

Exodus to Europe.

Comes now as plaintiffs, some of the Nations of Europe, and as ground for their complaints, as follows: That pursuant to the recent financial flurry in the United States, many people have become alarmed at the situation; that innumerable thousands upon thousands of said people have been flocking into the domain of the respective said sailing plaintiffs. That the immigration departments of said nations are unable to cope with the situation, that the labor markets are becoming over stocked, and that a panic confronts the said nations, chief among whom is Italy.

By way of answer we allege that said immigrants are returning back to his native land, that much of the scum of Europe which has gathered at our doors is none too bad to return to the land whence it came, more especially since said exodus has taken millions of dollars from our treasuries to deposit "at home" in safe keeping.

Wherefore we think Italy et al. have no real coming and had best look at both sides of the question before sailing for a protest. There is still room here for intelligent and thrifty foreigners, but those who became alarmed at the sound of panic, and fled, are the more ignorant and less desirable class, and though they took much money with them, no doubt it is worth all they took, if they will only stay at home.

Notice.

Department of the Interior, General Land Office, Washington, D. C. New forms of declaratory statements, applications and proofs, under the coal land laws, applicable to the public lands of the United States, outside of the District of Alaska, have been adopted and on after March 1, 1908, no declaratory statements, applications or proofs will be allowed in such cases, unless executed upon the new official forms or upon forms which are exact duplicates thereof, both as to wording, arrangement and size.

H. A. RALLINGER,
Commissioner.

Plans for the Oregon State building to house the state exhibits at the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition have been completed, and bids on the same will be considered Jan. 1st 1908.

The building will cost $500,000 which will take half of the appropriation made at the last session of the Legislature for that purpose, the balance being deemed sufficient to cover the exhibit expenditures. This gives a year and a half preparation and when the Seattle Fair opens in June, 1909, the Oregon exhibit should be ready and complete the first day.

It Does the Business.

Mr. E. E. Chamberlain of Clinton Maine says of Bucklen's Arnica Salve: "It does the business; I have used it for piles and it cured them. Use it for chapped hands, and it cured them. Applied it to an old sore, and it healed it without leaving a scar behind." 25c at C. Y. Lowe's drug store.

ATTEMPT AT SELF-DESTRUCTION

J. G. HILL STABS HIMSELF IN BANDON

May Die of Attempt.—Heavy Drink and Dependence on the Opium.

J. G. Hill is the name of a would-be suicide, now lying in a very serious condition at the Pacific Hotel in this City. Early last Friday morning he inflicted two wounds in the left abdomen by stabbing himself with a knife, and the surgeon on attendance has announced that in all probability the injuries will prove fatal.

The unfortunate man is said to have been drinking heavily for several days, and to have lost considerable money, and when questioned, had little to say except that he had the "snakes," and also stating that he is a member of the I. O. O. F., in good standing, and living in Portland.

Mrs. Hill, claims to be the owner of a hotel in North Bend, where his family resides, though he has been in Bandon for several days.

We learn later that Mr. Hill is resting easier, and that his recovery seems quite probable. He is the proprietor of the "Our Home Restaurant" at North Bend, to which place he came late last fall, and is generally not known in this City. Mrs. Hill arrived in Bandon last evening to watch at his bedside.

Young Men and Women.

Having gone through the early trials and hardships of getting an education in the pioneer ranch days of Coos County, I take this method of informing the ambitious and energetic young people throughout the county that we have here at North Bend one of the most thoroughly equipped and up-to-date business colleges (The Miller-Cleaver School) that it has been my pleasure to visit. Their teachers are from the Brechné-Walker Business College, of Portland, where they had charge in special work for years.

Here you have the advantage of every attention a teacher can give. The classes are not so large as in older schools, therefore better results are obtained. The expense is not so great nor home so far away. If you are desirous of procuring a business education there is no time like the present and no better place on earth than North Bend. Allow me to encourage any and all whose inclinations run in that direction. I know the importance of it—the advantage to be gained by it.

This letter is written to assist in the upbuilding of our country and for the benefit of those who wish to better their condition and enlarge their salaries.

In conclusion I beg you to come and investigate. The trip is short, it will do you good. Or write to the Miller-Cleaver Business College, North Bend, Oregon. Yours for education.
(Signed)
R. J. COKE.

A Cure for Misery.

"I have found a cure for the misery malaria poison produces," says R. M. James of Louellen, S. C. "Its called Electric Bitters, and comes in 50-cent bottles. It breaks up a case of chills or a bilious attack in almost no time; and it puts yellow jaundice clean out of commission." This great tonic, medicine and blood purifier gives quick relief in all stomach, liver and kidney complaints and the misery of lame back. Sold under a guarantee at C. Y. Lowe's drug store.

Compliments Acknowledged

The RECORDER wishes to acknowledge the receipt of the following bouquets, and in perchance, others there by of like mind, we feel most highly gratified, indeed, and fully repaid for the strenuous weeks of midnight toil necessary to edit our special number.

From the Coquille Sentinel:

Editor Bath of the Bandon RECORDER deserves considerable credit for the Christmas edition which he issued last week. It contained 32 pages and was filled with illustrations and descriptive matter of the county and its resources. Everyone should obtain a few copies and send them to friends in the East who would appreciate them. The merchants of the city by the sea as usual, took hold and made the anniversary number a success by their liberal advertising. It was the only Christmas edition issued in the county this year, and Mr. Bath deserves much credit for his understanding and the manner in which it was printed.

