

Local Lore

Call at the Bandon Co-operative Realty Co.

The W. P. Fuller Prepared Paints and Varnishes for sale by C. Y. Lowe.

Call at the residence of Mrs. A. G. Hoyt if you want an up-to-date hat.

The New Bandon Market is now open and ready to supply Bandon buyers.

Mrs. L. Noble of Marshfield has been visiting for the past week with Mrs. Dr. Steele.

The Bandon Woolen Mills received a barge load of coal from up river the fore part of this week.

Did you know that you can get ten views of Bandon and vicinity at A. Rice's for fifteen cents?

Just received, a new stock of the celebrated Lowe Bros.' Paints, Oils, and Varnishes, at the Furniture Store.

Allie Guerin fell out of a wagon last night at the Wandling place and sustained several bruises and internal injuries, but is not reported as very serious.

The foundation piling is in position and the City Hall will be moved onto it. This will straighten up the main street and add greatly to the looks.

Miss Garfield will have a special sale on Java Hats on Friday and Saturday this week only. Regular $2.25 values to go at $1.75. Don't miss this.

Light House Keeper Oscar Wren gives us the following report on the rain fall and the weather for the past month: Rainfall 5.99 inches; cloudy days 18, clear days 12. Prevailing winds, northwest.

Lost: H B Smith lost a small red memorandum book containing a note for $266.00 from Isam Walker to him, between Bandon and New Lake school house. Finder will be liberally rewarded if the same is left at this office.

C. S. McCulloch is laying off another addition in Prosper this week, which will be known as the Spencer Addition to Prosper. This lies directly north of the original town site.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Doyle a girl on May 7th.

Miss Eva Goodman, of Prosper, spent Wednesday with friends here.

The best stock of Paint Brushes, baring none in this city, may be found at the Furniture Store.

Wm. Button was badly bruised by a log rolling on him at the logging camp Tuesday, and consequently won't be able to work for a few days.

The Eagles of Marshfield will take possession of the town Saturday night. They will have a meeting in the Concrete Hall and several new members will be initiated.

Charles Ward, an old resident of Bear Creek, died at his home on May the fifth. He was well known and respected by his many friends. The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. P. C. Stephenson was pleasantly surprised by the Ladies' Art Club on May 1, the occasion being her birthday. A very pleasant evening was spent and light refreshments were served.

An old speckled "dominick" hen has taken position in the City Hall and for the past two weeks held against all comers. As she has still a week to set, she will not be routed until her time is out. Nevertheless there is no getting around that the City hall makes a pretty good hen house.

It is nearly time some of the local base ball fans were getting busy. Here it is long in May and nothing doing yet. Bandon used to have the best team in the country and still has plenty of good material to work on. There will be several good chances for games this summer, and Bandon wants to come off with her colors flying.

Last Sat. p.m. Prof. Woods gave a very interesting and instructive talk on Botany and the Wild Flowers of Oregon to the Study Club in the High School building. It was a great treat to the members. The Prof. proved himself a master of his subject. The following program will be given next Sat. p.m. at 2:30: Biography of Spencer, Mrs. Mehl. Impressions of Spencer from Milton, Dryden, Pope and others, Mrs. Cody, Reading, Fairie Queen, Mrs. Hancock. Biography of Christopher Marlowe, Mrs. Woods. Works, M. Logan. Current Events, The Club.

"Fishin's good," and the local sportsmen are making trips out over the bar every good day, and judging from the returns, must be pretty well satisfied with the results.

If some of the local capitalists would like to invest a little money and receive good returns on it, we would suggest they build houses for rental. There is such a shortage of desirable houses as to keep people from locating here. Only this week there has been people here that would have sent for their families if they could have found a house for rent. Rents are high, and the cost of construction will bring first class interest.

House Movers.

W A Goodman, who is moving the Laird property on Main street, will give you an intelligent bid on any work of this character that you may require. Call on him while he is in town. Charges are reasonable.
