The axe struck between second and third toes and severed the tendons. Dr. Houston sowed the tendons and the foot up, and at present writing the patient is getting along nicely.

The Lee Willard Company played in the Opera House Tuesday evening to a good crowd. This is the first show that has "made" Bandon for some time, and everybody turned out with big expectations. They were somewhat disappointed as the play was one that had been given by local talent a year or so ago. Of course there was some variation, but the long waits and the absence of music made a rather poor entertainment. Mr. Willard is a gentleman and an actor of some ability, and Miss Roberts, as Priscilla, was good, but he has poor material in the balance of the company. He is billed out over the John Corte circuit from Portland.

Steve Scotton, formerly of this office and now of Coquille where he has a position in the Sentinel office, spent over Sunday in Bandon.

Oscar Wren, the well known light house keeper, has just received a fine mahogany finish Concert Grand Wing piano, which he is very proud of. He says he is more than pleased with the instrument, and would like to speak a good word for it to any prospective buyers. He is not an agent for the company, but desires to show his appreciation.

Work commenced last week to move the buildings previous to the erection of the new hotel. Miss Garfield's millinery store was moved over near the wharf and facing on the side street. Panter Bros. were moved west five feet, and the old livery stable will be moved immediately on the vacant ground. As soon as the building is removed, the foundation of the new hotel will be commenced. The Bandon Athletic Club are making preparations to have Geo. Laird fix up the upstairs of the corner building so as to make suitable rooms for a gymnasium. However nothing definite has yet been done. The paraphernalia for the new Club has not been ordered, but will be sometime in the near future.

For Sale.

I have a valuable ranch for sale, suitable for dairying and for diversified farming, consisting of some 300 acres of highly productive land. Is second to none in Coos county.

Terms, 25 per cent in cash, and any reasonable time for balance will be given.

Address, E. M. FURMAN, Bandon, Coquille City, or Marshfield, Oregon.

Weather Report.

The first half of the week was cloudy and showery in all sections of the State. In the western counties the closing days of the week were clear, with an abundance of bright sunshine, but in the eastern counties a few small thunderstorms occurred in the foothills of the Blue Mountains on the 13th and 14th, while elsewhere fair weather prevailed. The temperature averaged above normal, and the excess was greatest during the daytime and least at night. Light frosts occurred generally on the 10th, 11th, and 15th, but they did no harm of consequence. There were no damaging high winds.

COAL FOR SALE.—First class coal at $3 per ton in sacks or $2.50 in scow loads. Leave orders at Peterson's Landing, above Riverton.

CHAS. PETERSON, Riverton.

Installing Typewriters.

E. M. Furman has been installing a number of the Sun visible typewriters in this community. This little machine has a standard key board and has been adopted by the government in the Army department. He has the exclusive agency in this territory and will be pleased to mail you any information on its merits that you may ask for.

A distinct feature of this machine is that you do not have to use a ribbon. The type is inked by a pad and you always have a nice clean print. For any additional information address him at Bandon.

Death of Elwood Kiblinger.

Died: Elwood Kiblinger, at his home at Bear creek, last Sunday April 14th, aged 16 years and 10 days, of consumption. Interment in the Kitchen Cemetery, 9 miles about Myrtle Point, Tuesday.

Deceased was well known in Bandon as Elwood Fowler. He has been living with his mother, Mrs. Jennie Fowler. He leaves beside her one sister, Mrs. C. F. Allison, of this city. He leaves a large circle of friends, who will deeply mourn his loss.

CONTEST NOTICE.

Department of the Interior.

U. S. Land Office at Roseburg, Or., February 25, 1907.

A sufficient contest affidavit having been filed in this office by Margaret Lamont contestant, against homestead entry No. 10832, made June 27, 1901, for NE¹/₄ of NE¹/₄ of NW¹/₄ of Section No. 23, Township 29 S., Range 14 W., by John E. Tatham, contestee, in which it is alleged that said John E. Tatham has wholly abandoned said tract; that he has changed his residence therefrom for more than one year since making said entry; that the said tract is not settled upon and cultivated by said party as required by law; that his alleged absence from said land is not due to employment in the military or naval service of the United States said parties are hereby notified to appear, respond and offer evidence touching said allegation at 10 o'clock a. m. on April 29, 1907, before George P. Topping, a notary public at his office at Bandon, Oregon, and that final hearing will be held at 10 o'clock a. m. on May 13, 1907, before the Register and Receiver at the United States Land Office in Roseburg, Oregon.

The said contestant having, in a proper affidavit, filed February 23, 1907, set forth facts which show that after due diligence personal service of this notice cannot be made, it is hereby ordered and directed that such notice be given by due and proper publication.
