The new steamer Bandon arrived off shore Monday, coming in on the afternoon tide. She made the trip in 38 1/4 hours, which is good time for such a run. Capt. Jensen said he could easily have made it in 36 hours, but slowed down, as he knew he would not be able to make the earlier tide. She carried 100 tons of merchandise.

Mrs. Ada Simpson and Miss Minnie Williams and the latter's niece little Alice Carol, left Thursday morning for Marshfield where they took the stage for Drain, from which place Mrs. Simpson goes to San Francisco and Miss Williams and niece returns to their home in Portland. The Cody Mill received a log raft Tuesday morning from up the river and on signaling to their men by the whistle, the rumor that the Bandon which had just steamed over to her wharves to load had caught on fire, became current. As she was using her winches and a great cloud of steam arose, excited persons took it for smoke, and on the "where there is a lot of smoke there must be some fire" theory, the large crowd rushed madly to the wharf and gazed intently across to the Mill. The air grew torrid with heat, not on account of the false alarm, but because some had suddenly got out of the sleepy tired state, and made a two-forty clip to the dock. Nothing like a run to get the blood flowing in good shape.

Card of Thanks.

Joseph Walsler and family wish to express their appreciation to their many friends who assisted them in their bereavement.

JOSEPH WALSER AND FAMILY.

Rosina Walsler.

Rosina, wife of Joseph Walsler, of this city, passed from this life, Saturday morning, October 26th, aged 49 years. Deceased was a native of Tyrol, Austria, and came to Bandon in September, 1881, where she has since resided, having but recently moved into the beautiful new home in the west end of town.

Mrs. Walsler had been a sufferer for years from asthma, but her death was undoubtedly hastened by brooding over the death of her youngest child, Rosina, at the time of the San Francisco disaster, in 1906, the suspense at that time being almost unbearable.

She leaves a husband, and four children, Mrs. F. C. Simpson, Alais Flora and Otto Walsler, to mourn the loss of a devoted wife and mother.

The funeral was held Sunday afternoon, interment being in the Catholic Cemetery, Thomas Devereux of Parkersburg reading the prayer for the dead. A large number of friends were present, and their sympathy and best thoughts went out to the bereaved and stricken family.

Card of Thanks.

The relatives wish to express their sincere thanks for the many kindnesses shown them by friends during the late illness and death of Carl A. Rodgers. Signed:

Mrs. Vega Rodgers,
Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Rodgers,
Mrs. Chas. Carr,
Mrs. G. P. Stewart,
Mrs. Chas. Hubbard,
Ralph Rodgers.

Justice Court

Lewis Olson, whose name appeared on the register of the city bastille two consecutive times a short while ago, was up again before the municipal court of Bandon to show cause, if any, why he should fill up on red eye and defoul the air with loud and abusive language. He wilted and left an eighty-nine cent pistol as part payment of the fine and costs. With the glad light shining in his eye, he left the court room, resolved firmly never to do it again, when the arm of the law, in the shape of Deputy Sheriff Blackerby again got him in its clutches, this time on the charge of carrying concealed weapons, the aforesaid eighty-nine cent pistol; Judge Topping gazed down from the bench and thought ten days in the county bastille would be beneficial to his—Olson's—health, and straightway gave him his meal ticket on the county for that period. Olson was unfortunate!—He had just drawn his money to apply on the former fine, which he did, with little remaining, but the crackling thirist was too much, and instead of leaving the town, as he promised he tarried with the above disastrous results. He probably won't be back.

Crossman Timmons filed an information against Alber. Hermann of up river, last week on the charge of malicious destruction of private property. It seems that Herman had run into a net, belonging to the plaintiff, with his gasoline boat. The net was damaged to such an extent as to give a couple of men a few day's employment in repairing it. The case was brought up before Judge Topping who dismissed it on the grounds of insufficient evidence of malice. The accident occurred in the afternoon about four o'clock near Bullards. G. T. Treadgold appeared for the State and C. R. Wade for Hermann.

A. Rice spent over Sunday with friends in Myrtle Point. He says he is taking treatment for his throat trouble. He will have to give a better excuse than that if he expects it to hold good.

Wm. McKay returned on this last trip of the Bandon. He informs us that he would have liked to remain in San Francisco longer, but for the fact he has a family to hustle for now. It's a girl, came last month, and while Wm. did want a new man at the ship yard, he thinks there is nothing like having a girl around the house. He informs us that his wife will shortly return to Bandon, where she has a large circle of friends.
