Mr. E. B. Norris, representing the Dohnan Carrigan & Hayden Co., of San Francisco, was in town on business the forepart of this week. He has just returned from a trip in the East.

A Kansas man sent the following testimonial to a patent medicine concern in the East which proves the quality of the dope manufactured: "My wife took a single bottle of your medicine and died. I am married again. Please send me another bottle."

The new Lyons & Johnson Mill at Bullards is rapidly nearing completion. The building proper is being pushed and it will soon be ready for the machinery. The building is 220 x 50 and is a substantial structure. The machinery will be modern and the output is estimated at 50,000 feet per day.

Out in Downs a little Swede boy went to school and the teacher asked him his name. "Yonny Olson," he replied. "How old are you?" asked the teacher. "Ay not no how old ay bane." When were you born? "Continued the teacher. "Ay not been born at all, ay got stepmutter." - Kansas City Star.

Orders have been received by the local postoffice that the winter schedule will still remain in effect until the roads are in better condition. It is not known how soon before we will commence receiving mail on the noon boat. It is impossible for the carriers to get through on schedule time at present, and it will probably be a few weeks before the roads are repaired and dried up.

The gentlemen members of the Robekah lodge entertained the members of that lodge last Saturday evening, their regular social meeting night. Progressive whist was the feature of the evening and Mrs. Fanny Dyer carried home the head prize, a beautiful shell, and Miss Anna Waldvogel was consoled with a little brown jug for her score. The evening was spent very pleasantly and after a midnight supper, arranged by the gentlemen the party broke up. The Robekahs are famous for their social evenings, and as ye editor was invited to this one, he can testify to that effect.

When the reports of the postoffice of Bandon were figured up, it was found that it just lacked an even hundred dollars of making it a third class post office. Had the business men known about it, they would have been glad to have laid in a supply of several dollars' worth of stamps.

As it is, Postmaster Walker is out about $750 a year; but by next year the receipts will more than pay for the third class ratings.

Elbert Dyer, N F Disher and R Fredericks were business visitors in Coquille Tuesday.

Seven and one-half Chicken Ranches.

I have divided my land into a little over seven sections containing five acres each which I have on the market. These will make excellent chicken ranches, and the land is adapted to the culture of small fruits. A sixty foot right-of-way passes through fronting each tract. They lay two and a quarter miles south of Bandon near the plank road, and sell for $60 and $65 an acre. These lots are not in the hands of any real estate dealer, and I do my business direct with you. Call on or address.

C. H. CFANDLER,

Bandon, Oregon.

Notice.

It is over eighteen months since I gave up business and I now want all my accounts settled. Interest and collection expenses will be added to unpaid accounts from this date.