From the Bandon Voice Enterprise:

The Bandon RECORDER of the 7th was one of the most interesting thorough special numbers that has ever been issued in Coos county. It was issued on the occasion of the 24th anniversary of the RECORDER's first publication, and consists of four sections, containing 32 pages. While the bulk of the edition is devoted to Bandon, its industries and scenic attractions, it contains a very good write-up of the industries of the county and its desirable attributes. A holiday cover printed in green on a good grade of book is a feature of the issue. More than forty views of Bandon, the scenic ocean beach, the forests, ship-building yards, wharves, vessels and buildings are shown in the edition, and the editorial work describing the town and country affords excellent reading, especially to prospective settlers.

From D. K. Ball, Manager of the American Type Founders Co., Portland:

The Christmas number of the RECORDER is a beauty. It is full of valuable information regarding your section, and from the number of ads it is evident your merchants are enterprising and appreciate your efforts to advertise and build up Bandon. More often the merchants are slow about taking hold and helping newspaper men carry out such an undertaking successfully.

From Tom Richardson, Manager Portland Commercial Club:

Please accept sincere congratulations upon your excellent Anniversary Number. I do hope that a great many of the papers may be sent to the older states, for the better publication could be sent.

With best wishes for your success during the ensuing year, I am,
Very truly yours,
TOM RICHARDSON.

Shipment of Pianos Due.

I wish to state that a shipment of pianos and organs will be due on the next steamer and any one contemplating the purchase of a piano should get prices and see the goods before buying elsewhere.

REWARD FOR DISCOVERY OF SILICA SAND

BANDON REPORTED TO POSSESS SILICA

Possibility for New Resource if Bandon is Able to "Make Good."

"We will take one hundred tons each month of silica sand, 96 per cent pure silica, free from iron oxides, delivered at Portland and not to exceed $5.00 per ton, and we will pay $100.00 in cash to the discoverer."

Through the Oregon Development League and Tom Richardson is manager, the above offer has been made by the Columbia Steel Works of Portland, as a prize, and open to the discoverer of any such sand in Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Montana and California.

The following clipping from Richardson's letter relative to such offer is self explanatory.

"Silica sand is now shipped to Portland and other iron and steel manufacturing centres of the Pacific Coast from Minnesota. It has been frequently reported that large quantities of pure silica have been discovered, and the community that makes good in this instance has a greater source of revenue than gold or copper mines, lumber mills or factories of any kind, for when a dependable quality of silica sand is found in quantities sufficient to supply the demand, all the iron works from the Gulf of California to Alaska, and from the Rocky Mountains west will be customers. It may just as well be given to the Public now as later that the steel trust and another combination of multi-millionaires engaged in the production of iron and steel are investigating different points on the Pacific Coast with the idea of building another Pittsburgh.

Don't worry about the present freight rate. The discovery of a large quantity of silica sand would make a low rate necessary—remember that the sand comes from Minnesota. This is your opportunity. Send a sample to your nearest assayer to be sure you have the goods.

Bandon has plenty of sand. Who will make a first analysis?

A Higher Health Level.

"I have reached a higher health level since I began using Dr. King's New Life Pills," writes Jacob Spillinger of West Franklin, Maine. "They keep my stomach, liver and bowels working just right." If these pills disappoint you or if you will be refunded at C. Y. Lowe's drug store, 25c.

Mayor Harry K. Lane has declared that agents of the Japanese Government have secured accurate maps of the city of Portland, with maps and specifications of every roadway leading into the city and various pipe lines from which the city obtains its water supply. According to Mayor Lane the plans and maps were prepared by alleged spies and are superior in every way to anything possessed by the city. The Mayor did not discover the presence of the spies until their work was completed whereupon he transmitted his information to Washington and was asked to furnish all the details of the alleged spies.

ECHOES OF THE CHRISTMAS STORM

DRENCHING DOWNPOUR; SLIGHT DAMAGE

Coos County's Communication With the Outside is Cut Off.

To have the top of a tree planted in the middle of one's home with force enough to cave in the roof is not an every day experience, yet that is what happened to the home of Milo Pearson, of Ten Mile, during the recent storm which swept over the Coast. Luckily there was nobody at home, or there might have been a serious accident to members of the family, says the Times.

The stage from Dain failed to arrive at Jarvis Landing yesterday afternoon and nothing has been heard of the cause of the delay. The wires are down between this point and Gardiner, and it is expected that rough water or an accident at the Umpqua landing has delayed the progress of the passengers to this point. The passengers outward bound this morning were compelled to stay here and this latest phase of the traffic has made it impossible to get away from Coos Bay until the arrival of the boats from Portland and San Francisco next week.

The wires of the telegraph company were up for a while last evening but the wind and rain during the night detected some spot which has hitherto been untouched, with the result that the wires are out of commission again this morning and we are compelled to go to press without a complete report today.

There will be service in this church next Sunday, Jan. 5th at the usual hours. The administration of the Lord's supper will be observed at the morning service. Sunday School at 10 a. m. and Christian Endeavor at 6:30 p. m. All are invited.
