Port Orford Notes.

From The Tribune.

"Where is the Berwick? Have you heard from the Berwick?" are the prevailing salutations in our grub-less town. But the wild winds answer in meaningless echoes.

Mr. and Mrs. Grafton Tyler passed through town last week. They came from their home in Bandon, bound for Dr. Tyler's at Denmark, where Mrs. Tyler will remain a few weeks.

Clint Malehorn is now harvesting his apples, and expects several hundred boxes of A 1 grade. Isn't it strange that more apples are not raised in Curry, when conditions are so favorable for their successful growth.

The Masque Ball on Thanksgiving night was well attended and passed off without a jar or jostle, and will long be remembered by the participants. Only about a dozen ladies masked but what they lacked in quantity they made up in quality. There were the usual number of comical costumes among the males, who had a great deal of fun and made things lively. Among the notable costumes were those of Mrs. Alice Zumalt, Mrs. A. Jamieson and Miss Maud Cook. Miss Mary Sutton as Topsy was a decided success, and one of the prettiest girls in town represented the Tribune and won our thanks for her courtesy in doing so. The supper by Mrs. Nielson was all that could have been desired, and in every way the ball was a success with no unpleasant features to mar its pleasures.

The shooting match at Port Orford Thanksgiving drew together quite a number of our young marksmen, but the weather was bad and the marksmanship was like the weather, wild and variable. In shooting for ducks and geese some good single shots were made, but when it came to shooting three shots string measure for beef the quarters were won by four to five inch strings. But a good time was had and the wild shooting encouraged everybody to try. Those who won geese were, Chas. Long 2 H. T. Stewart, 2, while the following won one each: Jesse Sutton, Lorin Forty, Jas. Curry and Andrew Ellis. Chas. Long, Dave McKenzie, Fred and Hardy Stewart each won a quarter of beef. We have no list of those winning the ducks.

Fame for Ezra Meeker.

It would be a fitting reward for his services if Ezra Meeker's name should be bestowed on a cement roadway from the Atlantic to the Pacific Ocean. The man drove to the far Northwest many years ago, following the Oregon trail—or helping to make it. In the present year he has driven East to New York and later to Washington with his ox team and covered wagon. His plan is to interest the Government in the making of a highway across the continent.

His driving does not add anything to the evidences of its need. But his feat has had the effect of calling attention to the need of such a road. And in the common acceptance of that sentiment lies the hope that it may be built.

They tell us that the automobile industry has only just begun; that the cars for next year will be bigger than ever before; that driving about in America becomes more and more the purpose of the people owning such vehicles.

If there were a cement road from the Atlantic to the Pacific, there would be a constant procession of automobiles running in both directions along that highway. The side jaunts into interesting territory to the north or south would be found easy. Americans would get better acquainted with America. Millions of money that is wasted in Europe would remain here, where it was made—and where it should remain.—Salt Lake Republican.
