

BANDON

The Growing Town of Coos County

The Manufacturing Town.

The Coming Summer Resort of the Oregon Coast.

Bandon is growing faster than any town in Oregon.

Its advancement is real, not on paper.

Manufacturing plants all running and several more big industries coming.

Shipped more lumber since Jan. 1st than any port in Oregon except the Columbia.

The Coquille valley is the garden spot of the Coast country and we have the timber and coal industries

Fine openings for workers and hustlers, but grafters and hot-air artists are not wanted.

FROM BUSY PROSPER

All the News of a Week's Happenings Told in a Brief Manner.

J. Neilson brought suit against the Prosper Canning Co., last Friday, in the Justice Court at Coquille City, Geo. P. Topping, of Bandon, pleading for the defendant, and J. J. Stanley, of Coquille City for the plaintiff. A controversy over the payment of the annual salary was the cause of action and at this session the case was decided in favor of the plaintiff.

R. L. Bedillion, manager of the Bandon Woolen Mills was a business caller here last Wednesday.

R. W. Bullard of Bullards, N. A. Pederson and Mrs. S. W. Fahy of this place, and J. A. Morrison, of Parkersburg, were passengers on the Wamdeeska to Coquille City Friday, where they were summoned to appear on the cannery case.

Mrs. Kendall of New Aberdeen was a Myrtle Point visitor last week.

Mrs. J. Conrad, of this place has purchased a residence and two lots in Bandon near the shingle mill. She expects to move to Bandon in the near future.

Chas. McCue has disposed of his interest in the old home place opposite Randolph. His share comprised about 40 acres which was sold to W. Parker, of Parkersburg for $2200. It is rumored the site was purchased for a saw-mill location.

Mrs. Prewett and Miss Colvin, were down from Bear Creek shopping last Saturday.

Mrs. Wm. Howell's ranch opposite Randolph, is about to change ownership. She has a buyer and expects to dispose of the property.

J. Carlson, ship-carpenter made Marshfield a visit last week.

J. E. Magee while here last week, related a coal prospect he found on the place known as the Stewart place, where he lives, above Riverton. He being a good judge of such productions, stated that he had found an opening which revealed one of the finest veins of coal, and superior to any he had seen in the county. Still we gather encouraging news from our coal fields.

J. McCorman, the well known engineer, of Riverton was doing some work here last week.

M. and Mrs. J. Flam were visitors here last Sunday.

E. Fish and family and C. Goodman and family were among the pleasure seekers at Bandon Sunday.

W. Peck, of Sixes River was up on business last week. He owns land near that river which is suitable for a stock range and he is trying to make arrangements to purchase a herd of cattle for the place. He departed for his home Sunday and was accompanied by A. Pershbaker, who goes on a business trip.

It is said that the white fir butt logs are known to sink and move with the tide under water. It has been intimated that a camp on the river has been logging this timber and such is known of the disappearance of the logs, and it is presumed that if investigation be made, this may perhaps prove the cause of disasters to the vessels, and if complaint be made, free the river from such obstructions which are a menace to navigation and avoid further trouble.

J. S. Leep, from Myrtle Point was at this place Monday. He is interested in logging at that place.

Mr. Ingle, traveling for a S. F. dry goods house was soliciting orders here Monday.

Geo. P. Topping reads this place a flying visit the first of the week, having business which called him here.
