down the hill.

But say, dad, was that true about Zac Boice and Dad Fieger going to the Doc to have the splinters pulled out of their paws?

Don't know, Riley.

I see our marshal has at last shoveled the mud from that abominable crossing near the livery stable, much to the satisfaction of our feminine populace particularly, whose dainty feet can now look dainty once more instead of like veritable barn-yard clod-hoppers. Good boy, Ed. You are not the mean thing you were a week ago.

Ask Bill Logan if he found bottom the other night in that bottomless neighborhood. Guess we had better go down and help land the mail boat, and then watch that crossing until next week. In the mean time I will find out what the School Board is allowing our money to lay around the wharf for during the past week.

I didn't see any money, dad.

No, of course not, you mutton head, but I saw a lot of school desks there, and Daddy Morse claims that the Board is paying rent on the G. A. R. hall. Have you seen any kids in that neighborhood lately?

Next week something will drop from

RILEY'S OLD MAN.

Posters will be printed at this office Saturday announcing the grand annual mask ball of the veteran soldiers. The affair will be given at Bank Hall, on Saturday evening, Dec. 22d, and it is the purpose to make it one long to be remembered by the dance-loving public. The fact should be remembered that it will be a masquerade party strictly.

"Recorder's" Voting Contest.

The people of this section of Coos should not forget that the Recorder is going to give away a $50 sewing machine and a $40 bedroom set the first of next February. It is a voting contest. The contest is already under way, and the names of the ladies voted for to date are as follows:

Alice Porter..... 300 votes
Olga Peterson..... 150 votes
Mrs. J. S. Tilton..... 162 votes
Mrs. T. W. Panter..... 7 votes
Elsie Stevenson..... 150 votes
Mrs. H. F. Morrison..... 150 votes

The names of the different ones voted for, together with their standing in the race, will be published each week in the Recorder until the close of the contest.

Routed the "Chinks."

Six almond-eyed workmen at the local cannery who are temporarily idle these days found a comfortable posture Monday afternoon in the south side doorway of Walter Nelson's Idle Hour Saloon. Here they engaged in an animated discussion of the political situation in China, their unintelligible jabber having the effect of drowning all other conversation within a radius of a block. The rotund and generally patient proprietor of the Idle Hour allots no idle hour for a discussion of Chinese conditions on his premises, as a few moments of the heated argument abundantly demonstrated.

"Here, you yellow-bibed ki yios, close up and out of that!" came a rich baritone voice from within the building.

"So ray, see lo, kokay!" was the loud response from Nelson's unwellcome guests, but if it indicated an intention to move off they didn't move worth a cent.

"I'll kokay you in a jiffy!" exclaimed the indignant proprietor after due lapse of time, and almost instantly a copious flow of water issued from beneath the doorway, dampening the ardor and the pantaloons of the chattering Chinks and putting them to hasty and certain flight.

The Recorder scribe tried to get some notes on the argument, but neither Nelson nor his Oriental friends could in the least enlighten us.

Not Mrs. Laird of Brewster.

The Recorder is deeply shocked that the report should have gone abroad and been published in the county press that Mrs. Laird, Sr., of Brewster Valley had died in Bandon a number of days ago. The report was furnished the newspapers by Dr. M. G. Pohl who was regrettably misinformed as to the identity of the lady who died.

Mrs. W. L. Laird, who resided with her husband near Bandon, was the unfortunate one to be mistaken for the pioneer lady of the Brewster Valley country. Mrs. W. L. Laird it was who succumbed, and we hope this erroneous impression will be speedily corrected.

Inadvertently we neglected to mention last week that Paris Ward of Prosper had taken unto himself a bride. The young lady of his choice was Miss Mary Hufford of Bandon, and the ceremony took place in this town several days ago. We wish Mr. and Mrs. Ward every possible happiness.

R. D. Hume purchased the wharf at Port Orford yesterday, and stated that it was his intention to run a boat from that place to Marshfield in the near future. Mr. Hume is one of the largest salmon packers of the Pacific coast.—Sunday's Times.

A new one-story dwelling to be occupied by L. J. Radley and wife is being started by Mrs. F. E. Dyer at the foot of the school house steps.

CONTEST NOTICE.

Department of the Interior.

U. S. Land Office at Roseburg Or.

October 6, 1906.

A sufficient contest affidavit having been filed in this office by Thomas B. Wheeler, contestant, against homestead entry No. 12881, made July 23, 1904, for SE 1/4 SE 1/4, W 1/2 SE 1/4, and SE 1/4 SW 1/4 Section 33, Township 29 S., Range 14 W., by Harvey Morse, Contestee, in which it is alleged that said Harvey Morse has wholly abandoned said tract and changed his residence therefrom for more than six months since making said entry, and next prior to the date herein; that said tract is not settled upon and cultivated by said party as required by law nor has said entryman ever built upon or settled upon the said tract since he made entry on the same; said parties are hereby notified to appear, respond and offer evidence touching said allegation at 10 o'clock a.m. on March 4, 1907, before C. T. Blumenrother, U. S. Commissioner, at his office in Bandon, Oregon, and that final hearing will be held at 10 o'clock a.m., March 18, 1907, before the Register and Receiver at the United States Land Office in Roseburg, Oregon.

The said contestant having, in a proper affidavit, filed October 5, 1906, set forth facts which show that after due diligence personal service of this notice can not be made, it is hereby ordered and directed that such notice be given by due and proper publication.

BENJAMIN L. EDDY, Register.

"Billy" Panter a Benedict.

One of the popular firm of Panter Bros. in this place stole a march on his friends and shook off the care-worn mantle of single blessedness Tuesday evening last.

It was "Billy," and he was chucklingly congratulating himself that none had yet learned it when a Recorder man struck a clue yesterday morning and ran it to earth.

The ceremony took place Tuesday evening, as stated, and the fortunate lady was Miss Mary E. Tension, the estimable and attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Tension of the Bandon vicinity.

The home of the bride's parents was the scene of the pretty but quiet event, relatives only were present, and Rev. A. Haberly united the couple as one.

A host of friends will join the Recorder in extending to Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Panter their very best wishes for a future of unalloyed happiness. They will reside in Bandon.

J. E. Fisher, who with his mother and sister departed for Walnut Grove, Arizona, last week, expects to find his way back to Bandon some time next spring. The gentleman has sold off most of his holdings here, but still has a few lots remaining.

Col. C. T. Blumenrother has been appointed administrator of the estate of the late Edward Good, and has started to settle up the same. A. D. Morse, E. M. Blackerby and W. H. Logan were named to appraise the value of said estate.

Chris Rasmussen's new dwelling on the bench is slowly but surely approaching completion. P. C. Stephenson has the carpenter work in charge, and hopes to have the building ready for occupancy in five weeks.

Donald Charleson left for Myrtle Point yesterday with his mother who has been very low with illness of late. It is hoped that the lady will find expected improvement at the east county town.

Work on the building of the Cody wharf and mill foundation goes at a steady pace. There is nothing at a standstill around Bandon these days.

George Lorenz went to Coquille yesterday to eat Thanksgiving dinner with the old folks.

R. E. Buck has been doing some remodeling at his newly purchased residence in this city.

Jos. Walser has moved into his new building and will put up a residence next spring.
