

DEVELOPEMENT NEWS FROM OVER OREGON

BY OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT

What Outside Leagues are Doing to Attract Attention.

Record prices for Oregon fruit are reported from many portions of the State.

The business men of Portland addressed the pupils of most of the schools of the city last Friday afternoon. This practice is becoming a habit, however, with the business men of Portland.

The Oregon State Dairy Association will hold its annual session in Portland, Thursday and Friday, December 12th and 13th, instead of the 10th and 20th. This change assures some of the ablest speakers in the United States.

Bishop Scadding is delivering a series of lectures in the East, and as a result, Oregon is being splendidly advertised. The Bishop illustrates his lectures with lantern slides showing the agricultural products, fruit, scenery, and general attractions of the State.

$4,275,135, is the amount the fruit growers of Oregon will receive for their crop for the present year, as estimated by Hon. W. K. Newell, President of the State Board of Horticulture. In making his estimate, Mr. Newell does not deal with fancy prices, nor does he include the fruit that will be consumed on the farm.

Gresham covered herself with glory and was grateful to the other towns of Multnomah County for participating in her Fair. The showing of live stock, vegetables and fruit was very fine; there was a great variety of entertainment; thousands from Portland were in attendance. The enterprise was a success and will be repeated on a larger scale next year.

Judge J. M. Scott, President of the Oregon State Good Roads Association, has called a meeting for Nov. 14th and 15th, at the Portland Commercial Club. Mr. Samuel Hill, President of the Washington Good Roads Association, will come with a special car from the Washington meeting, Nov. 12th and 13th, and bring with him a number of Canadian experts. A lantern slide lecture will be given by Hon. Samuel Lancaster, of the Good Roads Department at Washington. Full details will be announced later.

Oregon is attracting the attention of Russian and Baltic-German immigrants. One inquiry received by the Oregon Development League from a thoroughly reliable source, says: "Particulars desired of a tract of about 4000 acres of good land suitable for general farming and stock raising, not more than ten miles from rail or steamboat transportation, that can be purchased for cash, not to exceed $30 an acre, for a Russian colony." The inquiry further says: "Our people are Circassians from the Caucasus, honest, sober, industrious, and physically the equal of any race in Europe. They will bring over their Arab horses and Angora sheep and goats. They will be a credit to any community in which they may settle, and if satisfied will be followed by immigrants from the Baltic-Germans and from Russia."

Mrs. S. R. Charleson.

After a long illness and gradually failing health, Mrs. Charleson has passed to her reward. Death came to her, in Portland, on the evening of Wednesday, Oct. 16th. She was removed to Bandon for burial, which took place from the Presbyterian Church, last Tuesday, at 2 o'clock.

Mrs. Charleson was born in Culnakirk, Inverness Shire, Scotland. She was married in Quebec, moved to Michigan, and has crossed the Atlantic seven times. She first came to Bandon 21 years ago, since when she has made this her home, and has won the esteem of many friends. She was a charter member of the Presbyterian Church, being one of the first six to effect its organization, and ever since she has maintained a warm interest in its progress. She possessed that sturdy character which is born of true discipline and religious environment. The memory of her life will be fragrant, not only in the church, but in the large circle of friends who knew her. She leaves an only son, Donald, to mourn her loss.

Mrs. R. E. Buck.

The following we reprint from the Coquille Herald on the death of Mrs. R. E. Buck, of this place:

At this time it becomes our painful duty to record the sad and sudden taking off of Mrs. R. E. Buck, of Bandon, a former resident of this city, which occurred at an early hour Saturday morning. For several years this lady had been in declining health caused from a weakening of the heart, and while her condition was known to be serious, the end came as a shock to her large number of friends and acquaintances throughout the entire county.

She leaves a husband, an adopted daughter, Mrs. James Walstrom, of Bandon, a sister, Mrs. Fannie L. Dyer, and two brothers, Messrs. Grant, one of California and the other of Iowa, to mourn her loss.

Lucy E. Grant was born in Lee county, Iowa, February 13, 1847, and passed away at the age of 60 years, eight months and six days.

She was married to R. E. Buck on November 28, 1867, and they came to Coos county in 1873, and have lived here ever since until called to cross the dark river.

Having lived in this city for something like 30 years, her acquaintance is large and her friends legion. She had always lived the life of a good, moral citizen up to about 12 years ago, when she united with the Christian church, since which time she has enjoyed the fullest blessings of a sincere and devoted Christian life. She was also a charter member of Mamie Rebekah Degree lodge, I. O. O. F., and has been a leading factor in that noble order in its good work.

She was laid to rest in the Odd Fellows cemetery in this city on Sunday in the presence of a large number of sorrowing friends. Elder Ford conducted a short service which he termed the benediction, stating that she had been preaching her own funeral sermon these many years by the upright life she lived, and the members of the lodge conducted the services with their beautiful ritualistic ceremonies.

PULP MILL TO BE INSTALLED AT ONCE

PAPER PLANT TO BE BUILT LATER ON

Have a Ready Market For All of the Pulp they can Produce

Large bodies move slowly, and especially where large sums of money from local sources are represented, their movements are cautious. Outsiders have held the opinion that the Bandon Pulp and Paper Mills were either lying dormant or were a thing of the past. There has been considerable work connected with organizing the company, and then for the directors to proceed with the enterprise. A representative has been busy in the East negotiating for machinery and making arrangements for the sale of stock. His movements have not been heralded broadcast; the time was not ripe for it, but the President of the Board of Directors, R. E. L. Bedillion, states to the RECORDER that necessary arrangements have been made, and the construction proper, under the supervision of an expert in this line, will commence in the middle of January, 1908.

