

Coquille Notes.

From the Sentinel.

Measles have broken out in Coquille. Several cases are reported.

Al Hite left Sunday for Roseburg to attend the district fair at that place. He will also go to Salem before returning, to attend the State fair.

Z. T. Strang and family left for Roseburg and Salem Wednesday morning to attend the district and state fairs. On this, their first trip abroad in 7 years, Mr. and Mrs. Strang will also visit Hood river and Grande Ronde valley while away. C. M. Skeels, son Paul, and daughter Dolly also went out to the valley the same morning.

Dr. Steele, the dentist of Bandon, is said to be in very poor health and rusticiating in the hill sections. Mrs. Steele was sojourning in Coquille last week.

The new Maryland Saloon and cafe adjoining were thrown open to the public on Tuesday evening. A grand free feed was a feature of the occasion, of which a big throng partook with much relish. The spread was prepared by Messrs. Chartiers & Smith of the cafe, and excelled anything of its kind ever seen in the town. Mr. Beckett has a finely fitted saloon, and the cafe department will be handled by experts in that business.

Rev. G. W. Ellis expects to start for M. E. Conference next week. It is uncertain whether or not he will return to this charge.

The new steam schooner Bandon was given a trial trip out of San Francisco some days ago, and everything worked handsomely, we are told. It is understood that the vessel will take her first cargo from Crescent City thereafter running regularly to Bandon. She was built at the Porter shipyard on Coos Bay, being launched about two weeks ago. Then she was taken to San Francisco to receive her machinery. She is a trim little vessel, capable of carrying about 600,000 feet of lumber at a water depth of only 11 feet 6 inches. Captain Jensen, formerly of the Elizabeth, is in command.

The Order of Washington.

The Order of Washington is having a phenomenal growth in Bandon. The Bandon Lodge was organized under adverse circumstances. Special Supervising Deputy P. J. S. McMananna came to our town about the middle of last November and by the first of December had secured 47 applications for membership, as some of the special features of this order which are viz—1st The policies mature at the end of life, expectancy ranging from 10 to 25 years when the policy is paid in full, cutting out the necessity of dying in order to draw the money.

Second, at the end of five years one has the chance and opportunity of dropping out and saving the money paid in.

Third, men and women are admitted on equal terms.

These features were readily grasped by thinking men and women. About this time outrageous reports were circulated throughout Bandon, charging criminal dishonesty of the supreme officers and the inatability of the order. Then 42 of the 47 dropped out and not one of that 42 has renewed his or her application.

Then the organizer secured 35 more applications and organized before Christmas. About the first of this year the old stories bristled up again with additions, having quite a push behind them; then 20 of the 35 fell by the wayside. And yet notwithstanding all this the order is flourishing and bids fair to outstrip all other fraternal insurance societies in the County. Four were initiated in July, sixteen in August and three at the first meeting in Sept. and twelve applicants for initiation at the next meeting. Dr. Perkins.

Oregon Development League.
(Special Correspondence)

Weather conditions throughout the Northwest have been almost perfect for the harvest of all kinds of crops.

Oregon apples and pears have brought record prices this Fall.

At the request of the Oregon Development League, Hon. Wilbur K. Newell, President of the State Board of Horticulture, has condensed in the following one hundred words a statement about Oregon fruit that should be printed in every language known to the tongue of man:

"Oregon excels in fruit. Proof—Because her apples are the acknowledged standard of the world, bringing highest prices from the trade of New York, London, Paris and Berlin.

"Her pears, cherries, dried prunes, and strawberries have a national reputation, unequalled by the fruit of any other section of the United States.

"Why? Because nature has given her a soil containing the necessary plant food, a climate without extremes, and moisture and sunshine just right to produce a fruit of beautiful color, firm texture, and unrivalled flavor.

"And her people have the intelligence to take advantage of these conditions."

Of the 400,000 leaflets printed by the Portland Commercial Club advertising the low rates to Oregon, 351,000 had been put in circulation up to noon Saturday.

The Union Pacific, Northern Pacific, Great Northern, Burlington, and Denver & Rio Grande are running at least two daily trains in sections to accommodate the tremendous rush of colonists to the Pacific Northwest, and Oregon is getting her full share. Every citizen of the State should make an effort to bring some acquaintance, friend, or relative from the East or Middle West to locate permanently in Oregon.

Secretary Taft had many good things to say of this portion of the United States before leaving for the Orient.

Convicted, But Not In Prison.

Though convicted of crime, a person need not go to jail in Oregon. He "appeals," puts up a bond and goes through the highways and byways as freely as persons not charged with wrongdoing. His freedom may last months or one year or longer. And the tardiness of the punishment has awakened suspicions in many individuals, unversed in the law's ways, that sometimes the convicted person goes unpunished altogether.

Oregon contains a number of persons, convicted of land fraud or of land fraud perjury, many months ago, yet still out of jail. They go about their affairs as freely as if the jury had not found them guilty, or as if there were no county bastie or state penitentiary, or McNeil's Island. It is all because they have appealed—a procedure at law

Seven and one-half Chicken Ranches.

I have divided my land into a little over seven sections containing five acres each which I have on the market. These will make excellent chicken ranches, and the land is adapted to the culture of small fruits. A sixty foot right-of-way passes through, fronting each tract. They lay two and a quarter miles south of Bandon near the plank road, and sell for $60 and $65 an acre. These lots are not in the hands of any real estate dealer, and I do my business direct with you. Call on or address, whereby they lift themselves out of the court where found guilty, up to what is called a higher court, for the purpose of having the latter ascertain whether they were duly and and regularly found guilty. This seems always a hard question for the higher court to determine. The court takes its time making up its mind, and meanwhile the person convicted enjoys the vital air and the sunshine outdoors.

In California there seems to be a different condition of affairs. Mayor Schmitz, after conviction, went to jail and has not come out since, even though he appealed. Louis Glass went to jail also. The difference comes from the fact that in California a person cannot give bond and keep out of prison after conviction, during appeal.

In Oregon, on the other hand, we behold the following convicted persons at large: J. N. Williamson, W. N. Jones, F. P. Mays, George Sorensen, C. B. Zachary, Coe D. Barnard, H. H. Hendricks, Charles Nickell, Mrs. Emma Watson, Horace G. McKinley (fugitive), Thaddeus S. Potter, Dan W. Tarpley and Frank H. Walgamot.

Mr. Heney does not find the prison in Oregon as accessible as in California.—Oregonian.
