this special show.

Gasoline Schooner Wrecked at Eureka.

The gasoline schooner Corinthian, with a crew of nine men, while attempting to go to sea in a heavy gale grounded on the beach north of Humboldt bar. Two of the crew were drowned and two men were injured while assisting in the rescue.

With the breakers were going over the wrecked vessel, the work of rescue was most hazardous. The life saving crew worked all night, and at four in the morning the last man, Captain Atwater was taken ashore, after having clung to the rigging all night with the breakers pouring over him.

Ole Carlson, a sailor, and Andrew McCarty, a Berkeley student, who had been shanghaied and placed aboard the steamer North Fork, lost their lives in the surf in an attempt at rescue. McCarty shipped as a common seaman in order to reach home. A longshoreman and another helper were struck by floating lumber while aiding in the rescue, and their legs were broken. The vessel is upon the beach, and unless floated at high tide she will go to pieces within a few hours.

The four-masted schooner Voluntar, bound from S. F. to Coos Bay, struck a rock near Bodega, Cal., about 75 yards from shore, and was lost. She was in command of Capt. Bressemer, who had his family on board. T. T. Golden of North Bend was also a passenger. Heavy seas swept over the vessel but residents along the coast got a line to her and all on board were saved except two of the captain's children who were drowned by the upsetting of the ship's boat in the surf while making a landing on the beach. Mrs. Bressemer is a sister of Sig. Hansen, of Marshfield.

Gasoline launches engaged in passenger carrying trade, of 15 tons gross register or less, will have to be operated under Government regulations in the near future, very much in the same manner as the larger craft.

Presbyterian Church.
Children's Day Exercises will be held in the morning at 10:30. These exercises are conducted by the Sunday School, and parents especially invited to be present. All are welcome. Christian Endeavor at 7 p. m. Preaching in the evening at 8. Evening subject: "A Little Child Shall Lead Them."

The Growing Town of Coos County

The Manufacturing Town.

The Coming Summer Resort of the Oregon Coast.

Bandon is growing faster than any town in Oregon.

Its advancement is real, not on paper.

Manufacturing plants all running and several more big industries coming.

Shipped more lumber since Jan. 1st than any port in Oregon except the Columbia.

The Coquille valley is the garden spot of the Coast country and we have the timber and coal industries

FROM BUSY PROSPER

All the News of a Week's Happenings Told in a Brief Manner.

Mrs. J. Mattson, of this place, departed for Marshfield, Wednesday where she spent several days visiting relatives and friends.

Roy S. Wagner, representing Woodward, Clarke & Co., wholesale druggists of Portland, was taking orders at this place last week.

The gasoline boat Buffalo, having undergone a thorough overhauling, is as staunch as ever, and was put into commission last Friday.

D. Perkins, of late master of the stmr. Antelope, was at this place Friday, preparing wood for his boat.

Miss Bessie Martin visited friends at Bandon a few days last week.

Messames Heuckendorff and Peterson and Olga Peterson were Bandon shoppers from this place last Thursday.

Mr. Foster of Empire City, having the agency for an Eastern notion house, was soliciting orders at this place last week.

Mrs. F. S. Carman, of New Aberdeen, was a passenger to Marshfield Wednesday morning. She spent several days visiting friends at that place.

W. Prager, a Portland traveling man was a business caller at this place last week.

J. Hollenbeck, logger from the North Fork, was among the arrivals at Prosper last week.

Last Saturday morning Wm. Hicking was somewhat perplexed at the disappearance of his gasoline launch, which had parted its moorings, and made its escape sometime during the night. Though for several hours no trace of its whereabouts could be found, he fortunately discovered that the incoming tide had carried it up the river near Randolph, where it was found stranded on the sand flat.

Ed. Kenville, who has been employed in Howell's camp for the past few weeks, is now holding a position in the mill at this place.

