We are informed that some Pendleton, and Walla Walla parties have their eyes on Bandon as a likely field for opening up a line of gent's furnishing goods, with a view to "permanent location." They are now chiefly concerned in a store room.

Elbert Dyer left on the Favorite Wednesday for Portland on business. He will go overland via Drain and will meet Mrs. Dyer at Albany, where she has been visiting with friends and relatives. He will return in a week or ten days.

Elbert Dyer and Anna Dyer have sold lots in the Woolen Mill Addition to Bandon during the last three days to William Rohm, C. A. Wigbold, Lillian M. Steward, Adam Storm, Theodore Weber, E. E. Oakes, A. McLeod, C. H. Chandler, Frank Amburger, and some others.

The Bank of Bandon has added an artistic piece of furniture this week in the shape of a new typewriter desk. It is very large and has a new patented slide for the typewriter to rest upon and instead of turning the machine upside down when closed, as the old ones do, this slides the machine back into the bottom of the desk. It has a row of four drawers on each side and cost about $60.

Unconfirmed rumor says that 300 acres of land between Marshfield, and North Bend was recently sold through C. L. McKenna of Portland to an unknown railroad company for $380,000. The above report has reached Bandon through a private letter, but we believe is sufficiently reliable to repeat. If the same be true, we will probably be able to chronicle many interesting happenings from over on the Bay.

Leo Dressler, formerly of the 13th infantry military band of the Philippine Islands, and who has, for the past two months been visiting with his "old-time" chum, John Monroe, left Wednesday for Arkansas, in company with Monroe, via Marshfield and Frisco. Leo will accept a position with the Arkansas State band of Little Rock, and with this band he will tour the principal cities of the United States, including Jamestown, Va. During his stay here, he played clarinet with the local band, and orchestra, and will be greatly missed. He won many friends during the time he was here and we are sorry to lose him.

M. G. Pohl, the veteran optometrist, writes he will be in Bandon on April 16 and 17.

The Missionary Baptist preacher, John Thomas will preach in the Methodist Church next Sunday at 11 a. m., and 7:30 p. m. All are invited.

Watch Repairing must be done right. Send your work to V. R. Wilson, the watchmaker at Coquille and good work always.

The Bandon Co-operative Co. report their lots in Sunset are going like the proverbial "hot cakes." Monday they sold 2 to Mathew Laws, of Laupa, and 1 to Mr. Buck, of Bandon.

If the ladies of Bandon wear the Robt. Johnson and Rand shoes, they will never be bothered with corns or sore feet. These shoes are made to fit the foot, Lorenz & Hoyt.

In order to make room for our new stock of glass ware that will be here in a short time, we are going to dispose of all of the present stock at very low prices. Here is your chance to secure berry dishes, butter dishes, glasses, and small sets at very reasonable prices. Bandon Hardware Co., opposite the postoffice.

John Munroe, who has been employed by Geo. P. Topping the past ten months as stenographer, left on the Breakwater for Eureka where he will take a similar position in a lumber concern. Mr. Munroe has been a member of the local band and will be greatly missed. He has made a good many friends who are sorry to see him leave and who tender their best wishes in his new home.

Last Saturday afternoon several ladies met with Mrs. Cody for the purpose of organizing a Study Club. The following officers were elected: Pres. Mrs. Cody; Vice Pres. Mrs. Mehl; Sec. and Treas. Miss Waldvogel. They decided to take up English Literature beginning with the 14th century. Current Events are to be given at each meeting. Tuesday afternoon Justice Strang heard evidence in the case of Chris Richards vs R. P. Hunt, in which case the litigants were disputing over the conditions of a horse trade. As there were no witnesses to the trade, there was very little reliable evidence on either side, while each party to the transaction told a version of the circumstance directly opposite of the other, and so there you are. The judge looked wise, the jury looked puzzled and the hall full of spectators looked every way and the betting element offered 2 to 1 odds both pro and con, without takers. When the Justice's mill was run down the dial pointed toward a verdict for the plaintiff, with notice of appeal.
