient joke, becomes grotesque.
 Marriage is broadening in its tendencies and in its effects disciplining; but can it entirely reform or change the nature of either man or woman?
 Women certainly do not always stay single from choice. Singleness is not always a deliberate sin.
 As society is at present, the meetings which result in marriage, are purely accidental, and if the right man does not present himself, is a woman to be blamed for not taking one of whom she does not approve and for whom she does not care?
 When we speak slightly of the "old maid" we allude not so much to the fact that she has passed her youth without marrying as to the characteristics of the narrow life, such as timidity, coldness, loquaciousness or finickiness which prevent comradeship. But these characteristics also apply to many men and to many married women.
 By nature woman is much better than man. Angels are likened to her, that heaven may be brought down to the level of man's comprehension.
 Thousands of old maids who, through devotion to parents, sacrifice for others or application to work, have permitted opportunities for marriage to pass them by, are of spotless souls, whose unselfish lives bring much of heaven down to earth.
 Only the wings are lacking to carry them to Paradise. The preacher who would shut them out of heaven knows little about what heaven is for.

COQUILLE NEWS NOTES
Leander, Our Correspondent Tells of the Week's Incidents at the Hub.
 The weather clerk still continues to administer rain in copious showers notwithstanding the fact that we have entered an earnest protest. There is no tide water in the river, which is an unusual occurrence for this time of the year, and is detrimental for the loggers and mill men depending on the tide to bring their logs up. Also the farmers' hay is nearing maturity, and the old adage, no sunshine, no hay.
 The shingle mill is nearing completion; the building is erected and the masons are putting a brick foundation under the boiler.
 The Cunningham Creek R. R. is progressing as rapidly as could be expected owing to the inclemency of the weather.
 Cody's engine on the Lampa Creek R. R., which was disabled some time ago by breaking a cylinder head, has had a new one cast at North Bend, and will resume operations this week. This has been a serious set back to Mr. Cody, who, for untiring energy and enterprise, has no peer in Coos county.
 Capt. Edwards, an old pioneer and former pilot on this river, but at the present time located on the Bay, was over last week visiting his old haunts and renewing old acquaintances. Charley is an old land mark and all are pleased to greet his genial countenance again.
 We are now in the aftermath of the election; the smoke of battle has cleared away and we are regaining our usual equilibrium and pursuing our usual vocations; let by gones be by gones; if things did not go our way we gracefully submit to the inevitable and willingly put our shoulder to the wheel to assist in the future.
 The newly elected City Council was sworn in last Thursday evening and that august body of financiers assumed the control of this great city; a responsible and exalted position; a depleted treasury and everybody clamoring for improvement; the city gone dry, and if enforced $500 to be refunded and nothing to refund it with; only one ultimatum, discharge all salaried officers, put out the lights, plant the streets in potatoes, and disband the Council. It reminds me of the noted evangelist who fervently prayed in his hour of need: "Oh, Lord, what shall we do?" We want it a little more dry on our backs, but not so much for the inner man." So when you Bandonians, who are more fortunate than us, come this way, bring something to stimulate our languishing spirits. We are willing to contribute our revenue to you and will tax ourselves to rebuild our sidewalks and streets for you to travel on. We are willing to admit the deplorable condition that confronts us, but are rather enthusiastic over the Equal Suffrage question. We do not wish to ratify or celebrate our victory, but our bashfulness and timidity has disappeared; convey to your fair correspondent of Prosper our best wishes, and congratulate her on her efforts in the lost cause, not defeated, but set back, and still retain the admiration and respect of the opposite sex, but relegated to the sphere ordained for you. Henceforth, if perchance in the future we should meet, will doff our hat as of yore and confer all courtesies known in the calendar of etiquette.
 R. H. Mast and Peter Nelson started Monday morning on the stage for Roseburg, en route to Portland, as delegates to the Grand Lodge of A. F. & A. M., which convenes the 14th. When the boys boarded the mud schooner there was an incessant downpour of rain, and they were emphatic in their expressions that it would go dry.

Bandon Will Celebrate.

Make arrangements to celebrate July 4th at Bandon-by-the-Sea. A great program is being prepared and will soon be published. The wild waves will be on their good behavior, and you will not know what they are saying unless you come. There will be good speaking, good music, plenty of amusement. You will get your money's worth—and then some. Will you come?

The price of oil has gone up two or three cents. John D. left a few days ago for a tour of Europe.

President Roosevelt has recommended the appointment of a commission to investigate the woman in business. The investigators will probably find the woman doing so well that they will want to go in business with them.

Since the woman suffragists who were defeated in this state on Monday announce that they will renew their campaign at once for another vote on the question two years hence, we would suggest that since the men of the state are so ungallant as to deny them the right to vote, that the women be empowered to vote on the question themselves, as to whether they really desire the ballot.—Roseburg Review.
