

BANDON

The Growing
Town

of
Coos County

The Manufacturing
Town.

The Coming Summer
Resort of the Oregon Coast.

Bandon is growing faster than any town in Oregon.

Its advancement is real, not on paper.

Manufacturing plants all running and several more big industries coming.

Shipped more lumber since Jan.
1st than any port in Oregon except the Columbia.

The Coquille valley is the garden spot of the Coast country and we have the timber and coal industries

Fine openings for workers and hustlers, but grafters and hot-air artists are not wanted.

FROM BUSY PROSPER

All the News of a Week's Happenings Told in a Brief Manner.

Misfortune befell Wm. Hicking last week, while working in the mill and resulted in a badly injured hand. He had been operating the edger for several days and on Thursday, while running a cant through the machine, he attempted to free a splinter which had caught in the saw, and while thus engaged, the cant had run its length and the roller dropped upon his hand, crushing it and forcing it to the saw, where the thumb was badly mangled, and the bone from the first joint torn away. Unaccountably, yet a lucky occurrence, the roller in some manner rebounded affording an opportunity to extricate his arm from the heavy roller, otherwise a serious accident would have resulted. Amputation of the lacerated member was at first thought to be necessary, but under the care of Dr. Houston, the wound is improving nicely.

J. C. Taylor and wife were at Bandon having dental work done last Wednesday.

Henry Herman, of Randolph, has disposed of his logging team of horses to a party in Bandon, for a consideration of $400.

R. W. Bullard, of Bullards has his new gasoline boat, the Wamdeeska, about completed. The trial trip was made last Friday—it proves to be a speedy little craft and will add to our lower river fleet. He sold his old gasoline boat to Mr. Price of River-ton, and will be used on the up-river.

A. Machado and wife have returned from Myrtle Point, where they had gone several weeks ago, to reside with Mr. Machado's brother.

Mrs. J. Hamblock sr., informs us that her brother Chris. Long has gone East. He will visit Mr. and Mrs. Alanson Steward, the latter a cousin, at Owen, Ill., also expects to visit Mr. and Mrs. Wood, (nee Rose Long) of Milwaukee, Wis. He will return in July.

J. F. Thomson and E. Aiken, who departed several weeks ago for Merlin, have returned and now occupy positions in the mill. They still have a longing for "Coos."

J. Laekstrom and J. Hill were passengers to Marshfield last week. The latter who was engineer in the shipyard, has given up the position.

John Whoberry, representing A. Helming & Co., of Marshfield, was at Bullards last Wednesday, buying wool and hides. He had been down the coast as far as Crescent City.

Mesdames W. Hicking and F. Gribi, were Coquille City visitors last Thursday.

R. J. Hepburn, traveling for the Reese, Waterproof Mfg. Co., of Fruitvale, Cal., was a caller here last week.

Mrs. Howard, organizer of The Royal Neighbors of America, an auxiliary to the Modern Woodmen lodge, who is founding a lodge in Bandon, was enlisting members at this place Thursday.

J. Coach accompanied by Mr. Hutchison, from Coos Bay, were here last week negotiating the purchase of a timber tract situated above Coquille.

J. C. Lyons of Bandon, is making arrangements to lease a coal mine at River-ton. He has several parties on the river interested, and has gone to San Francisco, where the final proceedings will be made.

J. Danielson, from Bandon, was a business caller here the 14th.

Messrs. Shelly, representing a Portland grocery house, and C. Daley, of the Willamette Logging Engine Co., were soliciting orders here last week.

J. Perrott, constable at Coquille, was at Bullards on a legal mission Friday.

In a recent letter from Mr. Zeek, at Bandon, we note that several blacksand prospectors have been investigating the mineral products of this section. He had forwarded to him, for their examination, a sample of the sand which was mined back of Randolph.

V. Perry of Coquille, spent Sunday in Prosper. He expects to depart the 27th, for East Clallam, Wash., where he goes with the intention of remaining with his daughter, Mrs. Morris.

Mrs. Mattson, Mr. and Mrs. Bjorquist and Edna Mattson went to Marshfield, Saturday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Mattson's mother, Mrs. Storey, who passed away at that place after a short illness.

F. Hilgren, was a Bandon passenger on the steamer Favorite last Friday.

Fred Mosher, a Myrtle Point logger, came down to this place Saturday, having business matters which called his attention here.