Miss Nellie Hayden, of Marshfield, was the guest of Mrs. J. Hicking the latter part of last week.

W. A. Neal, one of Myrtle Point's prosperous logging men, was a business visitor here the first of the week.

We are pleased to note that our old esteemed friend, J. K. Scott makes us a brief call occasionally.

J. Moore was a Bandon visitor from Randolph, last Saturday.

J. Donaldson, clerk in the Prosper store, has been on the sick list for several days. He went to Bandon Monday and is being treated for neuralgia—"He has it in the neck."

F. J. Faby, cashier in the Bandon Bank, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Faby, of this place.

Wm. Howell, has closed his camp indefinitely. He is negotiating the disposal of his logging interests here, and is contemplating a trip to Central America, where he has been offered a good position, logging mahogany, and a salary of $350 per month.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Walstrom, of Bandon, came up on a pleasure trip last Sunday.

Mrs. J. Conrad went to Bandon last Saturday evening to meet Mrs. McAllister and Mr. and Mrs. Wananaker, relatives from Woodland, Cal., whom she has not seen for several years. They have come to Coos with a view of locating in this locality.

Mrs. W. Thomas, who has been cooking at Howell's camp, has been offered a position in the Yorkam camp, near Coquille, and expects to move to that place in a few weeks.

Miss Lamont, compositor for the Recorder, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. Hicking, at this place, Sunday.

J. Pederson, has his gasoline boat under repair, the shaft was found defective and a new one is needed before he will be able to use the boat.

The wharves at the Aberdeen mill are blocked with lumber and owing to the strike in S. F. shipping facilities look doubtful.

T. Waters, a traveling optician, who is touring the county drumming trade in that line, was doing Prosper last Thursday.

Some little dissatisfaction was manifested among the ship yard crew a few days ago, over the delay in the payment of their wages, which was due to the unsettled condition in S. F., but they were soon put at ease and received pay, not in full.

Wm. Crow and wife came up from Bandon Sunday any spent the day with J. C. Taylor and family.

W. Pedlar who for the past three years has been connected with the Carman & Crites mill, and has held the position as bookkeeper for the company, expects to depart soon for the East, where he goes to look after property interests, and on a visit to his old home. J. Nielson will succeed him as bookkeeper.

Edw. Fish, bookkeeper for the Prosper Mill Co. was a North Bend visitor the first of the week. He went in quest of an edgerman.

A. T. Fetter, editor of the Recorder, spent Sunday in Prosper, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. Pershaker and family.

Roy VanAuken of Aberdeen, and G. Cox of Randolph are numbered among the unfortunates this week—the former with a bruised knee and the latter a crushed foot, both having sustained their injuries by falling lumber.

E. M. Randleman is endeavoring to purchase the property on Bear creek formerly owned by J. Moore. It contains a body of timber and good cattle range.

Glen Cox of Randolph informs us that the saw mill back of that place has ceased operation until the stormy weather has abated so as to have dry roads to enable them to haul the lumber to the river. They have been greatly hampered by the recent steady rains.

Geo. Goodman, came down from Coquille

City Tuesday to visit his brother C. Goodman at this place. This is his first visit to Prosper for nearly two years, having just recently returned from San Francisco.

Mr. Hicking, manager of the Prosper Mill Co., received late communications from Sudden & Christenson, of San Francisco, but is given no information regarding the shipping conditions or strike at that place. Due to the increasing demand for lumber, they have ordered all merchantable lumber, odds and ends, to be shipped.

Mrs. Deveraux, of Bear Creek, accompanied by two Sisters of Mercy from the North Bend hospital were here Tuesday to secure contributors for the institution at that place.

Parkersburg.

Mrs. Thos. Deveraux, accompanied by two sisters of mercy (who are soliciting aid for the hospital at North Bend) visited our town Tuesday.

