A New Aid Fable.

This is not a George Ade fable, though it may sling some slang. It is a Home Aid fable.

There was once a Geezer who sat around and cut Kindling too small for Cook Stove purposes. He Whittled against Time and Flabbergasted against his Town. The town was no good, he said—strictly on the Blink. Yes, it was N. G. Why, hadn't he lived here since '84 and found that the Place was Punky? Sure, Mike! Look at that town over in the next County. Grown like Jonah's Gourd. Must be a Jonah here. We've grown some, but I don't see that we are knocking any particularly Big Persimmons. That's the way this Gazaboo knocked his town.

One day a Sarcastic Stranger floated to the Town that was Knocked from the burg that had Blossomed like Jonah's Gourd. He Heard some of the Flabbergasting and Dropped to the situation.

"Look here, you," he remarked to the citizen who was Handing out the Knocks. "What do you do for this town? Are you doing your part to put this Burg on the Upgrade? What is that hefty Bunch of literature sticking out of your Clothes?"

"That is a Mail Order Catalogue from Chicago—a town that is a town," replied the Geezer.

"So I thought" said the Impertinent Arrival. "Now let me hand you out a nice little Wad of common sense. For the past ten years you have been sending your money to the Chicago Mail Order houses instead of spending it among your home merchants. What would have happened to Chicago fifty years ago if all the First Settlers had shipped their Loose Coin to New York on catalogue inducements? Why you'd have to use a sand dredger now to find the Original Site of Chicago. Now in the Burg from which I have just Blown in we have got over this Bum Business years ago. We passed Resolutions that we would trade at home and help our own town to Spread out so that you could Sight it on the map without using Opera Glasses. But you and a Bunch of other folks in this town have wasted your substance in Riotous Expenditures in Chicago by mail and let the sheriff bang out the 'Nothing Doing' sign in front of some of your own town's mercantile Emporiums. Look at our Town and then look at yours. What makes the Difference?"

When upon the Whittling Gazaboo threw a few well chosen Thoughts into his mental makeup and went down to the village store to Annex a linen collar in place of the Paper Circles which he had bought from Chicago at Two Bits a Box.

Moral: If you want your town to grow, patronize home enterprises.

Eight Secrets of Success.

A man with a mania for answering advertisements has had some interesting experiences. He learned that by sending $1 to a Yankee he could get a cure for drunkenness. And he did "take the pledge and keep it."

Then he sent 50 cents to find out how to raise turnips successfully. He found out. "Just take hold of the tops and lift."

Being young he wished to marry and sent 24 1-cent stamps to a Chicago firm for information as to how to make an impression. When the answer came it read: "Sit down in a pan of dough."

The next advertisement he answered read: How to double your money in six months. He was told to convert his money into bills, fold them and thus double his money.

Next he sent for 12 useful household articles and got a package of needles.

He was slow to learn so he sent $1 to find out how to get rich. "Work hard and never spend a cent." that stopped him.

But his brother wrote to find out how to write without pen and ink. He was told to use a lead pencil.

He paid $1 to learn how to live without work and was told on a postal card: "Fish for easy marks, as we do."

Standard Oil has been convicted of illegal rebating on 1,462 counts, the maximum penalty being $29,240,000. Now here is a chance for the judicial arm of the government to back up the executive arm, and punish this big criminal to such an extent that it will feel the punishment, and along with other corporate violators of the law be deterred from further lawlessness. Since it seems to be the policy of the government not to send any corporation officer to jail, as lesser criminals are, some measure of justice may be attained by fines sufficient to hurt. But this result, if to be achieved, is a long way off yet.—Portland Journal.

Coquille Notes.

From the Sentinel.

Chas. Sneddon, who has been prospecting coal deposits on the lower river, is ill at the Marshfield General Hospital, and his brother, Jack, of Riverton went over Friday to attend him. Charley is said to be having a rather hard tussle of it.

Joseph Windle, formerly in the Light House service, but who now resides on a farm on Beaver Slough, returned Monday from New York City, where he was united in marriage to Miss Julia Sweeting a late arrival from England. The couple will reside on his fine ranch on the lower river.

The K. of P. lodge in this city will have a contest among its members to increase membership. The lodge is equally divided into two teams under the leadership of W. T. Kerr and J. C. Simmons and the contest is now on and will close June 23. The losing team will give a banquet to the victors.

Following is the jury list for the coming term of circuit court which convenes April 22: Leonard Hartly, J. W. Hall, Manly Barklow, J. T. Guerin, of Myrtle Point; J. W. Fairman, E. D.
