John Thomas of Coquille will preach in Concrete Hall at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Everybody is invited.

Carpenters Attention. Do you know that the Bandon Hardware Co carry the finest line of tools that you will see for many a day?

Strayed—From my slaughter house premises several days ago one black cow, dehorned. Finder please notify E. Lewin and receive liberal reward.

What is worth doing is worth doing well. Send your Watch Repairing to V. R. Wilson, the watchmaker at Coquille—over 20 years experience.

I. S. Kaufman, the hustling real estate man of Marshfield, was a business visitor in Bandon a few days the latter part of last week, returning home on the Monday morning boat. He is formerly of Spokane, Wash.

Last Sunday a sailor from one of the schooners erected a trapeze and performed to the delight of the crowd. Probably the best act of the performance was the collection which none but he seemed to appreciate.

J. C. Wilson, of Coquille was a business visitor in Bandon Tuesday. He is offering the poultry raisers of this country pure bred eggs for setting purposes and has just received several blooded cattle and hogs. See his advertisement elsewhere in this paper.

Last Sunday morning the steamer Favorite was found on the bottom of the river bed at Coquille. A leak is supposed to have caused the trouble. The steamer Liberty is taking her regular run this week.

Tuesday morning one of those typical sky-blue prairie schooners drifted into town where they seemed drifted and made their departure before noon. Five yoke of oxen afforded motive power and seemed well able to haul several times the load. The outfit was headed south.

C. E. Cottle of Marshfield was in town Monday on business. The young man is a saw filer and had been employed in a mill at Marshfield when he was injured from a flying piece of steel striking him in the eye and putting it out. He returned Tuesday morning.

People are taking down their rakes that have been put away since last summer and are busy putting in early garden. What would our Eastern friends say to this. Imagine a couple of feet of snow, the ground frozen about five feet, to say nothing of the rivers and lakes all froze up and the mercury way down below zero, and you have the condition of the east this time of the year.

S. S. Little of Bandon was a caller at this office Saturday and showed us a letter from his nephew, A. M. Kopt of Farrow, Iowa, who is very much interested in the growth and development of this country. He is a cattleman of some prominence in his country and says if it is true that the cattlemen does not have to work half of the year to provide feed for his cattle the other half, in this country, it is the place for him. We are told that land once seeded to pasture, is green the year round.

Dr. D. L. Steel,
Bandon's Resident
Dentist

Is the place to go when you require the services of an experienced dentist. No operation too difficult, success guaranteed. Office opposite Hotel Gallier.

Last Saturday Oliver Waldvogel was seriously bruised in attempting to stop a run-a-way team. The team started near Lorenz & Hoyt's store and he stopped them in front of the Bandon Drug Store.

The dance in the Bank hall last Saturday was a success socially, but the management ran short on the expense. It is said that if the attendance does not pick up that these Saturday night dances will be discontinued.

The Bandon Fire Department had fire drill last night and made several runs with the hose cart, coupling on to the fire plugs in true metropolitan style. A slight accident to coupling gave several of the fire laddies a cold shower bath.

The Bandon Concert Band is rapidly perfecting arrangements for the Grand Concert to take place March 30. The program for this occasion will contain several new and special features and the selections to be rendered are by far the best music this popular organization has ever put on and will be a treat for all who attend.

Francis Simon, employed at the ship yard accidentally cut his index finger in such a manner as to nearly sever that member, yesterday morning. The head of the axe he was using flew off and cut through the first joint. Dr. Houston sewed up the finger and although it will be some time before he will be able to use it, he is fortunate to have saved it.

M. W. McCormick is authority for the following in reference to the Riverton Coal Mines. He states that a Seattle Enreka Company capitalized at $150,000 has an option on the Peterson Coal Mines at Riverton. Geo. Diller, government geologist has been experimenting on the specimens and gave a favorable opinion on his results. The new company is called the Eureka Coal Mining Co., and Senator Clark of Montana is said to be interested in it.

The Firemen are making special arrangements for their ball on Saturday night of this week. Good order and floor management will be provided for, and you will spend an enjoyable evening with the fire laddies. The proceeds will be used in purchasing new equipment and every person should at least buy a ticket to the ball; one is never sure how soon they will be called upon to assist you. The Seaside Orchestra will furnish the music, and supper will be served at the usual places. Everybody is invited. A crowd is expected down from Coquille and along the river.

We are pleased to note the arrival of Mr. C. M. Spencer and wife on the steamer Elizabeth. They come from San Francisco highly recommended and intend to make Bandon their future home. Mr. Spencer will enter the employ of the Bandon Commercial Co. as an assistant to Mr. Frederick, and will have charge of the Bandon Commercial Co's wharf business. As they intend to be one of us, the Recorder extends best wishes for their future welfare. Mr. Frederick will take the place of President Dyer who will be absent more or less most of the time.

Presbyterian Church.
