Oregon Development League.

Special Correspondence.

Portland, Aug. 22.—Hon. William H. Taft, Secretary of War, will spend all day in Portland Friday, September 6th. He will speak at the Armory in the evening at 8 o'clock and seats will be reserved for every editor, for the officers of every commercial and industrial body, for the members of the last Legislature, the State officers, the Mayor of every city, and a limited number of delegates from all of the commercial bodies throughout Oregon, but these names must be reported and reservations made by Monday, September 2nd, by addressing Tom Richardson, Secretary of the Oregon Development League, Portland.

Everybody in the State will be welcome at this meeting, in addition to the reservations mentioned, and it is destined that the larger portion of the audience be from outside of Portland.

A rate of a fare and a third for the round trip has been made for the occasion from Pendleton and all points west on the O. R. & N., and from Roseburg and all points north on the Southern Pacific.

The meat and bread of Oregon advertising is the colonist rates. The people of Oregon are not neglecting this opportunity and there will be thousands of people come to this State to find homes between September 1st and October 31st. However, do your portion, and write another letter just as you lay down this paper to some friend in the older states who should get the advantage of the low one-way rates to Oregon.

Mr. Albert Phenix, staff correspondent of the "Manufacturers Record," of Baltimore, and one of the country's best posted correspondents on industrial subjects, is making a study of Oregon and the Pacific Northwest, in connection with a trip including all of the Pacific Coast. The report of Mr. Phenix will be decidedly complimentary to Oregon.

One hundred prominent business men of Brooklyn, New York, composing the Brooklyn League, will spend all of August 28th in Portland. These gentlemen are visiting the different cities of the country studying municipal conditions everywhere.

Mrs. W. E. Shaffer visited Portland last week in the interest of the Tillamook County Fair and Street Carnival, to be held in Tillamook August 22nd, 23 and 24th, and wants delegations from all over the State.

Tillman Scored.

Senator Tillman gave his tirade on the negro question at the Des Moines Chautauqua a week ago Sunday afternoon. It was as outrageous a performance as ever occurred in the state of Iowa. Tillman's statement that the negro is not and never can be equal to the white man may be his honest opinion. As long as he discusses the question temperately and confines himself to facts he is entitled to respectful hearing. But when he transgresses all bounds of decency, advises law breaking and justifies murder and mob rule, he forfeits all right to be heard by decent people. Among other things he said in his Des Moines tirade was that the citizens of the North amalgamated with the negro to the full extent of their opportunities, and that the track of the route of Sherman's march to the sea could be traced on after years by the mulattoes born after the soldiers passed that way.

Who is this man Tillman who talks about "amalgamating" with negroes? Who is he who blackguards Union soldiers for alleged association with colored women? If of the slaveholding family of South Carolina, the probability is that he has, or has had, if his father did not sell them off before the war, it is safe to say that cohabited with dirty thick-lipped negro women. If he had any property left to him upon arriving at his majority it is more than probable that it was largely due to the proceeds of the labor and sweat of these people whose chief misfortune was their color and who toiled that Tillman and his forbears might accumulate. The chances are dollars to doughnuts that in the vicinity of Tillman's home there are persons of mixed blood who owe their paternity to him. Talk about the "amalgamating" of Northern people with the Negro race! Why, in Tillman's section it is the fashion. Here it brings disgrace. And Tillman and his kind evidently feel deprived of their rights, because they can no longer sell their half-brothers, or their illegitimate children or forced them to labor for them without recompense.

Who is Tillman that he comes here and assumes to teach law-abiding citizens their duty? Less than five years ago he countenanced and upheld coldblooded murder being committed by his brother. He advised the assassination beforehand, he appeared to overawe the judge and jury, he subsidized the newspapers, he created public sentiment, and in a civilized community he would have been indicted and punished as accessory to the crime.

This is not the worst feature of the case, nor is it the deepest disgrace connected with it. It is found in the fact that in the city of Des Moines, the capital city of Iowa, an audience was found on a Sunday afternoon to sit and listen to this red-handed, vituperative blackguard for two hours, and if the public prints are to be believed, to interrupt him with applause. And at the close enough people were found to indorse his views by holding up their hands, to make a respectable showing as to numbers. But it was as discreditable to the audience as if Jesse James could have been resurrected to tell his story, or Orchard could have been brought from Idaho to repeat his tale of wholesale murder, and the people had applauded and cheered at the recital.—National Tribune.