Mrs. Thurman and daughter, Miss Kate are visiting Mrs. Thurman's daughter, Mrs. Piper. Miss Kate visited Mrs. Randleman Sunday. The sunlight had a peculiarly brilliant hue as the Dispatch neared the Randleman landing. White roses have occupied conspicuous places lately. Come boys be gallant and bring on the short-order meal tickets promptly.

Mrs. Rose and Mrs. Jergerson drove to Bandon last week and report the roads to be almost impassable.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Dibble visited Mrs. Dibble's cousin Mrs. Chas. Randleman last week.

The launch Waupooia took a run to Bandon Monday evening with Parker captain and Carlson cook.

Miss Ellen Devereux is expected home from Salem next week, where she has been attending school for the past year.

Miss Mintie Doak of Randolph, visited her sister, Mrs. Drew of this place Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dibble of San Francisco were guests of Mrs. J. T. Kronenberg last week. Mrs. Dibble was formerly Miss Georgia Lewis of this place. Her old friends were glad to welcome her back.

Miss Mamie Rose visited Riverton Sunday.

Miss Robah Lewis was the guest of Mrs. Baekensto, of the Myrtles last Sunday.

Mr. Kronenberg starts for Portland Wednesday, to be present at the Commencement exercises at Hill's Military Academy, where his son Harry has been a student for the past year.

Miss Theresa Manciet of Bandon is a guest at the Rookery.

Last Sunday Capt. Jack of the Waupooia took Mr. and Mrs. Kronenberg and Mrs. Haines, to Walstrom's where an enjoyable afternoon was passed.

LITTLE ONE.

Myrtle Point.

Forty-seven years ago last Friday, June 1, a colony of sixty pioneers arrived at Myrtle Point to make this their home. They were not the first, as several had preceded them to this land of promise. However they found things sufficiently new and virgin to entitle them to all the rights of pioneers. The colony first located five miles south of town at the Ben Schull place, from where they spread out in different directions. Among those who survive of that band are Mrs. Abram Hoffman, Mr. Beckwood formerly of Enchanted Prairie, Wm. Volkmar, Congressman Binger Hermann, M. T. Hermann, and Mrs. Laird, of the younger generation are Mrs. Nellie Bender and Charles and August Schroeder. The first settler is said to have been Jake Summers, hero of the Indian war at Battle Rock. He is now 94 years of age. Russell P. Dement, Calvin Gant of Rural and the Lenberrers were here. The first man of the colony to be buried was Gustave Wilde who was accidentally shot by himself while looking for a homestead location across the Coquille where the wagon road now spans the stream west of town. The accident occurred a week after the arrival of the colony.

Mrs. E. E. Carter is home from a visit with friends at Bandon and Coquille.

The Women of Woodcraft will unveil the monument erected to the memory of Mrs. Ruth Lewellen next Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The ceremony was to have been held last Sunday, but was postponed because of the stormy weather.

Carl Albrecht is over from the bay circulating a petition for the North Bend Chamber of Commerce and the Willamette Valley Development League asking Congress for a 40 foot bar. He has not yet had the refusal of a signature.

Capt. S. B. Ormsby of Portland, who was to have given the Memorial day address here, was in the city Wednesday from the Sixes, where he is mining with his son. He was prevented from meeting his engagement with his comrades by reason of the high water in the Sixes which was an unfordable raging torrent. Sunday he was out on Rusty Butte and said that the wind was blowing and it was snowing so that his horse had great difficulty in keeping the trail. Capt. Ormsby says they have penetrated their mining property thirty-five feet with a tunnel.—Enterprise.

A registered letter addressed to John H. Crabtree, banker, St. Louis, is returned by the postoffice department with the information that the gentleman is unknown. Mr. Crabtree is the man who is supposed to be spending twenty eight million dollars building the Oregon Coast & Eastern railroad. Those who have read his Memorial day address at Bandon have discovered that Father Donnelly is quite an orator, if they were not already aware of the fact.—Harbor.
