How Do You like us in our new dress? The RECORDER has forsown the old four page size and from now on will appear in six page form. This won't last so very long either, as we are already figuring on making it eight pages every week. Bandon, and all of her various lines of business, is growing, and why shouldn't its newspaper?

The HAYWOOD TRIAL continues to hold the boards against all comers. With such men as John Nugent for the defence, the State does not seem to stand much of a show for conviction. Sentimental Darrow and others who have the case for the State in charge are sadly lacking in the out spoken and plainly stated facts of the case, and are making their side decidedly weak. That Haywood might be implicated in the assassination of Frank Steunenberg is a possibility, but so far nothing has been proven, and the general outlook for acquittal is very favorable for the prisoner.

CHICKEN RANCHES are and have been recognized as being a good money investment for this country, for a long time. Eggs are as scarce as the proverbial hen's teeth, and there is hardly a store in Bandon that cannot handle five and ten times the number now on the market. The meat markets have experienced every possible difficulty in securing desirable poultry for their purpose, and at the present existing prices, and the certainty of a large figure for the hen fruit in the winter time, the proposition is hardly a business venture, but a certainty. There is any amount of land for sale for this purpose that would make ideal chicken ranches, and the price that it is now held at is very reasonable.

OUR NEW CLUBING offer is advertised on the last page of this week's issue. This applies to both old and new subscribers, and should be an incentive to secure your winter's reading. The Pacific Monthly is a well-know publication, and enjoys the distinction of being strictly an Oregon publication. The regular price for it is one dollar per year. The Semi-Weekly Journal, of Portland, is not perhaps, so well known in this vicinity, but we have sample copies that we will be pleased to hand you, and you may judge for yourself. It is the farmer's friend, comes twice a week, contains a full market report; the later edition containing a comic section; has the news of the outside world in condensed arrangement, and is a popular publication at one dollar and a half per year. The RECORDER needs no description. We are striving to make this a red-hot, strictly home paper. There is no partiality on our part towards any organization of sect, and it is our aim to cover thoroughly all of this section of Coos and Curry Counties. Our columns are at the disposal of our readers. We desire to furnish news from all of the surrounding towns, and when we get more matter than can be ably handled in the present size of the paper, we will again enlarge it. The price made on these publications is so small, in comparison to the value, that you can't afford to be without them.

TODAY IS THE Nation's Birthday, and let every one of us unfurl all of the available flags, inspire the patriotism of the younger element by providing them with fireworks, and ourselves attend the exercises with the true American spirit. With all of the peace and prosperity that we are now enjoying, and the brilliant prospects for a prosperous future, we all should take some part in observing the greatest day in all the year. One hundred and thirty-one years ago today our forefathers made a nation that will stand as long as the world exists, one that from the first has enjoyed the liberty and freedom of speech and action, and has in no way had to bow before sovereignty of any description. Even in the darkest hour they stood together as one, and now in the time of peace and prosperity, we should pay our highest tribute to their memory. Let all pull together this day and make a celebration that will excel all before it in this vicinity.

THE IMPROVEMENTS proposed by the city, and given in detail in another column, have been needed for a long time past, and the new city dads have taken the right course to bring a speedy fate to several stripes of bad sidewalk, and to eventually open up several much needed streets. There are sidewalks in Bandon that would serve for some time to come if they were properly nailed down, but it is just such walks that the city dads will get their eagle eyes upon and order new ones built. Get out your hammer and nails and do a little along the improvement line yourself. Now that we have the town cleaned up, why wouldn't it be a good idea to paint up? There are a number of buildings in Bandon that have a disreputable appearance, that a little paint, properly applied, would do wonders for. This is not going to be money thrown away. Your property will be benefitted, and the whole general appearance of the town will give a much better impression to the man who wants to locate. It will only place that much more value on your property.

"TRUST BUSTING" has been the platform of all parties for the past several years, and let's see what has been accomplished. This will apply not only to the National administration, but to the State political bodies. For instance, the coal trust. The common man is burdened enough with the old prices that formerly made that article almost a luxury, while now, after the trust has been supposed to be "busted," the price has soared way out of sight. The most of this essential commodity comes from Pennsylvania and is sent all over the United States to the millions of consumers who are dependent on it for their winter's fuel. The West has its own coal mines, chiefly of the bituminous variety, and knows little of the methods of the Trust, which does its operating in the more thickly settled East. The railroads have obtained control of the output of the mines, which they regulate to suit themselves and prices. Their employees work at starvation wages, and should they strike, they could not better themselves, as has been shown by recent strikes in the coal regions. The big trust would only close their mines, and the countless miners would have no employment, and the condition of affairs would soon be even more deplorable than it now is. An administration is needed that will "bust" the trust. It is a righteous movement and will bring untold relief to millions.

Oregon Entertains Visitors.

(Special Correspondence)

Portland, July 1st, 1907. Hon. James R. Garfield, Secretary of the Interior, and party, will spend Saturday, July 13th, in Portland. They will be guests of Dr. Henry Waldo Coe for a drive over the city and luncheon at his residence and for a banquet at the Commercial Club in the evening.

All Oregon is indebted to Mr. A. L. Craig, Passenger Traffic Manager of the Great Northern Railway for publicity given this State in many of the leading papers of the country, including those of New York, St. Louis, and other great cities. Mr. Craig feels that the $5,000 prize offer of the Portland Commercial Club should result in an enormous advertisement for the State.

Vice President Fairbanks will be the guest of the Astoria Chamber of Commerce July 15th, with banquet at Seaside.

Portland Business men have in contemplation an excursion covering about twenty-five points in North-Western Washington July 24th-28th.

It is consensus of opinion among the best advised grain men that the wheat crop of the present year will leave in the hands of the farmers of the Pacific Northwest from $35,000,000 to $40,000,000, assuring good times.

Large delegations will go from Oregon to attend the Christian Endeavor Convention at Seattle, the National Educational Association Convention at Los Angeles, and the Baptist Young People's Convention at Spokane, and all should bear in mind that every ticket is good to any railroad point in Oregon. Judging from advance preparations being made by the different delegations, they will do a great work in advertising the resources of this State.

Good reports are being received from all the fruit sections of Oregon. The crop is satisfactory, the prices are good at the present time and the prospects for the Fall fruit crop are the brightest in the history of the State.
