Services will be held next Sunday Sept. 29th at 11 A. M. and 7:30 P. M. Sunday School at 10 A. M. and Christian Endeavor at 6:30 P. M. Strangers especially are invited to worship with us.

They are going fast—those ladies' and children's cloaks that Hartman has on sale at present. He has the latest styles and goods, and the cloak that will please her, is on his counters.

C. A. McKellips, the Sewing machine man from North Bend, has opened up an office at Bandon Furniture Store. He will be in Bandon from the twentieth to the twenty-fifth of each month. Call at the store and see our machines. Leave orders for supplies. Machines for sale or rent on easy terms.

The Gambrinus Brewing Depot opened its doors for business this week, and is now ready to supply the wholesale and family trade. They will cater to trade of the latter order, especially, and have no bar in connection with the depot. Geo. A. Stoltz, of Portland, has accepted a position as manager of the new enterprise.

DIED—At Roseburg, September 25th, at four o'clock in the morning, Ethel Van Valkenburgh, aged 22 years. The young lady had been an invalid for four years, and death must have been a happy release from suffering. Besides her mother, she leaves two sisters and four brothers. The family resided here for a short time and have the sympathy of the entire community.

"No one hears the door that opens When they pass beyond recall; Soft, as loosened leaves of roses, One by one our loved ones fall."

Hartman has just received a new stock of dress goods suitable for fall wear. They are the latest patterns and come in all prices. Call and see them.

The State of Oregon, by H. W. Hermann private prosecutor versus Frank Thrush, was the title of a little dispute registered in Justice Topping's Court Wednesday morning last, and the case came under the category of assault and battery.

The two principals in the case are Parkersburg fishermen, and in the cold and wee small hours of last Monday morning, upon the glassy waters of the Coquille river, the two fishermen clashed upon the subject of the Fishermen's Union, applied scriptural quotations to one another, and, as a climax, a vigorous amount of muscular energy. Hermann is a cripple and evidently did very little fighting, but swore to the complaint. Thrush pleaded guilty and was dismissed with a small fine and costs. Wade appeared as attorney for Hermann.

Mrs. I. Lando and Miss Burnett, of Marshfield, were guests of Dr. and Mrs. Prentis, the latter part of last week, returning home Tuesday. They attended the Rebekah social Saturday evening, both ladies being past officers of the Rebekah Lodge at Marshfield.

Mrs. C. E. Hoppeter gives instruction on the mandolin, guitar and banjo. Terms reasonable.

Mrs. Hartman wishes to announce the arrival of her fall millinery line from one of the largest exclusive millinery houses on the coast. This stock is largely made to order and Bandon ladies can satisfy themselves that it is of the latest styles. Two objects were in mind in securing this stock—to please you, and to please your pocket book. Come and see them before they are all looked over.

The last Elizabeth brought the new engine and boiler for the light plant. It is 100 horse power, high pressure boiler, automatic engine, and is one of the best made. The dynamo is expected on the next boat from Portland.

Leverne Leventon, of Lookout, Cal., has accepted a position in the Trowbridge store. He fills the position recently vacated by Chas. Felter, who left a short time back for Aberdeen, Wash. to accept a similar job.

The Cotillion Dancing Club, organized by several of the young men about town, will give its first dance in the Bank Hall Friday Oct. 4. The object of such a club is to give private dances among their members every two weeks during the winter. Dainty invitations will be issued to members in good standing.

The band concert last Saturday evening was well attended, and the dance following was largely attended notwithstanding the other attractions elsewhere the same evening. Dancing continued until the wee hours, and the orchestra, inclined to be a little frisky that evening, handed the dancers a waltz that lasted for 55 minutes, and some of them danced it out.

The Teachers' and Patrons' meeting at the school house last Friday evening was well attended by patrons and outsiders. Several musical numbers were given with the program, all of which was well received. On the whole it was a success and will probably be continued every month. Fruit punch and wafers were served by the teachers, during the social half hour after the program.

Sir Knight Shoes.

Panter Bros. have received a large stock, all sizes, of the famous Sir Knight Shoe. They are the best dress shoe on the market and you cannot get a better fit from any other make of shoe. The price is standard, all over the country. You can get them just as cheap in Bandon as in the cities. Regulated prices in this manner protect the buyer. A leader in school shoes are now on the shelves and they make a special effort in fitting the children.

Say girls! Have you seen the new waists that R. H. Rosa & Co. have just received from New York? They are certainly beauties and the prices are so low that you all can afford at least one.

Judge Topping had seven cases in this last term of court and came home with the smile that won't wear off. He informs the snake editor that while he had two of them continued, he had a walk-a-way with the others.