The Pulp Mills will be first erected, as the delay in receiving the machinery is minor compared to that of the Paper plant. The intention at present, is to have the mills in operation by the latter part of April. Fourteen months are required to get machinery for a paper plant, and the product of the pulp plant is salable and has a ready demand from the time the first pound is turned out.

We are informed that contracts have already been made to take all of the pulp the plant can turn out, up to the time the paper machinery is installed. It will probably take a year before the change is made.

The process of the pulp mill is very interesting. Great logs are converted into a powdery pulp. The bark is all removed, and the logs cut into blocks convenient for each machine. These machines reduce the blocks into pulp, which is softened in the huge vats of water, by mixing. The cost of making the pulp in Bandon is much less than elsewhere. The conditions for obtaining the wood and for manufacture are less, and there is unlimited quantities of the material to work with. The manufacture of pulp is a very profitable business, and the stockholders in the enterprise will realize largely on their investment when the plant is in full operation.

Langlois Bros. vs. Bandon Commercial Company.

The facts of the case, between the Langlois Bros. and the Bandon Commercial Company, seem to be that the first parties left the employ of the company without due warning, practically shutting down the broom handle factory. They were not satisfied to wait until the regular pay-day for their money, which was but a few days off, as several of them had done on previous occasions when leaving the employ, but started suit before their money was due. When pay-day arrived, they refused to accept all money due them, also that which was not due for another month, as a settlement in full was tendered by the Bandon Commercial Company. They wanted to add the costs of the action taken, or no settlement.

The tender has been withdrawn, and we have been informed by parties connected with the case that it is the intention of the Bandon Commercial Company to carry the case up to the Supreme Court, if necessary, as this is a point of law which interests all business enterprises, that employ labor.

Mask Ball.

The Ladies' Art Club are completing their preparations for the biggest Masquerade Ball Bandon has ever seen. A great many are preparing to mask, and there is a big probability of having the hall full and overflowing.

The music will commence at nine o'clock and continue all night. The Grand March will occur at 11 o'clock when the dancers will unmask and the prizes will be awarded. There will be two for the two prettiest costumes, lady and gent, the two best sustained characters and the two most comical characters.

The floor committee will promise an orderly hall, and an enjoyable time will ensue. Supper at midnight and dancing by all until morning will be the balance of the program. During the first part of the evening the hall will be lighted by Japanese lanterns and jackolanters.

Teachers' and Patrons' Meeting.

There was a splendid turnout at the teachers' and patrons' meeting on Friday evening last, and much interest was manifested in the discussion of the topics arranged for the program. Miss Collier gave a very pointed and sensible talk on the subject of School Room Decoration. The subject was discussed by Mrs. Ostien and Mrs. Morrison. In the absence of Mr. Boak an explanation of the Compulsory Attendance Law was given by Mr. Ostien, and the topic was briefly discussed by Mr. Wheeler and Mrs. Ostien. On account of sickness at home Mr. Topping could not be present to present the subject, The Position of the School in the Community. It is hoped that he may give an address on that topic at some future meeting.

At the close of the meeting a half hour was given to getting acquainted and to the enjoyment of the excellent cake and coffee furnished by the ladies serving on the refreshment committee. All join in words of appreciation to the ladies of that committee for their generous and appropriate service.

The meeting was helpful and interesting throughout, and the teachers are much gratified by the interest manifested by the patrons of the school in meetings of this character; they mean much for that united effort so essential to the best welfare of our schools. Plans are being made for a similar meeting next month. Supt. Ostien.

Gets Bad Fall.

Little Thomas White, son of Capt. and Mrs. Tom White, of this place, fell from the sidewalk back of the old livery stable site, to the hard ground below sustaining serious injuries, last Saturday at noon. For a time it was thought that the fall would be fatal, but after medical examination it was found that while he had a bad fall, that it was not serious. The worst of his injuries was a fracture of the skull. We learn this morning, as we go to press, that he is doing very nicely, and if no internal complications arise, will soon be around again.

NEW BUILDING BEING BUILT ON MAIN ST.

GEO. P. LAIRD AND C. Y. LOWE BUILD

Two-Story Store Building with Offices and Apartments

For the past week the workmen have been grading and straightening up the lot belonging to Geo. P. Laird and Clarence Lowe, next to the Arcade Saloon, and the work of erecting a building will commence at once. The lumber orders have been in at the mills for several weeks and already they are commencing to haul material.

The site is very desirable for almost any kind of business. Presumably a business of some magnitude would have to occupy the lower floor, owing to its size. The ground dimensions are 36 by 117 feet. Offers of rental have been refused already as nothing but desirable tenants are wanted.

The building will be a two story affair and the upper floor will be finished off in apartments, with offices in front. Rooms are as scarce as houses here and there will be no difficulty in renting the building.

Carl Rodgers.

One of the saddest deaths we have had to record for some time, occurred Monday morning, when Carl Rodgers passed away. His obituary will be published in our next issue.

Steamer Elizabeth Arrives.

The steamer Elizabeth arrived off shore last Saturday afternoon, but did not come in until the evening tide. She made the run in 42 hours and reports almost a dead calm all the way up. Besides 216 tons of merchandise, she had four passengers: E B Sackett, J Riley, S W Ludwig and Mr and Mrs J Fletcher.

She is now loaded and ready for the return trip, and will probably leave today. She is loaded with 500,000 shingles, 230000 feet of lumber, 3000 cases salmon and 50 tons of plunder. Out going passengers are Mr and Mrs Bergthel, L L Page, E B Sackett, Mrs Hampell, Mrs Dr Owens, Miss Violet White, Mr. K Forum, Panter R Kay, G Cambell and J Simmons.

The Bandon Hardware Company received a large shipment of dishes on the last boat. They are in two patterns and are simply swell.
