Panter Bros. have received their calendars for 1908. They are large panel lithographs, and consist of two designs: a rabbit and chicken combination, and a girl holding a kitten. Both are very pretty and will be in demand by their customers.

Be sure and read A. Rice's ad this week. He is going to give a gold watch away, free of all charge, no lottery. If you purchase your holiday goods from him, you may be the owner of this watch.

Did he bring that umbrella back yet? No, of course not, they never do. Why not get one of those new ones at Lorenz & Hoyt, and have your name engraved on the handle? It is cheaper than buying umbrellas every year.

Our big line of Holiday goods is now unpacked and ready for the trade. Everything in the line of Toys at Hartman's. A large assortment to select from.

Read what we have in flour. Sperry's, Webfoot, Sound Ring, Olympic and Dement's Best. Could the Gods ask for more? R. H. Rosa Co.

The Thanksgiving Ball last Wednesday evening was an enjoyable affair for all concerned. A small number was present compared with dances of this order, but was sufficient to pay expenses, which was all that was desired. Dancing lasted until 2:30.

The Bandon Hardware Co. have an elegant line of Chinaware and Dishes especially for the Christmas trade. They are swell. Call and see them. Opposite Post Office.

The Sotoyome, loaded with poles for San Francisco was the only boat to leave the harbor Monday. We understand the heavy storms have washed considerable sand in, but it is being washed out again by the freshets in the river.

Free cleaning and polishing during the holidays. Number will be limited. Call and make your appointment. Examination and prices given free.

C. A. McKellips, the Sewing machine man from North Bend, has opened up an office at Bandon Furniture Store. He will be in Bandon from the twentieth to the twenty-fifth of each month. Call at the store and see our machines. Leave orders for supplies. Machines for sale or rent on easy terms.

People are, to a certain extent, judged by the clothing they wear. If you desire to give an up-to-date impression, you can do so by wearing one of Lorenz & Hoyt's suits.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Denholm left Wednesday morning, for Portland, going by the way of Drain. Mr. Denholm attended the regular yearly meeting of the Bandon Bank and reports everything in first-class shape. They have a nice home in Portland, and their daughter, Christie, is attending school, and taking both vocal and instrumental instruction.

Don't ask us for overalls if you want a cheap article. We sell on Merit. A trial will convince you that we have the best. R. H. Rosa Co.

Best on Earth! What? The World brand Silverware at the Bandon Hardware Co.'s Store, opposite the Post Office. Call and see it before buying elsewhere.

The steamer Alliance left Coos Bay last Thursday bound for Portland, but in crossing the bar she lost three blades of her propeller and drifted around on the Pacific until picked up off the coast of California. She arrived at Astoria, Tuesday, safely. A North Bend saloon keeper was washed overboard and his wife was badly bruised. The vessel will be laid up for a week or so.

Bandon is still growing as you can tell by visiting the Bandon Furniture Co.'s Store and seeing the big stock of goods they carry. Everything nice for the home to be found there.

Capt. Goodmansen asks us to correct the statement of the Times, regarding the so-called narrow escape of wrecking. He says he was in no danger whatsoever and was at no time on the rocks. There was no damage done at all and the boat is now loaded and ready for sea again. The article, heads and all are incorrect.

A. Rice has a full line of Christmas Cards. Very pretty and something new. Call and see them.

J. E. Walstrom will secure your berth for passage on the Breakwater. The report that she sank in the Columbia River, Tuesday, with 30 passengers, was false. The vessel collided with a barkentine while on her way to the East side to unload coal, and dented a plate. It will take three days to repair the same, and she will leave Portland on Saturday for Coos Bay.

The Washcalore, a gasoline schooner, arrived last Saturday to take a cargo of lumber from Lyons & Johnson, and Prosper. She is a trim craft with 280 horsepower, and is specially adapted for this river. She will carry 300,000 feet of lumber and may be placed on a run here.

The Coos Bay Times has again changed management, M. C. Maloney now having a controlling interest in the paper. Heretofore the plant has been greatly hampered by a prying board of directors who objected to almost every move and policy made by its editor. Thus restricted, it could only cater to certain interests and could not have free editorial policy as is now promulgated by the new manager.

The two masted schooner Lizzie Prien, Capt. Goodmansen, master, in attempting to sail in over the bar last Saturday, came near having difficulties, as the wind died down before she was clear in, but the Captain's usual good luck stayed with him, and she came in all right with the assistance of the Life Saving Crew. She carried ballast from San Francisco and had been out 17 days. The vessel is now loading up river.

The Woolen Mill was closed Wednesday on account of a broken steam pipe. The Mill started again this morning. Dame Rumor had the plant closed on account of financial scares, but Manager Bedillion tells the RECORDER the establishment was never in better condition; plenty of demand for their product at present, and as soon as the banks are open again, everything will be in better shape than ever before.

This morning when the cold shades of dawn rose in the offing, the steward of the Washcalore and a sailor, we are informed, left the vessel and proceeded to the wharf where they straightway peeled off coat, hat, and all superfluous clothing and engaged in fistic combat. A choice collection of adjectives were indulged in, together with a large area of skin and hair, filling the air with a torridness equal to the tropics. Bystanders said, that from a standpoint of slugging, the affair was a beaut, and but for the timely call to breakfast, the match would probably have continued for an hour or more. The call to the inner man was too much for the thirst of blood entertained, and so the combat was postponed until some future date.

Badly Mixed Up.

Abraham Brown, of Winterton, N. Y., had a very remarkable experience; he says: "Doctors got badly mixed up over me; one said heart disease; two called it kidney trouble; the fourth, blood poison, and the fifth stomach and liver trouble; but none of them helped me; so my wife advised trying Electric Bitters, which are restoring me to perfect health. One bottle did me more good than all the five doctors prescribed." Guaranteed for blood poison, weakness and all stomach, liver and kidney complaints, by C. Y. Lowe, druggist, 50c.
