Capt. John Bash, of the Monterey, who lately moved his family to Bandon, purchased a lot in West Bandon this week, and will commence the erection of a dwelling at once.

Bandon ladies that waited until Mrs. Hartman received her swell line of millinery are well pleased over their purchases. She still has a few left at reasonable prices that are the top notch of the latest styles.

Miss Winifred McNair left Monday morning for Albany, where she will attend school. She took the stage route via Roseburg, and was in time to travel through the recent heavy rains, which made the journey very disagreeable.

We easterners were awakened last Tuesday morning with a remembrance of old times. The storm king was abroad and the way he tore the atmosphere was a caution. It was one of those good old fashioned electrical storms, which cleared things up, and we now have the promise of some more fine weather.

Last Sunday was one of the typical days for which this country is noted. Nowhere could it have been more pleasant. Crowds thronged the bluff all day, and in the afternoon much interest was taken in the antics of the Triumph, who towed two vessels in at one time. This is the first time in the history of the Coquille that a tug boat brought two vessels in over the bar at one time.

There will be a band concert on the street Saturday evening, the weather permitting, followed by a dance in the Bank Hall. The concert of last Saturday evening had had to be postponed on account of the severe weather, so an unusually good program will be given this week under the able directorship of Emil B. Kausrud.

Chas. Martin is sure having a bad streak of luck. He has just recovered from an illness caused by internal injuries from a fall last spring, and this week, while assisting in the wiring of the new hotel, he fell through the flooring on the third story and sustained severe injuries on his hip, and head. Workmen had placed a piece of tar paper over a hole in the floor, and as the paper was scattered all over the sound floor, Martin stepped on it thinking of course the floor was sound.

The dramatic aggregation from North Bend, under the directorship of Prof. Smith, the dancing teacher from that place, called off the engagement which was to have taken place this week Wednesday. Owing to the fact there has not been a show through here lately they would no doubt have had a good attendance.

Medicotte underwear for gentlemen who care. A shetland wool, merit without comparison. See that your next suit bears this brand, R. H. Rosa & Co.

The City Council met in regular session on Monday evening this week and the regular bills of the month were allowed. An ordinance reducing the assessment of the construction of the improvements on Atwater Street was passed which provided for the actual cost of the work, making the individual assessments lower to each individual property holder.

This morning Tex Robison sold his interest in the meat business to his partner, W. N. Wright, who will conduct the business in the future. Mr. Robison is retiring, for the present from active business and leaves the business in good hands. Mr. Wright has been in this business here since January 15th, and has many friends and customers. He is well known in Coos county, up river and down coast. We extend our best wishes for a successful future.

Walter Sutton, formerly connected with the Port Orford Tribune, dropped into our sanctum last Thursday to watch the wheels go around. He has quit the newspaper business for good, and has a ranch that pays better a whole lot than these newspaper. The disturbance of the waters this morning indicates to the old timers that something unusual is occurring on the outside, and we may expect something startling in the press dispatches. The water at seven o'clock this morning ran way out and back again in a very short space of time, and resembling a tidal wave, on a small scale. All during the morning big waves came rolling in, and the waters outside are very troubled. Probably no boats will be able to get out for a few days. The Bowdoin which was towed down to the Commercial Co's. wharves last Saturday is still here waiting for the tug to venture out from Coos Bay. It may be necessary to send to the city for one before she can get out.

TIMBER LAND ACT, JUNE 3, 1878.

NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION.
United States Land Office, Roseburg, Ore., August 7, 1907.

Notice is hereby given that in compliance with the provisions of the act of Congress of June 3, 1878, entitled "An act for the sale of timber lands in the States of California, Oregon, Nevada, and Washington Territory," as extended to all the Public Land States by act of August 4, 1892, Marie M. Houston, of Bandon, County of Coos, State of Oregon, has this day filed in this office her sworn statement No. 8487, for the purchase of the N<sup>1</sup>/<sub>4</sub> of SW1-4, SE1-4 of SW1-4, and NW1-4 of SE1-4 of Section No. 15 in Township No. 29 S., Range 14 W., and will offer proof to show that the land sought is more valuable for its timber or stone than for agricultural purposes, and to establish her claim to said land before L. A. Liljeqvist, U. S. Commissioner at Marshfield, Oregon, on Wednesday, the 6th day of November, 1907.

She names as witnesses: Edward Ohman, A. E. Hadsall, G. B. Cox and Geo. E. Wilson, all of Bandon, Coos County, Oregon.

Any and all persons claiming adversely the above-described lands are requested to file their claims in this office on or before said 6th day of November, 1907.

BENJAMIN L. EDDY, Register.

Seven and one-half Chicken Ranches.

I have divided my land into a little over seven sections containing five acres each which I have on the market. These will make excellent chicken ranches, and the land is adapted to the culture of small fruits. A sixty foot right of-way passes through routing each tract. They lay two and a quarter miles south of Bandon near the plank road, and sell for $60