Capt. J. Felsner came down from Myrtle Point Friday, to look at the new vessel under construction at this place. He has been up from San Francisco about a month and since his arrival has been residing on his farm near Myrtle Point. He being formerly in the employ of Sudden & Christenson, of San Francisco, has been assigned commander of the new vessel and will take her to the city when the boat is launched.

"Leander" says of the women, "Not defeated but set back." We are only waiting two years hence when we, having been compared with a talking machine running 24 hours without stopping, shall have, perhaps by hook or crook, an opportunity to listen, to the strains of "The New Woman March," echoing forth from, a similar reminder, a whistling machine running eternally.

N. A. Pederson, is in receipt of a letter from Sam Nass, of Astoria, in which he mentions the death of Charles Anderson, who died at that place, a few days prior, of erysipelas, after an illness of several months. He was well known on the lower river, having been watchman in the Prosper cannery for the last two seasons.

A. T. Fetter, editor of the Recorder, made the Prosper Mill Co., a business call the first of the week.

Chas. and Harry Taylor, who a few months past departed for their home at Looking-glass, have returned to this place, and will accept positions in the mill. They say there is no place like Prosper.

Mr. Kistner, of Coquille City a real estate man, was here Friday, looking after business interests.

Bob Fredericks was up from Bandon the 19th, having dealings which called him here.

Walter Scott, of Simonds Saw Co., was here Tuesday, soliciting orders for mill supplies, etc.

Parkersburg.

Miss Mamie Rose was the guest of Miss Grace Hoyt of Bandon last week.

Mrs. J. L. Kronenberg visited the Myrtles Thursday.

W. C. Bradley made Parkersburg a short business call last week.

It to be hoped we will receive no more visits from la grippe. We should be able to dethrone him, since there were only 13 immense doctor-books left among us by the traveling doctors who were here last week. Henceforth consult the big book and you will be healthy, wealthy and wise. Thirteen! a number to conjure with, and one the superstitious pay dread courtship to; therefore by all means let us dethrone his majesty, La Grippe. But has it not occurred to us that health truly brings wealth of happiness, and happiness contentment? It is said that the latter state is one of great gain. Well this is surely playing the game with wisdom.

Miss Sadie Fahy spent Sunday at her home, Fahyville.

The moon-tides and weather being favorable, the launch Wau-pooia took Messrs. Carlson, Parker, Oakes, Morrison and Haines to Bandon Saturday night.

Capt. Sutherland, who has been on the sick list for some time past is convalescent. Truly the big book has worked wonders.

Who says the days of bravery are past? It is hard to believe since two of our popular young ladies braved the storm Friday evening and rode to Bandon by the sea, over roads winding and rough, while weird music of the moaning wind's sad melody, thrummed into their fair ears its lost accompaniment. Brave hearts have our fair girls of Parkersburg. One of them returned later alone. Surely Bandon hath strong attractions.

Mr. and Mrs. John Barrows paid us a short visit last week. They were formerly residents of our Burg.

With the present fine weather con- for several days, strawberries should be plentiful.

During the heavy rains of last week Joe Flam was able to run his logs out of Bear Creek.

Miss Robah Lewis was a passenger on the Favorite Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Thurman and daughter Kate returned to their home at North Bend last week.

The dearest girl in Parkersburg Is Sally of our alley I love to whisper love's sweet word To Sally in our alley.

I know she lingers on my song In ecstasy of keen delight It will not be so very long Between now and tomorrow night Then I will whisper in her ear The words I've longed that she shall hear I love you so O! my Sally dear, I love you so! bring me good cheer LITTLE ONE.

The schooner Antelope, bound from the Siuslaw to S. F. arrived in the city in almost a water-logged condition. She ran into heavy weather and the pumps were kept going ten out of the thirteen days she was out.

The Coos Bay Harbor of June 9th says:

A letter was received Thursday from L. J. Simpson, stating that his father, Captain A. M. Simpson, was on his way to New York to purchase an iron steamship, capable of carrying 1,500,000 of lumber.

Captain Simpson took with him one of his men to captain the ship, and together they will bring it around the horn. Captain Simpson expressed his intention to make that trip around the horn once more before he died.

This vessel will be put on between Coos Bay, San Francisco and San Pedro to carry lumber. Her load will be nearly 300 tons, and she will be the largest ship to enter this harbor.

Bandon Will Celebrate.

Make arrangements to celebrate July 4th at Bandon-by-the-Sea. A great program is being prepared and will soon be published. The wild waves will be on their good behavior, and you will not know what they are saying unless you come. There will be good speaking, good music, plenty of amusement. You will get your money's worth—and then some. Will you come?
